

NEWS OF NEBRASKA IN CONDENSED FORM

Recent Happenings in Nebraska Given in Brief Items For Busy Readers.

Nebraska City is to hold a corn, poultry and pet stock show January 17, 18 and 19.

The State Teachers Association at Omaha January 18 to 20, will reach an attendance estimated at nearly 5,000.

The new $30,000 high school building has been dedicated at Valentine. It is thoroughly modern in design and equipment.

A 750 gallon a minute pump has been ordered purchased for the many water station by the Columbus city council for $12,500.

Fremont shattered all building boom records in 1922 with improvements totaling $1,157,533, completed during the past 12 months.

Charles M. Keefe was unanimously elected President of the State Life Underwriters' association at the annual meeting held at Lincoln.

A. E. Oveden, postmaster, for eight years at Pawnee City has resigned effective April 1 to resume the editorship of the Pawnee Chief.

J. S. KROH.

Publisher of the Ogallala News, and Newly Elected Senator from the Thirty-first District.

Receipts of hogs at the Omaha market for the first eight days of the year, are nearly double those received during the same period of time last year.

The State Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Church will hold its sessions at Omaha this week. The Women's Auxiliary will meet at the same time.

Five million dollars more of bonds of governmental subdivisions in Nebraska were issued in 1922 than in the preceding year. Total for the year was $19,251,989, the largest amount of bonds ever issued in one year in Nebraska.

Figures available at the South Omaha Livestock Exchange received from the local brand inspector's offices show that nearly double the number of western range cattle were inspected during the month of December, 1922, than in December, 1921.

Fatality tolls from automobilists at Nebraska grade crossings were less in 1922 than in the three previous years. Statistics gathered from newspaper reports in the state during the year show that 21 persons were killed and 54 were injured.

Columbus people spent more than twice the amount in building improvements the past year that they spent during 1921, the record in the city clerk's office and other sources indicating that expenditures in this line exceeded $175,000.

Nelson Thorson of Omaha, vice president of the Auditorium show recently held in that City made the largest individual winnings ever recorded at a poultry and fancy fowl exposition. He won 54 firsts out of 60 birds, a $25 silver cup, $25 cash, three specials, and best award for ten different pheasant displays.

Secretaries of Nebraska chambers of commerce and commercial organizations will hold their annual convention in Omaha February 2 and 3, the publicity bureau of the commercial organization announces. Topics relating to conduct of commercial organizations, community advertising, business and industrial conditions will be up for discussion.

The two small children of Harry Lang, near Brunswick, were burned to death in a fire that completely destroyed the home while the mother was doing the chores at the barn, but few yards away.

Jesse Lyon a seventeen year old lad of Unadilla won the grand sweepstakes which includes both junior and senior entries in the State corn show at Lincoln, which was the largest in several years, competition was keener, and the total member of entries much bigger. The boy has won first prizes and sweepstakes at the Nebraska state fair for the last two years.

The Presbyterian and Methodist churches at Fairmont have merged and the membership will hereafter worship as one.

Roy Mauler of Taylor, 9 years old, who regained his eyesight recently after having been blind from babyhood, for the first time saw a Christmas tree and Santa Claus on Christmas day.

Dick Beswick, 80, Nebraska homesteader and hero of the civil war and for 20 years acrobat with the big circus organizations, once world's champion leaper, is dead at his home at Norfolk.

State Teachers at Omaha

With a program calling for three days of lectures, discussions and business, the Nebraska state teachers' association will hold its annual convention at Omaha on January 18, 19 and 20.

Enrollment will begin at 6:00 p. m., Wednesday, January 17, and will continue until Saturday morning, January 20. The assembly of delegates will take place on Thursday morning at 9:00 a. m., in the ball room of the hotel Rome presided over by President W. H. Morton of Beatrice. The general sessions will begin on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the auditorium, with Supt. A. H. Waterhouse, of Fremont presiding. A program including addresses, music and discussions has been arranged.

A distinctive feature of the convention will be the "Soire," a social event to be staged on Friday night at the city auditorium by the Omaha chamber of commerce in honor of the state teachers' association.

