Legal Notice.

In The District Court of Webster County, Nebraska.

Cora E. Beauchamp, John E. Fox, and Martha M. Fox, Plaintiffs.

Traders Lumber Company, Catherine Gilbert, The Unknown Heirs and Assignees and Devisees of Catherine Gilbert, Lots Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) in Block Five (5) Smith & Moore's Addition to Red Cloud, Webster County, Nebraska, and All Persons having or Claiming any Interest in said Lots, Marvin Marsh and Marvin S. Marsh, Defendants

The above named defendants are hereby notified that the plaintiffs on the 24th day of March 1923, filed their petition in the District Court of Webster County, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which is to quiet and establish the title of plaintiffs in and to Lots Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) in Block Five (5) Smith & Moore's Addition to Red Cloud, Webster County, Nebraska and exclude the defendants from any interest therein and to secure an order canceling the mechanics lien of the Traders Lumber Company against said real estate.

The defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 7th day of May 1923.

Cora E. Beauchamp, John E. Fox, and Martha M. Fox, Plaintiffs, By Fred Maurer, Their Attorney.

Christian Church Notes

We spend six days in making a living; why not spend part of one in making a life?

If you are not worshipping elsewhere, The Christian Church extends you a cordial invitation. This is a good place for the whole family. We are adding new Sunday School classes as rapidly as there is call for them. Last Sunday a class was launched for Junior Boys, with an experienced enthusiastic teacher.

The Social Circle meets with Mrs. H. R. Childress next Friday afternoon.

Cricket.

The earliest mention of the game of cricket is in the writing of one John Derrick, who in 1593 wrote that "he and his fellows did runne and play at cricket." But in the Bodleian library at Oxford there is an old picture of a monk bowling a ball to another monk, who is about to strike it, and the date of that is 200 years earlier.
