Messrs. H. R. and T. A. Green sojourned in Alliance a couple of days this week.

Mrs. E. P. Dada was quite ill last Saturday and Sunday but is now improving.

Henry Shimiek of Lawn dropped in Wednesday to tell us he wanted the HERALD.

Ernest Oldag returned from Platte county where he has been for the past two months.

One of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whelan's twin babies has been quite ill for several days.

E. P. Sweeney, of Alliance, republican candidate for sheriff Sundayed in Hemingford.

Attorney W. A. Hampton of Alliance was doing business at the court house Wednesday.

Sunday School in the M. E. church will convene at 9:30 instead of 10 o'clock, Sunday 29th.

The Missionary dinner will be given at the home of Mrs. Hammond next Tuesday. Everybody invited.

John Jelinek came up from Alliance Sunday and is spending the week at home. His arm is doing nicely.

N. A. Kuhn has returned to his home at Tiskilwa, Ill., after a visit of several weeks with his brother John.

Brakeman Melvin Miller bruised his back quite severely at Edgemont last week by falling on a piece of coal.

Sheriff Hall is at Ellsworth, Kansas, this week. Mrs. Hall will accompany him home about the first of October.

Mrs. Silk was a Hemingford visitor yesterday. She called and contributed the price of the HERALD, for a year.

Night operator S. Wallick went to Dewitt, Nebr., last week to visit his family. C. D. Peck-enough relieved him.

The Junior league will give a social at Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Miller's on Oct. 4th. Everybody come and have a good time.

Mrs. M. J. Tracy who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Tracy at Box Butte, departed for her home in Omaha, yesterday.

Messrs. Summers, Wheatstone and Blumers all thorough farmers of Dawes county marketed grain in Hemingford Wednesday.

M. E. Gooch is visiting at Albion. He expects to spend a few weeks at his former home in Indiana before returning to Hemingford.

Thos. Betebenner of Crawford was looking after his farm south west of town, yesterday. He was one of the early settlers in Liberty precinct.

Mrs. Nellie Osborn, of Indian Run, Pa., arrived in Hemingford yesterday morning and will visit two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Loer.

D. T. Mauk gladdened our heart Wednesday by bringing in several fine spring chickens on subscription. Mr. Mauk knows the needs of an editor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Taylor of Meekling, S. D., are visiting G. L. Taylor and family near Girard. They expect to return home on Monday next.

The dance at Willis Young's Saturday night was not largely attended owing to the inclemency of the weather but those who did attend report a pleasant time.

V. Cladek and daughter returned from Omaha Monday. Mr. Cladek received first premium on Dunlap cheese at the state fair and it is no surprise to us, either.

John W. Ditto, one of the oldest settlers in the county, gave us the benefit of his genial presence yesterday. He is again living on his farm 12 miles south of Hemingford.

S. Hutchins returned to his former home in Ohio last week for a visit with his family. We may look for Mr. Hutchins and family in Hemingford next spring to remain permanently.

I will leave Hemingford October 1st, to be gone about four weeks. Those who are in need of Dental work, should call at once. R. H. BLANCHARD, Dentist.

Prof. W. S. Worden called last Saturday and renewed for the HERALD. The Professor is meeting with the best of success in Crawford, of which his many Hemingford friends are pleased to hear.

L. F. Leavitt has purchased W. C. Mounts' tonsorial outfit and will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Leavitt knows how to manipulate a razor and no doubt will receive his share of patronage.

BORN—On Sept. 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hucke, a 10 lb. boy. Mother and child doing nicely and Fred—well he has no intention of leaving this county until that boy has acquired title to 160 acres of Box Butte soil.

Prof. Fenner interested the congregation at the Methodist church Sunday evening with a paper on "Christian and Educational Work" and Mr. Neal talked for thirty minutes on the M. E. conference which he attended at Valentine.

THE HERALD acknowledges receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Scotts Bluff County Fair to be held at Gering on Oct. 2, 3 and 4. The Scotts Bluff county people always take great interest in their fairs, and no doubt this will be one of the best.

J. P. Nelson returned from the Big Horn Basin Tuesday night. Mr. Nelson is running a blacksmith and wagon shop at Thermopolis and is doing a pretty good business. Ed Enderly who is in business there, has disposed of his stock of merchandise and is now running a drug store.

Uncle George Waisner is visiting throughout the county this week, perhaps in the interest of Supt. Fillmore. But if you attend picnics just wait until the populist convention, Oct. 5th, for it will be the most interesting event of the season. Reserved seats (where there will be less danger of having your proboscis disfigured) should be procured at an early date.