Fred M. DeWitt, for over a quarter of a century connected with the printing industry at Lincoln, died in Chicago recently.

Superintendent L. W. Weisel of the Geneva city schools, has filed his resignation with the board of education to take effect June 1.

Mrs. Louis Young suffered a broken leg when she stepped on a corn cob which had dropped on the back porch of her home at Guide Rock.

The Eastern District Dental Society will meet at Omaha January 21. The National American Dental Teacher's institute will be held on the 22d to the 24th.

Mrs. Grover Ulin died at a Falls City hospital from burns received when a gasoline heated iron she was using exploded in her hand, and ignited her clothing.

A naturalization class has been started at Geneva, by Miss Margaret Haughwout, former county superintendent, with 30 in attendance at the first meeting.

Payment of certain issues of liberty bonds and war savings stamps have added $40,000,000 to the cash in circulation in Nebraska, according to bankers' estimates.

W. H. Schellberg, assistant general manager of the Union Stockyards company of Omaha, was promoted to the position of general manager at a recent meeting of stockholders.

Injuries suffered when he fell from a tree while hunting caused the death of Walter Strawther, of Nebraska City. Strawther had climbed the tree to get a squirrel which he had shot.

The cornerstone of the new Presbyterian church, to cost $300,000, has been laid at Scottsbluff. The church, the first organized in that city, had its beginnings in 1897.

Thieves broke into the Farmers Union store at Hardy carrying away more than $700 worth of silks and wearing apparel. The safe was tampered with but no money taken.

Federal reserve bank notes which were stolen by bandits who held up messengers in front of the United States mint at Denver are said to be in circulation in north Nebraska.

Dr. O. O. Smith, pastor of the Fremont Congregational church, has received a call from Pueblo, Colo., asking him to take the pastorate of the first Congregational church of that place.

Portions of the skeleton of a "Stone" turtle, a prehistoric amphibian, were recently found in a room near Fort Calhoun in Washington county. The skeleton was three feet around and eight inches thick.

A daring attempt on the part of two prisoners to escape from the Nebraska state penitentiary by scaling a prison wall under a barrage of steam from the prison heating plant was thwarted by Warden Fenton who fired two charges of buckshot at the men.

The delegates of the 1923 convention of the Nebraska farm bureau association, held at Lincoln, elected H. L. Keefe of Walthill and Mrs. Mattie Graham of Dakota City as president and vice president of the state organization for the coming year.

Good breeding stock, proper mating and careful feeding of the brood sows are all important, but a point in hog raising that should receive more attention, because it is often neglected, is the necessity of keeping the young pigs growing continuously from the moment of birth to maturity, say the animal husbandmen of the U. of N. Agricultural College. At weaning time and afterward the pigs should have access to corn and proper protein supplements in self-feeders.

Following out the wishes of Charles Wooster, who died at Silver Creek last week, his body was cremated and the ashes will be scattered from the bridge into Platte river near his home.

Alleging that the farm bureau and county agent in Keith county have been a burden to the taxpayers, 600 farmers have signed petitions demanding abolition of the bureau and office.

Thousands of mallard ducks have been staying on the Loup river, near Dannebrog for several weeks. The river is open for many miles and the waters are at times covered with ducks.

Charles Reed, for four years an assistant in the office of the attorney general, at Lincoln, has resigned and gone to Miami, Fla., to practice law.

Mrs. Margaret Hess, believed to be the oldest woman in Gage county, is dead at the age of ninety-three. She has resided in Beatrice over forty years.

Directors of the farmers' elevator at Union are contemplating taking on a state storage license and accepting grain for storage at a charge of one-fourth of a cent a bushel per month deferring settlement with the grower until the grain can be shipped.

Chicago Has New Hebrew Theological College

New Hebrew Theological college, 3448 Douglas boulevard, Chicago, which celebrated its opening the other day. The building, which cost $150,000, is one of the finest of its kind in the United States. It is given over to the education and training of Hebrew young men for the church.

