

A MAN WHO BECAME FAMOUS

Doctor R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, was not only a successful physician, but also a profound student of the medicinal qualities of Nature's remedies, roots and herbs, and by close observation of the methods used by the Indians, he discovered their great remedial qualities, especially for weaknesses of women, and after careful preparation succeeded in giving to the world a remedy which has been used by women with the best results for half a century. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is still in great demand, while many other so-called "cure-alls" have come and gone. The reason for its phenomenal success is because of its absolute purity, and Dr. Pierce's high standing as an honored citizen of Buffalo is a guarantee of all that is claimed for the Favorite Prescription as a regulator for the ill peculiar to women.

THIS C. & O. CONDUCTOR GAINS 35 LBS.

"I enjoyed Christmas this time with more pleasure than I had in years," remarked W. L. Mahone, 410 Charlottesville, Va., the other day, in telling of the benefits he has derived from the use of Tanlac. Mr. Mahone has been a railroad conductor for nineteen years. He runs on the Chesapeake & Ohio from Charlottesville to Washington, D. C., and Richmond, Va.

"My stomach and digestion had been bad so long that I can hardly remember the time I could eat without suffering afterwards. I gradually grew weaker until I was often having to lay off from my run. In this run-down condition I contracted pneumonia in both lungs and came near losing my life.

"After this spell my stomach troubled me worse than ever and I remained almost as weak and helpless as a baby. While sitting around reading the papers I was attracted by the statements about Tanlac, which had such a sincere ring that I was led to believe the medicine might help me up the hill, and I pulled me clean up to the top. My appetite never fails, stomach misery is all gone, and I have gained thirty-five pounds in weight. Tanlac keeps me feeling 'spick and span,' too, so I can make my runs and still feel fine."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

CROWDED OUT, AS IT WERE

Under the Circumstances, Batter's Complaint Did Seem Just a Little Bit Unreasonable.

An Englishman was persuaded to act as umpire in a ball game between an American and an Australian team in France. In the first inning, with three men on bases, the star batter of the American team stepped up to the plate.

"One ball," called the umpire.
"Two balls," called the umpire.
"Three balls," called the umpire.
"Four balls, batter out," called the umpire, who was immediately mobbed by the members of the American team.
"What d'ye mean by calling me out, you big boob!" shouted the irate victim of the ruling.

"But, my dear fellow," explained the Englishman, "can't you see I have no place for you?"

Fatal Artillery Practice.

While a battery of Swiss artillery was at practice near Sursee, north of Lucerne, a shell ricocheting from the ground struck the house of a peasant. The peasant's wife who was having dinner with her daughters and a workman, was killed, but the others were not harmed. The shell entered through the kitchen and buried itself in a loft without exploding.

By Ford C. Frick

THE CREATION OF MAN

NOW when the Manitou had created the birds and the beasts and the fishes, and had then created the grizzly to rule over them, he returned to heaven content with his handiwork. He left behind him on the earth a happy kingdom, where the animals lived in peace together and where the grizzly, who was their king, was kind and just and fair to weak and strong alike.

As time went on there finally came a daughter to cheer the life of the Manitou in heaven; and as she grew to womanhood she was fair to look upon; as beautiful as the dawn and as stately as the oak. The blue sky gave the color to her eyes, the placid lakes put their expression there; and golden sunbeams gave their beauty to her hair. The south wind warmed her blood and made it red; the snows gave off their glow to tinge her skin. The rippling waters, soft and low, gave up their music in a voice for her. And she was fair to look upon, even as the blossoms in her hair.

The Manitou, who loved her much, gave her the freedom of the heavens and the earth to go and come as she pleased, excepting only the one small spot where the grizzly was given power to reign. Here she must not go, for there were evil spirits and strong hands to stay her way. And there the power of the Manitou did not avail, for it was the home of the grizzly who was ruler.

But one day, walking all alone, the maiden forgot the warning of her father and wandered into this forbidden land where lived the grizzly, and where flowers bloomed and all was beautiful and bright. As she wandered about the forest the beasts saw her beauty and carried word of her coming to the grizzly. And the grizzly came down the trail and looked upon her and desired her. He was so impressed with her beauty that he forgot the Manitou and his power, and seeing the maiden, carried her off against her will to his home. And there he kept her hid away for many moons and finally he married her, although it was against her will, and for long years he held her in captivity and the Manitou knew not where she had gone or why.

Finally a child was born to the grizzly and the daughter of Manitou, and this child, when he had grown, heard from his mother's lips the story of the grizzly's cruelty. He learned, too, how the grizzly had run away with the daughter of Manitou and had stolen her from her home and kept her in captivity; and he was very angry, and prayed night and day to the Manitou, who was his grandfather, asking that he might be given the strength and the wisdom to right the wrong.

