Louis Larsen died at his home in Crawford last week. Lew, as he was known by his many friends, was one of the first men of our acquaintance in Sioux Co. He was a good citizen and was respected by all. He leaves a wife to mourn the loss of a kind husband, but God had blessed him with enough of this world's goods that she can live comfortable until God calls her to go up higher.

Notwithstanding the great amount of cold weather we have had the ice in this vicinity is hardly thick enough to put up owing to the warm Spring weather.

Race Suicide in New Zealand.
In New South Wales the children under 5 years old were actually less in number than they were ten years ago, while in some states there are fewer under 10 years than in 1891. In New Zealand complaint is made that there are not enough children to fill the schools. Mr. Coghlan notes that the immigration of young married women has fallen off in recent years, yet in 1897 there were in New South Wales 112,247 married women under 45 years, while in 1891 there were 149,247; still the number of children born was about the same in each year, and in Australia and New Zealand there are now annually 20,000 fewer births than would take place had the rate of ten years ago been maintained.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Minnie Lewis wife of Charles W. Lewis died last Sunday night at the residence of Mr. A. McGinley. She had been a sufferer for some time of the cancer of the stomach and about four weeks ago she was taken to Omaha but they could do nothing for her there so she came back home to await the call of her Creator.

She was born at La Porte Colorado Aug. 7 1869 and at the age of 34 years she was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. A. McGinley and came to Sioux county in 1896. She was married to Charles W. Lewis on July 25 1894 and 3 children survive this union. She leaves 3 sisters, Mrs. George Turner of Hot Springs So. Dakota, Mrs. Charles Roe of Cascade Springs So. Dakota and Mrs. Allie Yeager of Cantrill Iowa, and her husband and children to mourn her loss.

Kind hands did all that could be done for her, and two of her sisters, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Roe were with her at the time of her death. The services were held at the residence of Mr. McGinley and were conducted by Rev. Egner of Crawford after which a large number of friends followed the remains to the Harrison cemetery where the Royal Neighbors performed the last sad rites for a deceased Neighbor of which order she was a member at the time of her death. The husband, children, relatives, and foster father have the sympathy of the entire community, trusting that all may be united again to part no more, for around His throne there will be no tears or heartaches, but all will be joy and gladness.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the kind friends who so kindly assisted in the sickness, and the death of our beloved daughter and wife.

A. MCGINLEY, CHARLES W. LEWIS AND RELATIVES.

Resolutions Adopted by Silver Leaf Camp No. 1881, Harrison, Nebr.

Whereas our Heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has been pleased to call from our camp, and broken the first link in our fraternal chain, by taking from us our esteemed Neighbor, Minnie E. Lewis, Jan. 22, 1905, Therefore, be it Resolved, that as a camp we mourn her loss, and we extend our sympathy to those who so deeply grieve over the loss of their loved one. In the bereaved home there is a vacant chair, a silent voice, but our loss is her gain, for a beautiful life never ends in death.
Resolved, that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and to the official paper for publication, also a copy be spread on our camp records in memory of our departed Neighbor and a copy sent to the local press.
Mrs. ZEA WILHELMSDORFER, Mrs. MARGIE PRIDDOT, Mrs. ELIZABETH FONTIER.

A great Difference.

Dr. Varnadoc, a noted professor of Greek, is very fond of flowers, and some days ago on returning from his college duties, he found in his front yard a pestiferous calf belonging to a neighbor. The doctor gave chase, and the animal plunged toward the flower pit, and in another instant crashed through the glass cover and mixed with the pots and plants below. When another professor passed a few minutes later, he said gravely: "I do not understand, Dr. Varnadoc, why you object so seriously to having a modest cowslip added to your fine collection of plants." The doctor's frowning face relaxed. "Ah, Sanborn," he retorted, "you see, this was only a worthless bulrush."

Expert Parrot Cyclist.

In Berlin a parrot cyclist is drawing great crowds of admirers. The bird conducts itself like an experienced rider, working with its feet the pedals of a diminutive machine whose grooved tire runs along a tight-rope. With its beak it manages the handle bar. It carries along another parrot hanging on a trapeze beneath, and thus maintains perfect equilibrium.

Lord Nelson and Soap.

"As occasional squalor is the worst evil of poverty and labor, so cleanliness should be considered the greatest blessing of luxury and ease," argued Mr. Frank Prindle in expatiating on the moral force of his own business, which is the importation of soap.
"However," he continued, "those in the seats of the mighty are not altogether without reproach on this subject. It is a well authenticated fact, if not generally known that the celebrated Lord Nelson had not washed his hands during the last eight years of his life, and Napoleon shunned a bath as though he was a cat."
"A clergyman once told me that he believed the expression 'cleanliness is next to godliness' referred to moral cleanliness and that the fashionable daily morning bath was of little consequence to health or habits. We should, he said, polish our manners as well as our teeth, make our temper sweet as our breath, and cut off superfluities as well as our nails."

Bodarc Gleanings.

Henry Wertz is on the sick list.
Harvey Zerbs is helping Martin Carroll move his house this week.

Vern Antrim who has been real sick for the past week is now much better and able to be out.

The weather in the valley is like a spoiled child—is indulging in a fit of the sulks.

The east wind, heavy air and fog are very depressing on the spirits and seems to effect the general health of nearly all in this locality.

Martin Carroll has purchased the Wm. Schleyer house and is busy removing it on to his own claim, he expects to move his family there very soon.

Mr. George Cant is rather unfortunate having lost six head of cows this month, the cause is supposed to be blackleg.

Miss Clara Kirkpatrick who has been spending the past month with her sister Mrs. Albert Hill returned home to Custer Co. Friday. Mrs. John Finley and children accompanied her.

Since the Japs have taken Port Arthur and are supposed to rest on their laurels till spring.

The general conversation, (in this community at least) is telephone.

We learn of the intense cold in the east where is registered 48 degrees below zero Jan. 6, at the same date in California they were enjoying raspberries and strawberries and lovely summer weather. We seem to be between the extremes. Well! we can be thankful the wind forgot to blow last week.

Harrison Gold Martinson of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martin of Bodarc died at Beatrice after one days illness. The remains were interred in the Bodarc Cemetery Sunday Jan. 15th. Rev. Macnab conducted the funeral services. The community sympathizes with the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Peculiar Text.

Little Elmer had accompanied his father to church one morning, and the minister discoursed from the text: "Why halt ye between two opinions?" Upon returning home his mother asked if he remembered the text. "I can't remember the exact words," replied Elmer, "but it was something about a hawk between two pigeons."

Czar Restricts Finlanders.

The czar has issued an order by which the provincial governors of Finland are empowered not only to rescind the election to municipal and communal offices of "politically unsound" persons, but to appoint in their places others of the governor's own selection.
