

AS TOLD TO US

Carl McArthur and Fred Slaby went to Lincoln Tuesday.

Mrs. Al Slaby was a passenger to Cowles Thursday morning.

Wm. Harris was a passenger to Hastings Thursday morning on train 4.

The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges will hold a joint installation of officers January 15th.

Frank Starr arrived in the city Saturday to attend to some business matters and visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Palmer spent last week here with her mother, Mr. Hassinger, and brother, Roy.

Ralph Da Metz, of Harlan, Kas., and Miss Reba York of Athol, Kas., were married by Rev. Fisher last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Butler of Hastings spent the first of the week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Butler.

Ed Epsher returned home the last of the week from Omaha and Lincoln where he had been attending to some business matters.

Irene Johnson spent the first of the week in Hastings with his parents, his mother having fallen down and seriously injuring herself.

Joe Hewitt received word Monday stating that his mother passed away at Portland, Oregon. Her remains will be brought to Nelson for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abel and children from Campbell spent a few days here last week visiting with his sister, Mrs. A. B. Crabill and with other relatives.

Edgar Harrington third truck operator at the depot, left for Denver, Colorado, Friday morning where he will spend a few days visiting with friends.

Harry Thompson returned home Thursday morning on No. 11 from Bellefontaine, Ohio, where he went to spend Christmas with his son, William.

A large number attended the wolf hunts held last Thursday southwest of this city and Monday north of town. Last Thursday seven wolves were killed and it is reported that three were killed Monday.

Mrs. Emma Hickson, aged 45 years, died at her home in Tennessee, Dec. 25, 1922 and the remains, accompanied by her husband were brought to this city Tuesday morning. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Harry Stroup and Newt and Frank Seibert. The funeral services were held this afternoon and interment was made in the city cemetery.

PIANO AT A BARGAIN:—We have a piano in good condition that one of our customers was unable to finish paying for, that we will place free of charge in the home of any satisfactory customer in the vicinity of Red Cloud who will pay the balance in cash or easy payments. Write GASTON MUSIC & FURNITURE CO., Hastings, Nebraska.

REAL SERVICE

Think you can guess by one visit that their work is simply exquisite. —Daisy Dorothy

OTHER folks have come to the conclusion that ours is a real exquisite service. They are treated politely, their work is well done and our charges simply give us a fair return for expertness and labor. Your soiled gown will be better off for a visit to this shop. Your husband's clothes will retain their tailored lines if you have us look after them. And you know that a man's clothes do need so much attention.

THE HUGHES WAY
WE KNOW HOW
PHONE: 88 PHONE: 193M

Excursion to Denver

To accommodate patrons desiring to visit the Western Live Stock Show

The Burlington will sell round-trip tickets at rate of fare and one-third (minimum fare $2.00) January 11 to 15, inclusive, final return limit January 23.

N. B. BUSH, Ticket Agent.

Miss Mildred Boren was a passenger to Cowles Monday morning.

C. G. Saunders was a passenger to Blue Hill Saturday morning on train 4.

Gene White was a passenger to Guide Rock Tuesday morning on train 16.

Miss Yula Swartz went Alma Sunday morning on train 15 to spend the day visiting with friend.

T. C. Swartz is in Kansas City for a few days attending to business matters, returning home the first of the week.

Mrs. Halbert Thomas went to Lincoln Monday morning on train 4 to attend the Annual Meeting of Nebraska Organized Agriculture.

Mrs. C. B. Crone was a passenger to Hastings Tuesday morning after a short visit here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Peterson.

Miss Mary Christian left on Sunday for Hartington, where she has accepted a responsible position in the office of the Cedar County News.

James Peterson went to Omaha Monday morning on train 4 to attend the Implement Dealers' Convention being held there this week.

A. T. Walker returned home Sunday evening from Kansas City where he went the first of the week to attend to some business matters.

Edgar Harrington returned to work Monday morning on train 16 after spending the past few days in Denver, Colorado, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold arrived here Sunday morning from their home in Franklin for a short visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. E. Boles.

Dean Dickson returned to Lincoln, where he is attending the University the first of the week after visiting with his father, Ed Dickson and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oatman returned home Saturday evening from Omaha where they went the first of the week for a few days visit with friends.

Miss Pauline Gellatly of Indianapolis, Indiana, is here visiting for a few days at the home of her brother, H. C. Gellatly and family and with friends.

J. H. Billinger, J. M. McIntosh, J. W. Robertson and G. A. Merrill went to Kansas City Sunday morning in charge of the stock shipped from here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Neyhouse went to Guide Rock Monday morning to spend the day visiting at the home of his brother, Paul Neyhouse and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hines arrived here Sunday evening on train 17 for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and with other relatives.

Farm Loans

Call and see me if you want a farm loan at a reduced rate of interest and best option. Loans closed immediately with no delay or expense for examination.

J. B. BILBY.

It is rumored that this city is to have another clothing store.

To Clean-Up on all Winter Coats will discount them 1/4. —Barbara Phares

Smith Bros. of Superior will hold their Annual Red Snow Sale on February 6. Watch this paper.

Miss Helen Albright returned to Lincoln Tuesday morning after spending the past few days here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Albright.

Miss Zella Taylor returned to Chicago Monday morning after spending the past week here visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Sherwood and with other relatives.

Forrest Mountford returned to Omaha Monday morning to resume his studies after spending the past week here visiting with his parents and with other relatives.

Miss Mildred Polniak returned to her studies at the University at Lincoln Tuesday morning after spending the Christmas holidays here visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Georgia Walker returned home Saturday evening on train 11 from Lincoln where she spent Christmas visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Shaver.

Miss Fay Richardson returned to Lincoln Tuesday morning after spending Christmas here visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida Richardson. She is attending the State University.

