

NEWS OF NEBRASKA IN CONDENSED FORM

Recent Happenings in Nebraska Given in Brief Items For Busy Readers.

STANDING OF BALL TEAMS AT END OF WEEK.

Table with columns: League, Won, Lost, Pct. Lists standings for Western League and Nebraska State League.

WESTERN LEAGUE: Wichita, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Omaha, Des Moines, St. Joseph, Sioux City, Denver.

NEBRASKA STATE LEAGUE: Lincoln, Norfolk, Fairbury, Grand Island, Beatrice, Hastings.

A charter has been issued to the Kiwanis club at Gothenburg. Nearly a million tax dollars were gathered into the state treasury this month.

The new Methodist church at Wadsworth, erected at a cost of $32,000, was dedicated last week.

Otto Rodebush, 19, was drowned while swimming in the lake at Peterson's park at Wisner.

Mrs. G. B. Zook of Barneston has as a guest her sister, Mrs. J. Nolan of Altoona, Pa., whom she has not seen for over forty years.

The annual meeting of the Nebraska Press association will be held at Omaha August 9, 10, and 11.

Mrs. W. H. Weimer of Beatrice was attacked by a bulldog and severely bitten before assistance reached her.

Mrs. C. E. Craven of Broken Bow was seriously injured when she fell into an open cellar. She is 65 years of age.

Yeggs paid a daylight visit to the Bank of Walton and relieved its vaults of about $2,500 in cash and liberty bonds.

The death of Benj. F. Bailey, oldest pioneer of Beaver City, leaves but eight members of the G. A. R. Post of that place.

A freak pig having eight legs, two bodies and one head is on exhibition in a store in Arnold, a small town near Callaway.

A. W. Downey, city engineer of Aurora for many years, was found dead on his front porch, a victim of heart trouble.

L. E. Jones, manager of a municipal ice house, at Omaha, was locked in the place by an unmasked bandit and the cash register robbed of $50.

The Beatrice city council has engaged E. V. Capps of Blair, as an expert engineer to take charge of the water and electric extensions.

More than a thousand persons attended the joint mission festival of the Missouri synod Lutheran churches of Thayer county, held at Deshler.

Fremont boy scouts who were marooned by floods, and later rescued from their camp on an island, have returned to finish their outing.

Robbers looted the Underberg & Moyer general store at Ceresco escaping with merchandise estimated by the proprietors to be worth $2,000.

Omahans have lost nearly $20,000 during the last two years by joining suit clubs which promised new suits and then went broke before delivery.

Leslie Coulter, 11-year-old son of Fred Coulter, a farmer residing near Randolph, died from an abscess caused by swallowing a tack two years ago.

St. Mark's Lutheran church, six miles northwest of Falls City, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of the organization of its congregation on Sunday, June 24.

The Omaha Bible institute will open a five week's training course for Christian workers July 10. The course includes all subjects needed for efficient Christian teaching.

G. A. Axelson of Grand Island was elected to succeed Louis Moeschler of Omaha as head of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at the convention in Hastings. Moeschler was recently killed in an automobile crash on his way to the meeting.

S. J. Kizer, 65, and Emilio M. Marquardt, 48, were married in a taxi at Beatrice by County Judge Fred Messmore who stood on the running board while he tied the knot.

"Bob" Hohnan, Burlington switchman, sustained hips and internal injuries when he was caught between a box car and a switch engine in the Burlington yards at Havelock.

The birth rate in Nebraska during 1921 was 24.5 per cent per 1,000 population, while in 1922 it was 22.7, a decrease of 1.8 per cent. The birth rate in Nebraska in 1922 was the same as the birth over the entire country.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidt of Beaver Creek accidentally hanged himself when he became entangled in the rope holding the weight of a gate.

A note threatening to kill him if he carried on prosecutions against 150 alleged bootleggers taken in raids in South Omaha was received by Robert Smardick, star federal rum sleuth.

Almost 200 cattle, shipped from the Texas panhandle, for grass feeding, straggled and ran through the streets of Okadale, in Antelope county, creating considerable excitement and doing much damage to private property.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Barger, 74, was buried at Blair last week. She is survived by 197 descendants in three generations.

Many empty freight cars on the Burlington are moving to western Nebraska where they will be sidetracked awaiting the movement of the wheat crop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Russon, residing near Broken Bow celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last week. There were about seventy-five guests present.

Charles Ketchum, was instantly killed on his farm near Loop City when he fell from the mower he was operating and was drawn in the gearing part of the machine.

The state fair board has completed plans which if the weather is favorable, is expected to draw the biggest night crowds in the history of the state exposition.

Oliver Lee, 33, veteran of world war died on a snubbar of the Kiyapaha river near Butte, while fishing. Heart disease is thought to have been the cause of his death.

Raffaele Bonacci, 53, laborer, Omaha fractured his wife's skull with a hand ax and then made an unsuccessful attempt to end his life by hanging and fracturing his own skull with the ax.

Lot estimated to be worth approximately $2,000 was obtained by robbers who forced their way into the Horack Brothers general merchandise store at Brainard, and escaped in an automobile.

