

Property Destroyed by Elements

Fire at McKees Rocks, Pa., destroyed a big manufacturing plant, a business block and a score of homes, causing a loss of $500,000. The inset shows the destruction caused by a terrific storm which swept the Mississippi valley states and some of the southern states. A freight train was overturned at Pinson, Tenn.

YOUNG INDIAN RAJAH

Maharaja Sewai Mansingh of Jaipur, India, just thirteen years 6 months old, was the leader of the great Sun God procession in India, which was witnessed by many American tourists. The youngster rode on a black horse with silver trappings in the procession in Delhi, India. When the American ladies waved to him, he bowed very solemnly to them.

HITS MAN WITH AX

Miss Helen Bond, photographed in the jail at Toms River, N. J., where she is awaiting trial on the charge of having hit John Richardson with a hatchet. Miss Bond declares the man was forcing his attentions on a fourteen-year-old girl whom she sought to protect. Richardson is in a serious condition.

GETS 250 DAYS IN JAIL

Mrs. Etta Chappelle, sentenced to 250 days in the county jail at San Francisco for driving an automobile while intoxicated, is the first woman in California to be convicted of such a charge. Mrs. Chappelle maintains that she is an automobile mechanic far better skilled than many male mechanics.

Attends Church in Florida

President Harding leaving the church in which he attended divine worship in Florida, Sunday. The President joined heartily in singing the hymns.

Born the Same Day

The nine-months-old baby, Barney Zimmerman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman of St. Paul, Minn., and the boy's inseparable companion, a St. Bernard puppy, born the same day as Barney. The baby needs no nurse maid to watch it while outdoors for no one has a chance of getting closer to Barney than ten feet.

Sealing Tut-Ankh-Amen's Tomb

Small boys carrying loads of dirt and gravel upon their heads to dump into the entrance to King Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb at Luxor, to seal up the remaining treasures until fall when work will be started again. It is estimated that 1,700 tons of material will be used in sealing the tomb.

NEWS OF NEBRASKA IN CONDENSED FORM

Recent Happenings in Nebraska Given in Brief Items For Busy Readers.

The State Music Teachers association will meet at Omaha, April 2 to 4. Peru has already begun preparations for its Chautauquin to be held this summer.

The State Sunday school association will hold its sessions at Kearney, June 12, 13 and 14.

One hundred and sixty-four candidates were initiated into the Elks lodge at Norfolk last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holte of Neligh celebrated the fifty-ninth anniversary of their married life last week.

Eight northeastern Nebraska schools are entered in the sectional declamatory contest to be held at Neligh.

The Antelope Trail, running from Plainview through Brunswick to Orchard, will be surfaced this spring.

Oil promoters have 16,000 acres under lease in the neighborhood of Neligh, and plan to start drilling soon.

A special election has been called to vote on a bond issue for the erection of a many power plant at Superior.

A girls' sewing club of sixteen members has been organized at Tecumseh. Miss Edith Place assisting the girls in the work.

Cambridge has been selected as the place where south-western Nebraska Camp Fire girls will hold their annual summer camp.

The faculty of the Gandy grade school, which was burned to the ground with a loss of $12,000 had the various departments in regular working order in less than a week.

Chester M. Smith, for more than 50 years a resident of Gage county, is dead at his home near Beatrice, where he homesteaded, and upon which he resided until his death.

Raymond Tomes, 9, Valparaiso school boy, is in a serious condition at a Lincoln hospital as a result of being struck on the head by a 12-pound shot hurled by a high school athlete.

During 1922 Omaha produced 45,000,000 pounds of butter and this year probably will reach 50,000,000 pounds. This places Omaha in first position as a butter producing center.

At the meeting of the State Short-horn Breeders association at Grand Island. Congressman A. C. Shallenberger of Alma was re-elected president, and he will also act as sales manager.

Receipts of cattle at the Omaha yards Tuesday of last week totaled 6,300 head. This was nearly 2,000 head more than commission merchants had expected in view of the after effects of the storm.

About 75 relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fodge attended an all-day reception celebrating their 55th wedding anniversary at Broken Bow. This couple has lived in Custer county since 1883.

Land owners on the south side of the Platte river in Scottsbluff county are rejoicing over indications that the long delayed Gering and Fort Laramie irrigation unit is to be speeded up and rushed to completion.