KING WILL SEE THIS

Miss Evelyn Law of the Follies is soon to sail for England, where she is to give a private performance of her Terpsichorean artistry for his majesty King George and members of the royal family. Miss Law is able to swing one extremely lithe limb a good 24 inches above her charming little head.

MOST ACCURATE TYPIST

Wm. F. Oswald of New York, holder of world's typewriting accuracy championship—128 words a minute for one hour continually with only one error—and former international speed champion, who attended the meeting of the National Commercial Teacher's federation in session in Chicago.

WINS BEAUTY AWARD

Radiant girlhood won a prize for Miss Alice Appenheimer of Far Rockaway, judged nearest physically perfect among 900 in her high school.

Employees Are Given His Business

Believing that his employees have the first right to a business they have helped to build up, Henry A. Dix turned over his $1,000,000 concern to them and will spend the rest of his life, without salary, aiding them to continue its success. The corporation is the Henry A. Dix & Sons company, manufacturers of women's cotton dresses and nurses' uniforms, in New York city and operating factories at Millville, Somerville, and Bridgeton, N. J.

Token of Gratitude to Skipper

Miss Thelma Edwards presenting the commandant of the French liner La Savoie, Captain Henri Boisson, with a bronze clock and candlesticks for the mantle of his stateroom, the gift of the passengers on a recent Havre-New York trip of the Savoie. This was a token of gratitude for the captain's courage and seamanship in bringing his vessel safely through the terrible storm of that week.

Dr. McKoin and the Bastrop Jail

Here is Dr. B. M. McKoin, arrested in Baltimore for alleged connection with the murder of two citizens of Mer Rouge, La., which is laid at the doors of members of the Ku Klux Klan; and the little jail at Bastrop where Jeff Burnett, another of the accused, is locked up.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

No Comeback.

A local youth who expressed a desire for adventure was asked:

"Why don't you join Captain X's expedition? He's looking for recruits for his revolutionary operations in Guatemala."

"I haven't got the price of a passage to Guatemala."

"The captain furnishes your passage and equipment free."

"Then I'm on. But how about his furnishing my passage back?"

"Don't worry about that. One doesn't come back."—Charleston News and Courier.

DYED HER DRAPERIES, SKIRT AND A SWEATER WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can dye or tint faded, shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, hangings, draperies, everything like new. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed, even if you have never dyed before. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run. So easy to use.—Advertisement.

Can't Be Told.

"There is no use telling it to the marines any more."

"Why not, silly?"

"Because they go everywhere and see everything."—New York Sun.

Cuticura Comforts Baby's Skin

When red, rough and itching, by hot baths of Cuticura Soap and touches of Cuticura Ointment. Also make use now and then of that exquisitely scented dusting powder, Cuticura Talcum, one of the indispensable Cuticura Toilet Trio.—Advertisement.

Some men acquire a reputation for ineptness, while others get the credit for being diplomats.

The charm of a bathroom is its spotlessness. By the use of Red Cross Ball Blue, all cloths and towels retain their whiteness until worn out.—Advertisement.

An old bachelor says that marriage quickly sobers a man who is intoxicated with love.

Large hopes from small foundations grow.

The door of hope, swings both ways.

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

25¢ AND 75¢ PACKAGES EVERYWHERE

Hair Thin?

You need Q-Bee Hair Tonic to strengthen it and to grow new hair—it vitalizes the roots and stops hair falling out—file bald spots rapidly. Try it! At all good druggists. See direct from HESSIG-ELLIS, Chicago, Illinois, Inc.

MASTER THE TYPEWRITER BY MAIL. The touch typing system taught in six lessons—only $15. Why pay more? Typewriting School, 715 Baltimore Bldg., Chicago.

TOBACCO—5 LBS. CHEWING, $1.60; SMOKING, 10 LBS., $2.40. Medium, 10 lbs., $1.20. Pay for tobacco and postage on arrival. J. FULLIAM, PATESVILLE, KY.

W. N. U., LINCOLN, NE. 2-1923.