Mrs. Hattie Wheeler has accepted a position in W. W. Norton's dry goods store at Alliance. Mrs. Wheeler is an excellent saleslady and Mr. Norton is fortunate in securing her services.

Teal Mattox, of Casper, Wyo., was in town Monday and made arrangements to open a saloon here in a few days. Mattox & Fansler is the firm name and the Knapp building will be the place of business with Mr. Teal as manager.

A Big Blaze.

The large frame house of John Urbanosky who lives 12 miles northeast of Hemingford was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Urbanosky lighted the lamp and went to the barn close by and when she discovered the fire the house was in flames and too late to save anything. It is supposed that the lamp exploded. Loss about $300, insurance $400.

They Always Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kidwell returned to Hemingford Wednesday after an absence of several months in the Big Horn Basin in Wyoming. Mr. Kidwell says that he has enough of that country and wouldn't agree to live there if he was donated 10,000 acres of its "fertile soil." They will spend the winter here and may remain permanently. No place like Box Butte.

While in Omaha last week the writer met several old Box Butte boys. John Kierce and Wm. Ryan are in the ice business and are doing well. Mr. Ryan thinks of moving on his farm east of Hemingford next spring. F. J. Fittle has been clerking in the Boston Store for two years. Ralph Jackson is in the employ of McCord, Brady & Co., and Gust E. Larson holds a good position with the Western Newspaper Union.

We might have added that all are married except Mr. Kierce and apparently his prospects were very bright.

Hymeneal.

Henry Laudan and Miss Alwine Hoffman were united in the bonds of holy wedlock Thursday afternoon, by Rev. Aug. Wunderlich, pastor of the Lutheran Church.

The groom is a sterling young man who is quite well known in Hemingford. He is at present holding a good position in Deadwood and enjoys the respect and esteem of all with whom he is acquainted.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. J. Adam Preis and is a charming young lady whose friends are limited only by her acquaintances.

The wedding was a private affair, only a few intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Laudan will make Deadwood their future home. The HERALD extends best wishes to the happy couple.

After Barney.

Many of the older residents of the county remember Barney McCabe who resided north of Box Butte in '87 and '88 and who was granted a divorce from his wife who resided near Clarence, Iowa, in 1888, service being had by publication, on the grounds of cruelty and desertion. These facts were brought vividly to mind yesterday when Mrs. McCabe the deserted wife arrived in Hemingford, and sought legal advice, with the view of having her wrongs righted and her erring ex-husband punished for the crimes she claimed he committed, among which, she alleges, are perjury and bigamy. She claims he swore falsely in his petition for divorce, and committed bigamy in re-marrying before the statutory six months had expired, and because the divorce was fraudulent and illegal. Mrs. McCabe seems an avenging Nemesis and declares her intention of following the recreant Barney to the ends of the earth unless her vengeance is satiated by landing him behind prison bars.

The democrats of Dorsey precinct held their caucus Tuesday evening and made the following nominations:

For Assessor, J. C. Parkin.	For Constable, B. Halbur.
For Justice, A. H. Pierce.	For Road Overseer, P. Kinsley.

The ticket is a strong one from top to bottom and should receive the hearty support of every democrat in the precinct.

The following named gentlemen, were selected to attend the county convention as delegates:

J. C. Parkin,	A. H. Pierce,
A. Urie,	B. Halbur,
Sam Svitzer,	W. J. Earnest,
E. Boyer,	John O'Keefe,
A. Felder,	W. K. Hernal,
P. Kinsley,	W. J. Bean.

Box Butte News

Mrs. Jessie McBride is the guest of Mrs. Vermillion this week.

Sam Graham's blonde countenance was seen on our streets today

John A. Wilson made a flying trip to Pine Ridge today, gathering eggs.

N. G. Johnson had the misfortune to lose the sight of one of his eyes, last week.

Henry Dilling returned from Alliance last evening in his usual happy condition.

R. C. Worley returned from his eight weeks' sleep and is with us, wide-awake, again.

R. H. Gammon, the new M. E. minister, has not yet made his appearance; too much snow, Sunday, we guess.

Mrs. M. J. Tracy returned to Omaha this p. m., on account of the illness of Master Donald, her grandson.

W. H. Keister the would-be probate judge of Box Butte county, is sojourning in the sand hills southeast of Alliance.

Three of Robt. Kittleman's children are suffering with mountain fever, but we are glad to say they are recovering.

