GRAND BALL.

Will be given at the Andrews Hall Saturday evening Oct. 29, 1904. Commencing at 7:30 and will close at 12:00. Everybody invited. R. C. DUNN.

Remember that we publish contest notices, and if you desire us to have your work make it known to the one that makes out your papers.

Dr. Snyder, osteopath, will be in Harrison Tuesday and Saturday of each week.

Mrs. George Garisch returned from Denver yesterday morning. She has been visiting her folks there for a couple of weeks.

This office has treated itself to a new Webster's International Dictionary so from this forth all misspelled words will be a thing of the past.

W. J. A. Baum was shaking hands with his many friends in Harrison last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Baum is always welcome for he has a cheering word for all. He has been bad up for several weeks by wrenching one of his hips but is nearly himself again.

MARRIED

Clarence Zimmerman and Winnie Brown were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown on last Wednesday at high noon. Rev. E. E. Zimmerman, brother of the groom, performed the ceremony.

Clarence is the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerman and is highly respected by his many acquaintances.

We have known him from his boyhood days and can say that we always found him honest, and strong, and gentlemanly in his bearing to others, and we can safely say that the bride has made no mistake in selecting this young man for her companion for life, and from our acquaintance with the bride we feel that he has made no mistake in choosing this young lady for his bride. The PRESS-JOURNAL extends best wishes hoping that their lives may be such as husband and wife that can ever look with pleasure and joy to the time they were made one.

Bodac Gleanings.

John Coffey returned Thursday, well pleased with his trip to St. Louis.

Mr. Archie Akers and family have moved into the Wickerham home for the winter.

The Zimmerman brothers went to Old Woman Saturday to bring their cattle home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thayer went to Indian Creek Sunday afternoon to spend a week with their old friends.

James Anderson and family came in from Crawford on Saturday of last week to visit awhile with Grandpa Hill.

The church was well filled last Wednesday evening to witness the panoply. Why can't we draw the same crowd to Sunday School?

F. M. Hall, Wm. Miller and Weller Bros. took their cattle to Harrison Saturday for shipment. Weller Bros. went with the stock to Omaha.

A storm squall swept over this country Monday morning and for ten minutes raged with all the fury of a cyclone. It frightened the school children evidently as only two answered to the roll call in school No. 9.

John Coffey and Charles Owen went over to Coffey's siding last Sunday. Mr. Owen went from there to Omaha with a shipment of C. F. C. Hall's cattle.

The Wedding Bells the editor had references to in the last issue of the PRESS-JOURNAL, was we presume those of Mr. George Zimmerman and Miss Winnie Brown who were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday Oct. 19, Rev. E. E. Zimmerman officiating. This young couple are well and favorably known and all their friends will join in wishing them a pleasant voyage and smooth sailing over the matrimonial sea.

Rev. Emery Zimmerman came up from Omaha October 13th bringing with him his newly made Bride, an estimable young lady of Valley Nebr., while here he combined duty with pleasure and preached an excellent sermon at Bodac.

The following Sunday after his arrival, every one turned out to hear him, feeling that in all probability it would be a long time before they would again have such an opportunity. We were sorry to stay among us was limited. After visiting his relatives and making some pleasant calls on old friends he felt that duty called him to resume his charge at Montpelier Id. Io, for which place he left on Monday and while we trust his journey through life will be a useful and prosperous wish him and his wife many long and happy years.

A very pleasant affair was the social gathering Friday evening at the home of F. M. Hall given in compliment to the above mentioned Grooms and their respective Brides, a pleasant evening was spent and a sumptuous repast was served in which Oysters figured prominently along with pies and cakes and other delicacies usual at such occasions—one gentleman declaring there were eight kind of pie which must have puzzled the brain and ingenuity of the hostess to provide.

The baby show was largely attended last night with a goodly number of babies present. The judges that passed on the beauty of the babies were Charles Grawell, Harry Daugherty and Bert Ernest, all old bachelors but Bert, and as his showing is very bad for a married man, the Royal neighbors felt that he still belonged to that class. After viewing the babies the judges after due deliberation decided that Mrs. Guy Kendall's baby was the prettiest and Mrs. Clem Leeling's was second so they were awarded the prizes as announced. Mrs. Kendall's baby first prize a silver bracelet, and Mrs. Leeling's a mug and alphabet plate. To say that there were many disappointed mothers is putting it light, but they still see the beauty in the faces of their little ones that the bachelors Judges couldn't. The Royal Neighbors realized about $40.00 from the supper.

Has removed my electrical apparatus and am now prepared to give special attention to all chronic diseases and diseases of woman. Rheumatism and kidney diseases of every form.

Rev. E. E. Zimmerman preached quite an interesting sermon to a large congregation on last Sunday night. After the service a great many of our people and his wife and all expressed themselves as well pleased with both the sermon and his wife. He and his wife left on Monday morning train to Montpelier Idaho where he has a pastorate, and will make his home in the future at that place. The PRESS-JOURNAL extends best wishes and he will read the happenings in old Sioux every week through its columns and we hope at some future time to see him located nearer us, for we take a pride in him for his stick-toitiveness in getting an education, and in taking on the great work that he is now in. Preaching the Word.

TIMOTHY.

Hunter Happenings.

Mrs. Bassett is away visiting at Crawford, Alliance, Cashton and other points.

Quite a snow storm struck our town Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hughes returned home from their visit in Seward Co. last Friday, we are glad to see them with us again, they had a very enjoyable visit.

Mrs. Tom Jones was a Harrison visitor Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cook, son John and Miss Ida Passey of Agate came over Sunday to take in the show at the school house.

Mr. Cook was doing business in Harrison Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook and son John and Ida were pleasant callers at Fort Hill Sunday evening.

Mr. McIntosh visited his family at this place over Sunday.

Oscar McIntosh took some saddle horses to Crawford for some gentlemen who stopped cattle from here Saturday. He promised his folks to be home on Monday morning's passenger, but he did not come so his mother waited until evening when she became so worried she went to the phone and wired via Harrison to Crawford to find out if he got there alright. She found he did. Tuesday morning he came up on the passenger with his hand up, saying a shell had burst in his hand. We don't know how serious it is, but another case of a boy with a gun. Boys are often too confident in handling a gun.

Mr. Brown of Agate was a county seat visitor Monday.

Mr. Jones and son Thomas were over to Saw Dust Saturday to get a load of lumber for the new coal house for Dist. No. 30.

The moving picture show has come and gone—it was fine too, about thirty being present. The talking machine afforded much amusement, especially the "morning at Calvary farm". The passing of the circus and many others we could live to hear again. It was sure well worth the small fee asked, for the pleasure of seeing and hearing.

L. C. Lewis went out to view the beautiful climate of California and Washington.

He spent some time with our old Sioux county friends, Charlie Biedle and Charlie Schulte, and he says they are getting along fine.

Mr. Lewis's description of the country almost gives us the California fever, but what is the use of a poor country editor ever thinking of anything greater than to plead with his poor delinquent subscribers that he might have a mess of potatoes and garden sass once and awhile, this JOURNAL once boasted of a Canon at its head, but he went west and sunk into oblivion, but our Charlies are all O. K. and we hope yet to meet them on their own soil.
