Miss Eva Beck Dies

Miss Eva Beck, who had been suffering intensely for more than two weeks from tonsillitis and other ailments, at the Burr Henton home near Danbury, died Saturday evening, September 22, 1923, aged 23 years, 7 months and 15 days.

OBITUARY

Eva Gertrude Beck, was born February 7, 1900, in Decatur county, Kansas, on a farm south of Danbury, Nebraska, and when but a child moved with her parents to Danbury, where she has spent most of her life.

At the age of ten years she accepted Christ as her savior, uniting with the Congregational Church at Sherman Chapel, and has since lived a true christian life, always thoughtful of those around her, an active Sunday School worker, a willing helper in the Doreas Circle, of kind disposition and very patient in her last illness.

Miss Eva was one of our successful instructors and taught at Fairview and in the Sims district.

She leaves to mourn her loss, a mother, father, four brothers, Russell H., Gilbert R. and Rollo V., of Red Cloud and Hallie E. of Superior, Neb., and a sister, Alta B. Beck of Red Cloud.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational Church at 3 o'clock, Sunday, Rev. A. B. McKee being in charge. Young lady friends of the deceased acted as pall bearers. Music was furnished by a Danbury mixed quartette.

Burial at Danbury cemetery. The deceased bids with the many friends in attending sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Mervin John, a four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, residing southeast of Danbury, died Saturday morning at Danbury. The cause of his death was a brain fever. Burial at Danbury cemetery. Rev. A. B. McKee being in charge.
