Did Some Good

Last night a meeting was held at the Commercial Club rooms to discuss the subject of securing better fire equipment for this city. Several merchants and citizens were present and there should have been more in attendance to express their views.

The meeting was called to order by Judge Ranney after which a secretary was elected.

J. O. Butler, Chief of the Fire Department, was called upon and he stated that if the city had proper equipment that the school building would not have been destroyed, and among other things he said that a large amount of the apparatus had been secured by giving dances etc. in the past. He also said that the department would strike May 1st if something wasn't done.

Mr. Butcher, of the State Fire Marshal's office, then took the floor stating that his duty was to help towns and cities in the matter of fire protection. He stated that the equipment here was inadequate for the use of fighting fires, and advised that a good truck with pumper and chemical tanks were needed, as that eighty per cent of the fires in cities were put out by chemicals also that a pump would furnish more pressure and less water used.

R. W. Stewart then took the floor and stated that the fire insurance rates in this state were made by the Fire Inspector's Bureau who based the rates in the towns according to the equipment each town had and that this city was in class 4 1/2. He stated that with better equipment the rates would be considerable lower.

W. G. Warren who was a member of the Department several years ago stated that the present equipment was purchased in the early days, giving entertainments etc. and that it had not been improved any and the men still had to contend with it.

F. E. Maurer was called upon and made a good talk on the co-operation of the department and citizens with the Council in securing efficient equipment.

Council Hoffman said the Council was called tightwads by those who wanted a tourist's camp ground and those wanting funds for the band and also that the people never expressed their views to them as to whether they wanted these things or not. He said that he was willing to work for what the people wanted as he could stand it if they could.

Messrs Platt, Kaley, Oatman, Cotting, Hamilton, Mitchell, Johnson, Edson, Grimes and Grice, expressed their views in regard to the needs of better equipment.

F. E. Maurer made the following motion which carried: That the Council put two propositions on the ballot to find out the sentiment of the people: whether they wanted the council to purchase a truck to cost not more than $6000, and whether they wanted one paid fireman on duty at all times.

Messrs Hamilton, Maurer and Butler were appointed a committee to submit the resolution to the Council for the consideration of the voters. The meeting then adjourned with everyone feeling that some good had been accomplished.

BEEF, MILK OR BOTH?
Hundreds of farmers find themselves at a point at which three roads begin and stretch out before them. The middle one is labeled "to beef and milk," the left "to dairying" and the right "to beef." Many a farmer is asking himself, "which one shall I take?"

Those who are qualified to travel, and possess the necessary equipment will get somewhere, and find the journey profitable if they take any one of the three, maintain a conservative speed and study the experience which forerunners have written upon signs along the way.

If while trying to answer his own question, a farmer is assured by volunteer advisors, who buttonhole him while he is looking at the roads, that the middle way "leads nowhere," and that he should turn to the right or to the left if he desires to get anywhere, let him listen respectfully but make his own decision, based on all the disinterested information and advice which he can obtain.

Take one of the roads and take it seriously.

The storm last week interfered with plans for the evening service so the Odd Fellows plan to attend next Sunday evening.

Rev. Lovett of the Society for the Friendless gave a very interesting address at a hastily arranged union service at the Christian church Sunday evening. The treatment of our prisoners is a subject in which everyone is vitally interested. The taxpayer especially should really study the subject to see if there isn't some way to make the prisoner pay his own and his family's way at the same time be training for a useful life when his prison term expires. Our present system of idleness for body and mind is wasteful of life and money.

The Winners, The Pushers, and the O. T. B.'s are requested to be at the church to practice at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

C. G. Nelson, Pastor.