Injuries he received when he was struck in the abdomen by a singletree caused the death one hour later of Hershel Rouse, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rouse of Redbird, in Holt county.

The Indian name of "Walking Buffalo," conferred upon Governor Bryan by the Sioux-Santee Indians when they made him a member of the tribe at Nabrara highly pleases the state executive.

The hottest place in Nebraska last Monday, according to the official weather report, was Auburn, 101 degrees. Broken Bow was the next hottest with 98 degrees. Valentine was the coolest with 78 degrees.

Ninety Nebraska high schools have passed the test for accredited secondary schools required by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, according to Prof. A. A. Reed of the University of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson of Fremont, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last week by entertaining the entire membership of Sinai Lutheran church. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson had been residents of Fremont since 1882.

Sweeping reductions in freight rates on wheat, corn and oats from 191 Nebraska points into Omaha, ranging from three to twenty-seven per cent and effective July 23, have been announced by the state rail way commission.

Shows at Ak-Sar-Ben Den are going under full blast each Monday evening. Thousands of Nebraskans who will be initiated into the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will be entertained there this year by the presentation of the "Chimes of Normandy."

Pulling a boy's coaster on which was loaded a 100-pound steamer truck and two heavy suit cases, a woman giving the name of Eberhart, and her son, 11, en route on foot from Fairbury to Hastings, were given lodging at the Beatrice police station.

The Spring Running Meet held at Ak-Sar-Ben Field, June 22-23, was the most successful since the races were established according to Charles L. Trimble, secretary. More than 500 horses were entered and the attendance was larger than ever.

More than a hundred specimens of diseased live stock are sent in by the farmers of Nebraska to the college of agriculture of the University of Nebraska each month, according to doctors in the animal pathology department, who diagnose the cases.

Thirty-two cans of young trout, averaging 3,000 to the can, have been emptied into Long Pine creek this season. Eight more cans are expected soon. This will make a total of approximately 120,000 trout with which the creek is stocked this season.

As a result of the recent heavy rains and high waters in the streams of Polk county much damage was done at the bridges over Clear creek, a stream of water which parallels the Platte river and over which there is scarcely a bridge left that has not been damaged.

Fifty Beatrice business men have responded to the appeal from the fans to save the Beatrice state longears from becoming financially embarrassed.

The city council of Neligh and board of supervisors of Antelope county are considering attempting to change the course of the Elkhorn river back to its old bed, which was abandoned three years ago.

A bond issue of $800,000 that creates a rural electric and power district in Dodge county was approved. The issue provides for the taking over of twelve miles of electric lines that were built two years ago.

The village of Clatonia in Gage county has voted to issue $20,000 bonds for the construction of a new school building.

