How the dear old fellows like to talk of the good old days when farm hands got $60 a year and a potato patch thrown in for good count; when corn sold at 20 cents a bushel, slicep at 50 cents a head, and fine beef cattle, sleek and fat, at $8 and $10 each, average, for the "bunch;" when a strapping young fellow, brimful of vim and high hope, thought himself in luck and the envy of his fellows if he got a place in the village store at $75 a year and "found" himself; when the smart lusty "chap" went to serve at a trade at $20 a year, a few coarse clothes, and a cot in the garret "to boot." Not many years ago the writer was wont to smoke a cigar after supper with a fine old gentleman who never tired in the recital of incidents of those days of good will and good cheer. And how he loved to dwell on the time when he entered the biggest store in his part of the state at $100 a year. being rewarded for faithful service with an additional $50 when Christmas in the state of the state at $100 a year. being rewarded for faithful service with an additional $50 when Christmas is a state of lawn.
