CHRISTIAN

The following is a quotation from a Babson Bulletin to bankers and merchants: "The need of the hour is not more legislation. The need of the hour is more religion. More religion is needed everywhere, from the halls of Congress at Washington, to the factories, the mines, the fields and the forests. It is one thing to talk about plans or policies, but a plan or policy without a religious motive is like a watch without a spring or a body without the breath of life."

If Mr. Babson is correct, would it not be a good plan during this Children's Week to heed the Lord's command: Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul... And ye shall teach them to your children, talking of them, when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down and when thou risest up."

Rev. Nelson, who is attending the General Board Meeting of the Christian Church at Dayton, Ohio, this week will be back for Sunday Services. The morning service will carry out the Children's Week idea. All parents and children are especially invited to Morning Worship.

The Ladies Aid have so much work that they are having an extra meeting with Mrs. Engles this week.

The Social Circle meets with Mrs. Childress in business session this Friday afternoon.

The Beacon Lights will meet with their teacher, Mrs. C. G. Nelson, Saturday at 2:30.

The Old Beau's Regret.

"Alas, things have changed," sighed the rich old party. "Formerly, my polite attentions were taken for declarations of love; now my declarations of love are taken for polite attentions."

Tip for Statesman. Lame ducks are inevitably by-products of popular government. But every statesman should have a trade. —Chicago Daily News.

Strange. A feminine lecturer on psychology advertises herself as "the woman who never wastes a word." This strikes us as something new in femininity.