Cherogymen will ride free in Nebraska if a bill which had gone through the senate and was advanced to third reading in the house passes. The bill calls for free intrastate rides for ministers and fulltime charitable workers intrastate.

An annual saving of thousands of dollars to potato growers will result from a joint through rate on seed potatoes which has been secured by agreement with the Burlington, North-western and Union Pacific, the railway commission authorities.

The upper branch of the legislature has passed the threshermen lien bill, a measure which gives owners and operators of threshing machines or shellers a lien on grain threshed or shelled, as a chattel mortgage, and must be instituted within 30 days.

A bill to provide material for a new cellhouse at the Nebraska penitentiary by requiring all stone, brick and other material from the old capitol to be delivered by the state capitol commission to the prison ground when the capitol is razed has been advanced to third reading in the house.

A pteric acid blasting demonstration that drew farmers from all parts of Richardson county, culminated in a tragedy when Jonas Hehn, farmer living south of Dawson was instantly killed when struck in the back of the head by a flying stump weighing 200 pounds.

The great flight of wild ducks and geese has been halted by the recent storms. For miles in the neighborhood of Madison the fields are literally black with mallards, blue bills, pin tail ducks and Canadian geese. Never since the early days have farmers seen so many migratory birds in their fields.

F. R. Woodring, acting chief of the state bureau of animal industry, has received an official warning from the federal bureau that an epidemic of foot and mouth disease among livestock is again threatening.

Alpha Gamma Iho, agricultural fraternity, will hold its national convention in Lincoln April 26 to 28, and the meeting is expected to bring about 200 men. Each of the nineteen chapters is entitled to three delegates, and there will also be eight national officers in attendance, besides department heads from the agricultural college.

NEBRASKA TEAM WILL ENTER.

Cornhuskers to Compete in Mid-Western A. A. U. Meet at Omaha.

The second annual senior mid-western association A. A. U. outdoor track and field championships will be held under the auspices of the Omaha Athletic club at Ak-Sar-Ben field Saturday afternoon, June 30.

The meet is open to all registered amateurs residing in Nebraska, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota. An exceptionally large entry list is expected as teams will be entered from all the leading schools, clubs, colleges, universities, Y. M. C. A's, American Legion posts, army, navy, etc., according to Athletic Director Wendell of the Omaha Athletic club. Word has already been received from Coach Bresnahan of the University of Iowa and Coach Schultz of the University of Nebraska, that they will enter their entire track team in the meet. Denny Ryan will have a strong team representing the Omaha Athletic club.

"The meet will without doubt be one of the largest athletic events of the year and many records which were established at the first annual meet held in September last year, are sure to fall," Mr. Wendell said.

Falls City folks will vote on approval or disapproval of the Sunday movie question at the polls April 3.

The thirty-third annual meeting of the Nebraska academy of science will be held at the University of Nebraska April 12-14.

John B. Rapier, of Omaha, was elected president of the Nebraska Travelers' Protective association at its recent annual meeting.

Andrew F. Sibert, a resident of Waterloo for 54 years, died last week at his home there. Mr. Sibert was a retired farmer and Grand Army man.

A lone hand held up three employees and one passenger in the Burlington depot at York and escaped with $89.55 in cash taken from the silver till.

T. J. Doyle, attorney, and a leading figure in politics of the state, is dead at his home in Lincoln from the effects of a stroke of paralysis suffered a couple weeks ago.

The bursting of an automobile tire, which he had inflated to 100 pounds pressure, caused serious injuries to Louis Schumann, employed at a Bloomfield garage.

Hundreds of fish are being pulled out of the lakes around Bassett. Many pickered weigh 4 1/2 pounds. Plans for summer homes around the lakes are being made by many.

The eighth annual renewal of the Nebraska State Bowling tournament, which will be held in Lincoln April 7-14, is expected to attract an entry of 75 teams, according to those in charge.

Plans for the University of Nebraska memorial stadium at Lincoln, have been approved by the board of regents and work will begin if it is announced, as soon as bids on the work can be obtained.

Mrs. Phil Davis leaped through the window of the projection booth of the Rex Theatre at Franklin, when a film took fire and escaped injury, but the blaze spread over the theatre, causing severe damage.

The state board of educational lands and funds has voted to invest approximately $100,000 of the $2,000,000 American Legion relief fund in paving and school bonds of Wayne, Ravenna and other communities.