Miss Lottie Worley returned to her studies at the State University a few days since. Her mother will spend the winter with her in Lincoln.

M. D. Atkin has most of the interior work of his store completed and now has the freshest, cleanest stock of general merchandise in Box Butte county.

Berea Scrapings.

Threshing is now all done and the yield was as could be expected, rather light.

G. W. Waisner and Attorney Iodence of Hemingford passed through here last Wednesday.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather our Sunday school attendance was rather light last Sunday.

D. C. McIntire, J. H. Carlson and J. C. Birdsall of Alliance were paying Berea a visit last Monday.

Mr. Sweeney from down in the Sand Hills, was buying cattle in this part of the country last Monday. He is candidate for Sheriff on the Republican ticket. He wanted us to vote for him.

Two weeks ago last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Jewett received a telegram from their son-in-law, J. Williams at Cherokee, Iowa, that their daughter Georgia was at the point of death. Mrs. Jewett stated the same night but came to late to find her a live. She leaves a husband and two little children to mourn the loss of a loving wife and kind and affectionate mother. The entire community extends their sympathy to the bereaved ones. It is ever thus, in the midst of life we are in death.

A. KINGSNIP.

Burbank Budget.

Mr. Bonus and family are moving to Alliance.

The first snow of the season came quite early.

J. Connelly and Charles Logan are transacting business on the Platte this week.

Mr. Elt Waisner of Hemingford passed through Burbank Monday on his way to Malinda.

F. M. DeVore and family arrived home from Cherry Co., Sunday. Pretty chilly weather for camping out.

There seems to be very little excitement in our neighborhood at present, consequently there is little news to write.

Miss Kate Stroud of Carson, Iowa, has been visiting at F. M. DeVore's the last few days. She will return home in about a week.

W. Johnson's father from Minier, Ill., has been visiting him for the past two weeks. He expresses himself as being well pleased with this country.

Mr. Humbaugh's house is fast nearing completion. When finished it will be a very neat looking house. We have not heard if he intends to move out here or not.

SAND CRANE.

Newsy Notes From Our Exchanges.

As Richard Preston was going to Wagon Box canyon with his family, Friday, his six months old daughter, Della, was taken sick with cholera infantum and died before they could get medical attendance. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon.—Deadwood Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston have the sympathy of friends in this country.

Gering Courier:

We had a conversation with Hon. Wm. Kaup the other day, in the course of which he said: "In traveling over this county I find as is the case in all new countries, people who have lived here through the hardships of frontier life, and as the dawn of a brighter day appears in the not distant future, they are willing to spend what they have moving somewhere else, thus missing the fruits of their own labor. Think before you leap, as the Garden of Eden is only beyond the river of death."

Newcastle Democrat:

United States Marshal McDermott is up north says the Cheyenne Sun, serving some papers on some persons charged with illegally fencing government land. Many complaints are being made of the unlawful fencing of public land, and in every case called to the attention of the federal government action will be at once commenced to have the fence removed. There will soon be many cases of this character in the United States court here.

Edgemont Express:

In the near future there will be two churches erected in Edgemont. The Catholics raised nearly $600 at their fair, and have selected a site and will begin the erection of their house of worship very shortly As soon as Rev. Baker returns from the east the plans for the Methodist church will be drawn up and a magnificent stone edifice will be erected.

George Pitker, a section hand on the B. & M., and Miss Smith, daughter of the late landlord of the quarry hotel, ran away together Saturday night and are probably man and wife by this time. The elopement caused considerable excitement for a time, as the runaway bride was promised to another man, who had bought the wedding dresses and other fixings for their wedding. Mrs. Smith, fearing her daughter was going to slip through their fingers before the time to marry the man of their choice, locked her up in her room Thursday and Friday, intending on Saturday to take the train for Crawford. Saturday the daughter fell in with her mother's plans and talked so nicely of the Crawford trip and her coming happy marriage that her mother's suspicions were lulled to sleep. During Saturday forenoon her little sister stole out Miss Smith's clothes and handed them to George Pitker, who was waiting in the brush about a mile from the house. At dusk, making an excuse to go to a neighbor's house, Miss Smith disappeared and has not been seen since. It was learned that Miss Smith, Geo. Pitker and a friend of his walked several miles to a county seat, where the ceremony was performed. Her parents are furious, but not knowing anything of the whereabouts of the runaways are perfectly helpless. The other man in the case is a sadder but wiser man.