So the Manitou heard his plea and decided that the grizzly must be punished; and so the Manitou decreed that the grizzly henceforth should walk on four feet like the beasts he had governed. And on his body hair was made to grow, and his language became the grunt and the squeal; and he was made to dig in the ground to find his food and his eyes were made to watch his feet and no longer could he look toward heaven and into the face of the Manitou, who is good always.

In his place the Manitou named the Red Man—the son of the Great Spirit's daughter and the grizzly—to rule so long as he bore himself as a man. From his mother he inherited his form and beauty and wisdom, and from his father the strength and courage and power—and so he came to rule over the land which the Manitou had created.

So was the creation of the Chosen People who are the tribesmen, and who lived for ages under the sunshine of heaven and counseled with Manitou and ruled long and well until in later years evil spirits came from the sea and fought and wrestled with the Chosen People and took away their power and their strength. Then did the Manitou intervene to set right the affairs of earth and to give to us, who are his children, those things which are ours by right. But that, again, is another story, and too many stories at one time are not best for little ears.

Note—Here again we have a legend from the nomadic tribes of the mountain district—the Utes, the Comanches and all the tribes of the great Shoshone family. This legend, expressed in pictures, is one of the features of the tribal home in the great Ute reservation at Ignacio, Colo.

Is Winter Time Your Backache Time? Does Your Back Foretell Every Change of the Weather? Do You Feel Old and Stiff and Suffer Sharp, Rheumatic Pains? Then Look to Your Kidneys!

ARE winter months your backache months? Does every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you lame, aching and all worn out? Does your back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going another day?

Then look to your kidneys! Grip, colds and chills throw a heavy strain on the kidneys. They overload the blood with poisons and impurities that the kidneys have to filter off. The kidneys weaken under this rush of new work; become congested and inflamed.

It's little wonder, then, that every cold finds you suffering with torturing backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness and annoying bladder irregularities.

Don't wait! Delay may lead to serious or chronic kidney sickness. Realize that your kidneys have weakened in fighting the cold-created poisons and give them the help they need. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills today. Doan's have helped thousands at such times and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Good Folks:

MRS. J. C. ARNT, 209 S. LaSalle St., Beatrice, Nebr., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills for disordered kidneys caused by colds settling on them. My kidneys acted irregularly and my back was lame. I had dizzy spells and specks floated before my eyes. A member of my family had used Doan's Kidney Pills, with good results, so I tried them. A couple boxes drove the trouble away, and strengthened my back and kidneys."

GUST NUMSON, 401 E. Lincoln St., Blair, Nebr., says: "If I take cold it usually settles in my kidneys. My back gets lame and the muscles in my back and side hurt every move I make. I have a good deal of backache, too. When I get an attack now, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and a few always give me prompt relief. I can highly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, believing them to be all that is claimed for them."

PUTNAM FADELESS DYES—dyes or tints as you wish

Sufficient Cause. "How did you happen to quit sparking Miss Tootsie Bender?" asked an acquaintance. "I don't like music; that's why!" disgruntledly replied an Ozark swain. "Every night I was over there just as soon as I got seated old man Bender would come in, take down his infernal fiddle and begin to play. The longer he'd play the treader I'd get and then finally when only about 'leven o'clock he'd begin to saw off 'Home, Sweet Home.' I couldn't stand any more of it and lit out. And I ain't going back there, neither!"—Kansas City Star.

NO DEAD LEVEL IN NATURE

Gardener Seemingly Made Point in Discussion With the Soap Box Sage.

The gardener was trimming the front hedge and the soap box sage paused to converse with his acquaintance wielding the shears. The orator soon had his favorite theme going. The gardener was something of a philosopher himself and ventured to put a question.

"Then you think humanity should be kept trimmed to a dead level like this hedge?"

"But it that way if you wish," said the orator.

The gardener pointed to the side of the yard. "Ah, but I trimmed that hedge only last week. Now look at it. So far as we can see every branch had the same opportunity. Yet some are higher than the rest. You can't keep 'em down, friend, you can't keep 'em down."—Chicago Daily News.

A Heavy Hand.

Prof. Barrett Wendell, Yale's brilliant and famous critic, was talking at a tea about a new novelist.

"He has a heavy, awkward hand," said Professor Wendell. "When he wants to be impressive he reminds me of the divine who went to the jail to administer the last comforting rites of the church to a murderer."

"Dugald, mon," he said—for he was a Scot—"Dugald, mon, the gallows is ready, the rope's ready, the hangman is ready—Dugald, are you ready?"—Exchange.

Getting Ready.

"Girls!" The matron of the dormitory, screamed whisperingly down the sleeping aisles.

"Get up quick! There's a burglar in the house!" And with one accord twenty excited damsels leaped out and cried in unison:

"Where's my powder puff?"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.