Over a thousand Fremont, school children enjoyed a half holiday as a result of a prank played by an unidentified youth, when a mysterious phone call at the city plant ordered the school whistle sounded, calling off school.

Dairying will become the principal industry in the North Platte valley in the opinion of H. K. Probst, expert of the state experiment farm. The climate, sweet clover pasturage, high alfalfa production and silage of beet tops and pulp are factors.

Kaspereck & Bazant, feeders from the Steele City community topped the Kansas City market last week with nine cars of cattle and two of hogs. The cattle weighed an average of fourteen hundred pounds and brought $9.25. The hogs brought $8.35.

It is rumored at Kearney that the Sinclair Oil company has decided to locate its state headquarters in that city. Options are said to have been obtained on a site suitable for erecting an office building, to house between thirty and forty employees.

The Rev. Anton M. Lundeen, of Newman Grove, Nebraska missionary captured by Chinese brigands last October and released after diplomatic protests by his own and four other governments, has returned to America.

Last Friday, March 23, was the tenth anniversary of the big Easter Sunday Storm at Omaha, in which over a hundred people lost their lives, many hundreds were injured, and the property loss exceeded $5,000,000. The records of the storm in Nebraska and Iowa as the result of the storm numbered 174 dead, 600 injured and $6,932,250 in property loss.

A faithful dog which came at his call probably saved the life of W. Harrington near Ravenna, when he was attacked by a large log.

Three hundred and fifty farmers, members of the Co-operative Root Growers association, voted in Scottsbluff county, by a small plurality, to sustain the board of directors of the association in its demands upon the Great Western Sugar company for a 1923 contract guaranteeing 80 a ton minimum and providing for a sliding scale division of the profits that would pay the farmer 48 per cent of the sugar obtained.

HAIR STAYS COMBED, GLOSSY

"Hair Groom" Keeps Hair Combed—Well-Groomed.

Millions Use It—Fine for Hair!—Not Sticky, Greasy or Smelly.

A few cents buys a jar of "Hair-Groom" at any drug store. Even stubborn, unruly or shampooed hair stays combed all day in any style you like. "Hair-Groom" is a dignified combing cream which gives that natural gloss and well-groomed effect to your hair—that final touch to good dress both in business and on social occasions.

Greaseless, stainless "Hair-Groom" does not show on the hair because it is absorbed by the scalp, therefore your hair remains so soft and pliable and so natural that no one can possibly tell you used it.

It Needs Turpentine.

Sometimes shoe polish becomes hard in the box and not fit to use. You can soften it and make it as good as ever if you add a little turpentine and let it stand for a short time.

Important to Mothers

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it Bears the Signature of W. D. Hoagland

In Use for Over 30 Years. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

The Cold Truth.

There's nothing so pathetic about Jacob working 14 years for his wife. Many men put in a lifetime at it.—Exchange

Mrs. Eliza Teeter

HAVE YOU A COUGH?

What This Woman Says is of Vital Interest to You

Gothen, Ind.—"I had coughed night and day for a whole year and had lost so much flesh I began to look like a walking skeleton. Two of my sisters had died from tuberculosis and I felt certain that my time had come. Finally, a friend recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to my husband, and it made me feel new strength and vitality right from the start and in a year's time I was just as strong and hardy as ever. I have never suffered with a deep, hacking cough since (that was about 20 years ago) and have always felt very grateful to Dr. Pierce."—Mrs. Eliza Teeter, 413 Middlebury St.

Whenever you feel the need of good confidential medical advice, address Dr. Pierce, president Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo N. Y., and answer will be returned without charge of any kind.

S. S. SHEAN OPTICIAN

1123 O Street Lincoln, Neb. PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

HINDERCORNS Removes Corns, Calluses, etc., from all parts, restores comfort to the feet, makes walking easy. For sale at all Drug-gists. Hileco Chemical Works, Fairport, N. Y.

Japan's Boy Prince a Poet. In Japan poets are honored above lawmakers, and for that reason the whole land is delighted because the youngest son of the emperor, seven-year-old Prince Suni, composes poetry with less difficulty than the ordinary schoolboy constructs prose sentences.

And the softer the road the harder it is to travel.

MURINE Night and Morn'ng. Have Strong, Healthy Eyes. If they're Itch, Smart or Burn, if Sore, Irritated, Inflamed or Granulated, use Murine often. Soothes, Refreshes. Safe for Infant or Adult. At all Druggists. Write for Free Eye Book. Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago