There was a surprise party at the hall last night consisting of the Royal Neighbors. The party was arranged by Mrs. Chas. Unit Past Orical and Mrs. Wanda Davis Vice Orical.

This surprise was on the Orical Mrs. J. H. Wilbermsdorfer. After everything was arranged at the hall the Orical was brought up by Mrs. Priddy, the Recorder, and it was a great surprise to her, at least you would have thought so if you would have seen her when she entered. Games were played and refreshments served and all had a jolly good time until time to depart.

Hunter Happenings.

Nice weather again this morning.

J. H. Cook, of Agate, left for eastern places Saturday evening.

J. A. Rice visited at home Sunday.

A lady and two children, friends of Mrs. Mcintosh, came up Saturday morning for a visit.

Mrs. Smoke and son Will came up from Chadron Saturday, going back Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis visited at J. A. Rice's Sunday.

T. O. Williams and family took dinner with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Rice and family, Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Weir, Dr. Weir's mother, and her sister, Mrs. Taylor, of the east, came up from Chadron Saturday and are visiting Mrs. Bassett.

Messrs Christensen, Proctor and Jones were at Harrison Monday.

While playing with some other boy around the platform at Andrews Monday evening, Delbert Rice fell over a pile of scrapiron and nearly broke one of his limbs.

We had a great day Monday, we enjoyed wind, sand, rain, snow, sunshine, and the excitement of a run away. Luckily very little damage was done, every thing was soon repaired by Mr. Jack Cook and Mr. Butler, so we got home on time. A playful puppy was the cause.

U No.

COTTONWOOD ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glaze passed through the valley enroute for James Walpoles for Thanksgiving.

Nels Peterson and Luther James are dipping cattle this week.

The Lutherans will have preaching Dec. 5th at the home of Carl Haymeires and again Christmas eve, also are going to have a Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walpole made their home a visit on Sunday the 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kratz were pleasant visitors at the home of Charles Nortnaas Sunday Nov. 20th.

Malcom Worthington and Frank Carlson have started in batching again for this winter in John Meckem's canyon. We presume they wish that Charley Howe was with them again to play dish washer.

James Young did not move to Louie Allison as former reported; he is still down on lower Cotton wood.

Joe Rose is building an addition to his house. We don't know what that means but hope we won't loose him as a bachelor.

Peter Nortnaas and Dexter Findt are helping Chas. Nortnaas get out lumber.

Mrs. Conley, who has been quite sick, is able to be around again.

Luther James has moved on his former place again.

Anton Meckem and family were visiting over in the Hat creek valley last Sunday.

HAY SEED.

GLEN ROUNDUPS.

J. C. Madsen had the misfortune to receive a sprained arm and shoulder by falling from the roof of his store to the ground last Tuesday.

Thanksgiving day has passed—roosters as well as turkeys made up the bill of fare in this immediate vicinity, and those who were entertained are Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen, Mr. and Mrs. Blomberg, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wikett, and Miss Jensen.

Miss Clara Mortensen was home for Thanksgiving.

The dance at Mr. Blomberg's place on the evening of Nov. 24 was well attended there being quite a delegation from Soldier creek. All reported a good time.

Country boomers, boomers, boomers. Very seldom do we look out of our windows and doors without seeing loads of lumber and furniture on the way to some "Garden of Eden" spot.

Last week the wolves and coyotes killed three DL bar calves at the KC ranch. Very little trouble of this nature has occurred as yet this early in the season. Captain Johnson brought some calves up to his Glen ranch Saturday and was also looking after his stock interests.

Mrs. J. Jensen gave a party Saturday afternoon to the school friends of Arthur and Myrtle, in honor of their 11th and 8th birthdays. Respectfully delicious refreshments were served, and a pleasant time spent.

Preparations for a Christmas tree are being made at the Glen church. We hope everybody will turn out and make this one of the most pleasant times of the season for the children.

Miss Clara Mortensen returned to her school duties Monday night.
