He Says the Decrease in the Value of Farm Animals in Two Years Has Been 8664,000,000 - A Plaint From the Wool Grovers Senator Vest Denounced in Strong Words.

A Bitter Arraignment.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24. - Senator Warren of Wyoming addressed the Senate to-day on his resolution calling attention to the shrinkage in the number and value of farm animals and requesting the finance committee to report appropriate legislation. The Senator attributed the shrinkage to the Wilson bill, which, he declared, had caused a loss of $664,000,000 to the American people in live stock in two years. The talk that wool growers were more prosperous under free wool was preposterous. The elections of 1895 indicated that after 1896 a corporal's guard only of the faithful would be left to mark the spot "where once stood a triumphant, rampant Democracy fighting under the unpatriotic black flag of Wilsonism-the embiem of protection to foreign industries and distress to our own. If the McKinley bill of Republican fame was a 'boodoo'" said Mr. Warren, "your own Wilson bill has certainly been a conspienously stomach trying 'Jonah.'

The result of Republican and Democratic tariff policies Mr. Warren summed up by saying that United States live stock interests had thrived under Republican rule and had decreased always, both in numbers and value, under Democratic administra-As corresponding with our own great national shrinkage, he pointed out an innuense increase in the business of foreign countries in our markets and that, while sneep of the United States are worth little more than one-half what they were two years ago, the wool exportation from England to America in 1895 was nearly triple that of 1894.

Mr. Warran in strong language denounced Senator Vest for excoriating the Supreme court for reversing the precedent in the income tax cases and then himself (Vest) glorying in the fact that the economical law of a tariff on wool had been, after eighty years. overturned by the Wilson bill, that crowning infamy that the Schate first pitied then endured then embraced. Debs for an alleged contempt of court, and who shall report to the Senate and recommend such legislation as may be necessary for the enforcement of the law and protection of citizens from arbitrary and oppressive excess of judicial power." Mr. Call said he would call up the resolution to-morrow.

It was disclosed at this point that the Pugh resolution for the payment of bonds in silver had lost its parliamentary status yesterday and was at the foot of the calendar. Mr. Pugh protested that this was contrary to his understanding Mr. Hill said Mr. Pugh had been warned of this. "I deny that statement," said Mr.

Pugh.
"The senator is simply denying the record," answered Mr. Hill, pointing out how the resolution had lost its place of precedence before the Senate. He added: "The senator (Pugh) walked Armenian Resolutions in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24. - Contrary to expectation to-day's meeting of the House foreign affairs committee did not deal with any of the several important questions before the committee except the Armenian massacre. In response to demands from religious and other organizations, resolutions patterned after those before the Senate were adopted and Mr. Quigg was directed to report them to the House, Nothing was done about Ambassador Bayard's two speeches. The committee adopted the diplomatic and consalar appropriation bill without changes from last year's allowance.

AMERICANS ALL RIGHT.

Quiet Has Been Restored in Transvani-Impartial Trial for Prisoners.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24, - The Examiner has received the following telegram from President Kruger in reply to a message asking information as to the status of the American mining men now imprisoned at Pretoria for alleged participation in the uprising of the Uitlanders: "Everything is quiet at present. The Americans are in no danger whatever. They enjoy the full protection of the law like any other foreigners, therefore there is no need for protection from the outside against any alleged revolutionary moves. Even if such protection against revolutionists were necessary, which is not so, the Americans are capable to take care of themselves. The government regrets deeply that, whilst almost ail of the Americans took the side of law and order, a very few of them have joined the revolutionary, so-called reform committee. These, together with a majority, mostly British, will be tried according to law, and justice will be accorded to all without respect to nationality."

The Kind of Wife Wanten.

An Englishwoman who is not a very new woman, says she knows a perfect woman from a man's standpoint. "Being a woman," she sald, "I know exactly what sort of a wife I would like if I were a man. It would be one who would never say, 'I told you so,' or You're not getting any younger, my dear,' or 'You d-d-don't love me as much as you used,' It would be one who would never stay home and sit up for me when I went to the club, but would take her own pleasure in a reasonable way. One who wouldn't want her mother, her aunts, her sisters and her cousins to stay with her, nor have a family party on Christmas day, nor expect me to go to church when I wanted to play golf, nor frown if I lit a cigar in the drawing-room, nor sniff when I bring home Zola's novels or my chum Smith to take pot luck.
