Things are quiet since the election and that means very quiet. The Democrats got it in the neck bad, but they have got use to that, so they are not doing any lamenting but are laying the plans for another campaign.

The following persons made final proof on their homesteads last week before clerk of the District Court E. F. Pontus: J. G. Merriam, Nora B. Bourret, Ed L. Schmidt, E. C. Dunn, O. C. Hunt, J. W. Sberill, Beulah Martin, N. L. Tipton, F. B. Langworthy, Herman Hilsen and Marita Hovoy.

MARRIED. Mr. Jim Nolan and Miss Nora Bourret were united together in the holy bonds of matrimony Tuesday evening. Judge Wilberdorff officiating. The groom is a successful ranchman living in the south part of the county and the bride is a respective daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bourret, who has lived with her parents on Runningwater during their time in Sioux County. We are not personally acquainted with this couple, but likewise with their many friends we wish them many long and happy days together, and may their lives together be prosperous. They will make their home on the ranch which the groom has prepared.

Among those who shipped cattle from here are: Marcus Vald z Jears, A. McGinley 1, J. W. Ross 1, E. A. Bigelow 2, L. Dout 1, W. Shepherd 1, A. Edman 3, and P. D. Dunn shipped 3 cars from Coffee siding and Tom Bell 23.

The North West Nebraska Educational Association will be held in Crawford Friday and Saturday, November 25 and 26. Let every teacher, and everyone who is interested in the educational work, attend. It gives you new ideas and helps you to carry out your old ones.

A social party was held at the Gerlach home last night. Miss Mamie being the lady of the house. A large number of young people were present and enjoyed the evening playing games of various kinds until time to depart. After playing for a while, candy, nuts, apples, bananas, and etc. were passed around and games were laid aside for a while, for games do not take the place of treats of this kind. Everybody enjoyed themselves and felt that it was well for them to be there. After wishing Miss Mamie a happy evening, and thanking her for the same to themselves they departed for their home longing for the time to come again when they might participate in having an enjoyable time under the management of her.

Henry Rose reports a pugilistic encounter in the south part of the county between Boon Harding and Ned Usher, which resulted in a draw, as they were too evenly matched. We have looked upon Ned's physiognomy, and he shows that he was up against it, but they say Boon's good looks are somewhat battered too. Poor way to settle disputes, but still it is better than using a gun as cowards generally do. Mother Nature will soon raze the boys alright again, and had there guns been used there might have been one less to tell the story, or may be both. Settle your difficulties this way boys as you have to, but we think there is a better way. We learn both are friends now, which is the right way. If you have misunderstandings settle them and be friends, for life is too short to live at enmity with any man.

STOCK REPORT.
South Omaha Nebr. Nov. 16, 1904.
The first two days of this week brings 16,000 cattle to this market and vary in value from 10 to 15 cents on killers but stockers and feeders have held about steady.

Corn feeds.
Choice steers $5.50 to $6.00
Fair to good 4.50 to 5.40
Cows and hirs. 3.25 to 4.25

Grassers.
Choice killers 3.50 to 4.50
Choice feeders 3.75 to 4.00
Good feeders 3.25 to 3.50
Choice yearlings 3.50 to 4.00
Heavy stockers 2.75 to 3.50
Good cows and hirs. 2.75 to 3.25

The Methodist Hospital at Omaha last year cared for eight hundred patients. It was obliged to turn away twelve hundred patients because it did not have room to receive them. At the annual conference held in this state last September resolutions were unanimously adopted to make this "Hospital Year" among the Methodists of the state, and Thanksgiving time was appointed as a proper time in which to take up a collection for the Methodist Hospital.

It is hoped that with the aid of every Methodist church in the state of Nebraska that $70,000.00 will be raised by the sixty thousand Methodists, or a little over $1.00 per member.
The new hospital that the Methodists are building will be one of the finest in the whole country. The site contains two and one fourth acres overlooking a beautiful city park, and the building will be absolutely fire proof. The building will be so arranged that in the future if necessary, more room can be added.
