The highest cash price paid for hides at J. W. Ricedorffs.

Frank Currie was nominated last Wednesday at Crawford for representative.

Court convenes a week from Monday; you will find a list of jurors in another place.

Miss Elizabeth Harris went over into Wyoming last week to begin a school term.

John Anderson got his hay put up last week and moved his outfit to the S-E Sunday.

Buy Gum at Lowry's and get a Parker or Roosevelt button.

A number of soldiers passed through on the passenger Tuesday morning enroute for Casper.

Conrad Parsons left for St. Louis Tuesday evening to attend the world's fair for a week.

All who attended the lecture Monday night express themselves as being well pleased with it.

C. T. Grewell was in from Hewitt Monday, and he said everybody is well down that way.

Indian creek has quite an interesting Sunday school with Mrs. Labbie Dryer as superintendent.

Rev. Daniels returned from Atkinson Tuesday morning. We understand he is to be sent to Stewart.

Miss Gertrude Converse went to Douglast Saturday morning, where she will attend school this winter.

Drop in and see us when in town if you are in need of stationary of any kind and we will treat you right.

Miss Myrtle Converse left for Edgemont, S. D. Tuesday evening, where she will stay during the winter.

John Brown was in town Monday, and informs us now that he has a new well near his house which will give him good pure and cold water to drink, Lyons Bros. done the drilling.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deister were in from their ranch yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Turner came up from Grammercy Monday and attended the lecture in the evening.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Mr. T. O. Williams of Harrison and Mrs. J. A. Bree of Hunter received the sad news Monday of the death of their oldest brother, Joseph Williams, who lived in Southeastern Iowa near Red Oak. He had been out driving on Saturday, Sept. 3, 1904, and his team became frightened and ran away and when Mr. Williams was found about a mile from home, his head was turned back under his body and he was unconscious and remained so until his death, which occurred the following Tuesday. Mr. Williams was about 59 years old and has been a widower for 18 years. He had two sons, one of whom has been living on the farm ever since the death of his wife, and his only daughter has been living with her aunt in the eastern part of this state since that time. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved family, relatives, brothers and sisters.

NEWS AROUND GLEN

The small pox reported at this place some time ago was only a scare.

Miss Anna Hanson is teaching in District 19.

Miss May Weber expects to leave the last of this week for Bellevue, Neb., where she expects to attend college for the year. Miss Weber graduated from the Crawford High school and taught three successful terms of school since, but not being satisfied with a High school education now seeks the college, success to you Miss May.

The Sunday School is going along very nicely with very good attendance and interest.

Lester Mason is attending school in District 19. That's right Lester nothing better and especially when you have a handsome young lady for a teacher.

J. B. Burke, Sunday School Missionary visited our Sunday School last Sunday and held service which was appreciated by all.

J. H. Denslow is enjoying a nice barrel of apples shipped to him from his old home at Hooper.

Mrs. Julius Jensen, Chris Madsen J. B. Burke, and Mrs. Mortensen's brother taken dinner at the Mortensen home Sunday, and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen.

Clara Mortensen is enrolled as a student of the Chadron Academy.

Miss Emma Kevman still presides as organist for the Sunday School which is a great help in singing.

School has not started in District No. 2 yet, waiting for a teacher.

Rev. McNab wrote Mr. Weber that he and his family were on the road for Sioux County.

Let everybody attend the Sunday School convention which meets Saturday and Sunday. The lecture given by Prof. Stedley on "The Boy God Made" is excellent, and don't forget to hear Miss Hanes Sunday night. Every Sabbath school in the county should be represented, and every father and mother should be present—especially those that are not regular attendants at Sunday school for here you will see what we are trying to do for your children.

Harry DeLover, the nephew of Leonard DeU, who has been visiting the latter for some time, left for his home at Philadelphia, Penn. Tuesday evening. Mrs. H. Zimmerman accompanied him, and she will visit her old home during the winter. It has been about 18 years since she left there and no doubt she will find things changed so that it won't seem natural to be at her old home again. She has many friends here who wish her an enjoyable time while there.

Dr. H. C. and Minnie Curry, Eye specialist of Chicago, who have made several trips to Harrison, will make their next professional visit Wednesday Sept. 28th. They are the oldest and most reliable specialist in the west and carry the largest set of instruments in use. Glasses fitted at the lowest prices. Consultation free. They are known to be reliable.

PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION.

The People's Independent electors of the counties comprising the Fifty Third Representative district of Nebraska are requested to send delegates to a convention to be held in Crawford, Nebraska, on the 27th day of September, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for representative for said district. The various counties comprising the district are entitled to representation as follows: Box Butte - 6 Sheridan - 7 Dawes - 8 Sioux - 3.

Hunter Happenings.

Frost killed all the tender vines in the garden last Saturday night.

Mrs. Christensen was a Harrison visitor Saturday.

Pearla Jones and Kernal Paddy visited at Proctorville Saturday.

Mrs. J. A. Rice visited friends and had some dental work done in Harrison Tuesday.

Harold Cook and Willard Mills came over Saturday bringing a lady, baby and nurse, who had been visiting from Fort Robinson for the past week. They went home on the evening train.

John Butler was over from Agate over night Saturday.

Harold Hunter left for Omaha to attend school. About a week ago his mother received word that he was sick and he goes from our pure air into the heavy air of Omaha.

Pearla Jones started to school Monday. The Burton folks, from near Crawford, stayed over night at East Andrews the last of the week. They had been on their homestead over south and were going home.

George Baldwin and Frank Binnon were visiting at Mr. Jones over night Sunday.

The soldier boys camped on the hill south of Hunter Friday night.

Pearla Jones came home Friday night after spending a week at L. H.'s; she reports a splendid time. Kernal Priddy of Harrison came home with her and they surely enjoyed themselves until train time Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hughes started overland Monday morning for Seward Co. where they will visit friends for some time. We wish them a pleasant journey and see time while gone.