Five cars of cattle were loaded out of here Sunday morning to Kansas City and two cars of hogs to Kansas City. Tuesday morning there were two cars of hogs shipped to St. Joe.

Merlyn Borer and Miss Blanche Borer returned to their studies in the University at Lincoln Sunday morning after spending the week here visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Borer.

Mrs. Will Hines and children went to Wymore Saturday morning on train 16 to spend a couple of days visiting with his parents. Mr. Hine went down on No. 14 Sunday morning, returning with them Monday.

Mrs. Alice Hosmer, after a sojourn of some duration with relatives in Illinois and other eastern states, returned home the first of the week. While not having completely recovered from her recent misfortune, the sustaining of a fractured limb, when run over by an automobile in Clinton, Illinois, some few months ago, yet is making sufficient progress as to enable her to make the statement that it was only the question of a short time until she anticipated being back to normal. Commercial Advertiser.

On Friday evening a social event of some importance is to take place at the Masonic hall when the Masons and their ladies and the Eastern Star members and their husbands or escorts will enjoy a 6:30 dinner and a program. The committee have arranged to have Emma McClelland, Grand Matron of the Eastern Star in Nebraska, take part in the program. The new Masonic male quartet, which has just been organized, is to appear in public for the first time on that occasion. There will be other numbers of especial interest. Following the program the evening will be spent in a social way. All Masons and Star members of Red Cloud and vicinity are invited.

Garfield Community Church

Begin the New Year right by going to Church and Sunday School next Sunday.

Sunday School, 10 a. m. Theme for study is "Right Uses of the Lords Day". Sermon, 11 a. m., subject: "How to Succeed."

Young Peoples Program of Song, Readings, Stories etc., 7 p. m. Sermon, 7:45 p. m., "A Runaway Slave Who was Caught".

We know you will find all of these meetings of real interest. Plan to come. It is cold, being a bucket along and drain your car. If it is snowing or muddy, put on the chains. Church is like the time, it goes on rain or shine.

The chorus meets Saturday evening this week at the church. Some special work is ahead of us. Let all members of the Chorus be there. You will enjoy the music and the good time.

E. N. Behelman, Pastor.

The county commissioners will meet next Tuesday.

Hude Robert on of Blue Hill was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Clauson was a passenger to Littleton, Colorado, Monday evening on train 17.

The county treasurer's office is very busy handing out the new auto license tags for this year.

Miss Gertrude Coon is here visiting for a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Coon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Butler returned home Thursday after spending the past month in Oklahoma visiting relatives.

Lyle Harris of Wheeler is here visiting for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris and with friend.

Mrs. Dave Kaley returned home Wednesday evening on train 11 after spending the past few days in Lincoln visiting.

Miss Edna Henderson returned home Wednesday evening on train 11 after a short time spent in Hastings with friends.

Mrs. Tom Lufu returned the first of the week from Omaha where she has been for the past couple of weeks visiting with her daughter.

Don Gather went to Lincoln last Wednesday evening to take up his duties as Representative at the convening of the legislature this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wagoner and family autoed down from Hastings Sunday to spend the week visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Wagoner and with other relatives.

C. F. Davis Passes Away.

Charles F. Davis, for many years a resident of Logan precinct, Smith county, Kansas, died at his home Wednesday afternoon after an illness of several months duration. He was born in Illinois, July 23, 1862 and was aged 59 years, 5 months and 11 days. A wife and family are left to mourn his demise. The funeral services will be held at the Mt. Hope church Friday afternoon.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their assistance during the illness and burial of our beloved son, Lewis, also the singers and those who contributed the beautiful flowers. May God bless you in our wish.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walter and family.

GROCERIES

Cheerful acceptance of orders over the phone or in person and Prompt Delivery are two of the reasons that our store has such a big clientele.

Another is that our Groceries are always fresh, pure and wholesome and our prices most reasonable. May we have the pleasure of a visit or call from you to-day?

P. A. Wullbrandt
Groceries and Queensware

PHONE YOUR COAL

ORDER TO

FARMERS' ELEVATOR

Bell Phone 29 — Ind. Phone 12

A. G. Ellison went to Guide Rock Thursday morning to spend the day attending to business matters.

Fred Gordon returned to Chillicothe, Missouri, where he is attending school Sunday morning on train 14, after spending the past couple of weeks here visiting with his parents.

Mrs. Lester Amack of Selden, Kansas, is here visiting for a few days with relatives and friends. Mr. Amack is expected Saturday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Amack.

O. C. Teel returned home Wednesday evening from Lincoln where he spent Christmas day visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frederick Wells.

V. B. Watkins, of Helene, Okla., a printer of some fifteen years experience has accepted a position with this office. He and his wife have moved into the Harwood property north of the Auld Library.

Mrs. Robert Breakey and baby returned to their home at Grand Island Thursday morning after spending the past couple of weeks here visiting with her mother and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Breakey.

PRE-INVENTORY

Clean-Up Sale

Starts Friday, Jan. 5, Ends Jan. 20

On the Following Different Lines

Gloves, Mittens
All Winter Weight Gloves and Mittens in yarn, fleece, leather lined
20 per cent discount

Sweaters & Caps
To clean up on Childrens Sweaters and Caps will make a Discount of Twenty Per Cent

Outing Gowns
Childrens Sleeping Garments
20 per cent Discount

Childrens Ready Made Gingham Dresses
Ready to Wear Gingham Dresses in sizes from 2 to 14 years. All good style but lines are broken and in order to make room for New Spring goods will close them out at 25 per cent Discount

Furs
You will get more good out of a fur neck piece when you wear it with a suit than any other time. Come in and let us fit you out at discount of Twenty-five per cent

These goods were all marked very close when bought but at this special discount you will be saving money as all goods are going up in price.

BARBARA PHARES