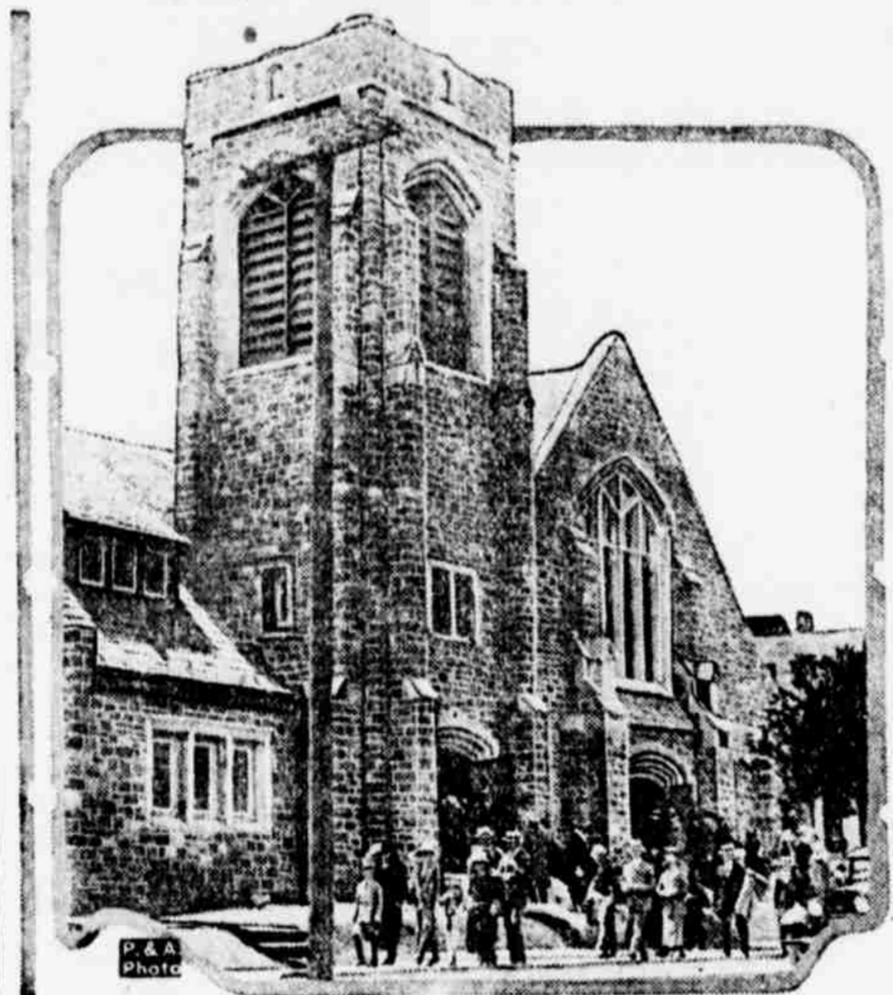

Three generations of ministers in one family preached at the Christian same topic, dividing their time and the church in Scottsbluff Sunday on the subject into three parts. The Rev. W. C. Lessey, pastor of the First Christian church had as his guest last week his father, the Rev. O. W. Lessey, of Hollis, Okla., who has been a minister for forty years, and his son, Dillard, a Cotner university student who is student pastor at Brock.

Twelve Hits in Twelve Shots Won the Prize

The gun crew of the flagship Pittsburgh at Constantanope, which made 12 hits out of as many shots, winning the $1,500 in gunnery prizes for the crew.

Houses Many Denominations

This community church of Jac... Height, Queens, Long Island, the first church in the United States to unite under one minister and one roof 21 denominations, was dedicated by Bishop Luther B. Wilson.

PRINCESS MAUD TO WED

Princess Maud, niece of the king of England, and her fiance, Lord Carnegie, oldest son of the earl of Southesk.

Mount Etna Works Great Havoc

Mount Etna is having a series of violent eruptions and several villages have been destroyed. Thousands of Sicilians have been rendered homeless by the immense rivers of lava emitted by the volcano.

SCREEN GETS PRINCESS

Princess Valdemar, favorite at the court of the late czar, has arrived in Los Angeles, and has achieved the goal she set for herself when she escaped from Ekaterinberg prison in 1919—a place on the screen. She saw her mother and father killed in prison. Her brother escaped, but was reported killed in battle. Her husband, a naval officer, left for his ship two hours after marriage and was drowned.

Monument to the Colored Mammy

This is a model of the "Colored Mammy" fountain which is to be erected in Washington on Massachusetts avenue near Sheridan circle, having been authorized by the last congress. The fountain was designed by the Washington sculptor, George Julian Zolnay and is a tribute to the faithful colored mammy of days gone by by the women of the South.

MRS. RAMBO SAYS IT IS AMAZING

After Years of Suffering From Dyspepsia She Now Eats Anything on Table.

"I was so weak and sick even a little housework was a burden to me, but I've gained twenty-four pounds by taking Tanlac and feel so well and strong I believe I could spade up the ground for a garden," said Mrs. Ediza Rambo, 4123 South 25th St., Omaha, Neb. ... "For three years I had indigestion so bad even the lightest diet caused me hours of suffering after meals. I had awful headaches and nervous spells; pains all through my body, my sleep was restless and broken, and I was so run down and weak I couldn't do all my housework. "Well, Tanlac has given me such a wonderful appetite that anything from ham and eggs to apple pie tastes delightful to me, and everything, even potatoes, agrees with me perfectly. I haven't an ache or pain of any kind, and even a hard day's housecleaning doesn't tire me out. My friends all say I look fine. It's all due to Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Advertisement.

Aviation Used Petroleum. What appeared to some as an epoch-making event in the development of airplane and automobile motive power, is the recent successful trip near Copenhagen, Denmark, of an airplane using petroleum as engine fuel, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. It was observed by experts who witnessed the test that the plane flew just as well as with gasoline, that there was less vibration and no soot formed nor was there any self-ignition in the engine, which ran 100 less revolutions than normally.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

Behind the Scenes Telephone Operator—Sorry, sir, Mr. McConnell is at an important conference and is likely to be away all afternoon. Customer—Can you tell me when he will be back? Telephone Operator (to office boy)—When is the baseball game over, Johnny? Five o'clock? (Over the phone) No, I don't think he will be back before half-past five. This is an important conference. I'll tell him you called.—Cohoes (N. Y.) Sentinel.

Fresh, sweet, white, dainty clothes for baby, if you use Red Cross Ball Blue. Never streaks or injures them. All good grocers sell it.—Advertisement.

The Art of Selling. Secretary—Mr. Terry said to tell you he is too busy to talk to you today. Life Insurance Agent—Tell him he won't have to say a word.

Hard to Tell. "Fill?" "Yes, madame?" "Is that dog growling or has my husband come in?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Advertisement for Allen's Foot-Ease, S. S. Shean Optician, and Lincoln's Hotel. Includes text: 'Shake into your Shoes ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE For Corns, Bunions, Tired and Aching Feet. S. S. SHEAN OPTICIAN 1123 O Street Lincoln, Neb. LINCOLN'S Rooms for $1.50 LEADING HOTEL THE LINCOLN Creamery and Cream Station Supplies Milk Bottles and Dairy Supplies, Egg Cases and Chicken Coops, Boilers, KENNEDY & PARSONS CO. 1309 Jones St. OMAHA 11 W. Third St. SIOUX CITY'