Educational Department.

Office days of Co. Supt. are Monday and Saturday of each week. Teacher's examination, the third Saturday of each month.

The next examination for professional life certificates will be held by the state board of examiners June 9 and 10, 1896, at Crawford, Nebraska.

School in district No. 26 taught by Chas. Lockwood was found in good running order, having a bright class of pupils and patient persevering teacher.

Miss Edna Johnson who is at the helm of the school in Dist. No. 51 is doing good work and has very bright pleasant children to labor with. A neater little school room can not be found in the county.

The Burbank school is progressing rapidly and thoroughly under the guidance of the efficient teacher T. G. Burke. Perfect harmony exists; teacher and pupils work for the same end; there will be a lasting mark left on the mind and character of those pupils for good.

Mr. A. C. Davis closed a very successful term of school in Dist. No. 45 last Friday. There was an enrollment of 10, an average daily attendance of seven. Ethel Snedeker, Ethel and Myrtle Facemire were present every day and not one case of tardiness during the entire term.

Report of school taught in Dist. No. 23, for the month ending May 22, 1896.
 No. of days taught, 10.
 Average daily attendance, 9.
 No. daily recitations, 15.
 No. of visitors, 4.

Those perfect in attendance were James Murphy, Charles Murphy, Bessie Whaley, Zilpha Kennedy and Elbridge Wells.
 T. G. BURKE, Teacher.

Taken up by the undersigned, three black shafts, weight about 100 lbs. each.

H. N. EARNEST.
 Dated May 27, 1896.

Sheriff Sweeney has rented the McCorkle residence.

Over seven hundred people were killed in the cyclone at St. Louis Wednesday.

Mrs. O. A. Miller went to Crawford Monday.

"Mother" Shindler of the Farmers Home visited Alliance Tuesday.

H. L. Bushnell has sixty acres planted to potatoes. John Eisler did all the "dropping."

John Lally was up from Alliance Tuesday.

John Armstrong rode the "goat" Tuesday evening and is now a full fledged Modern Woodman. The camp is growing quite rapidly.

Revs. Thoen and Wunderlich moved into their own residence this week.

The republican county central committee is called to meet at Hemingford, Monday, June 1st.

This office has received the premium list for the state fair to be held in Omaha August 27th to Sept. 5th. The premium list is a good one and no doubt the fair this fall will equal any held in the state for years.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Phil Tierney and Miss Mamie Hollinrake, on Tuesday, June 2, 1896. A reception will be given in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hollinrake.

C. A. Bulew has leased the H. R. Green residence and moved his family into the same yesterday.

Mrs. Paradis and sister, Mrs. Hathaway, of Alliance, spent Sunday with Hemingford friends.

Will O'Mara of Box Butte was in town Friday. He and M. D. Atkin are buying up a few horses which they expect to take to North Dakota to sell.

Mrs. B. F. Gilman was visiting Mrs. Clark Olds last Friday and while out in the yard was attacked by a vicious dog and bitten quite severely.

B. L. Fenner, of Dunlap, was thrown from a pitching horse Wednesday, breaking his collar bone.

On the Diamond.

The base ball game at Alliance Saturday resulted in favor of the Alliance boys. Score 15 to 7.

In the game at Fort Robinson Sunday between the colored nine and Alliance, the score stood 17 to 10, favor of the Fort.

Alliance will play the Hemingford nine at this place tomorrow.

ALL GOOD REPUBLICANS should make a point of attending the National Convention, to be held at St. Louis, Tuesday, June 16th.

The expense is not great—if you take the Burlington.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of June, you can purchase a round trip ticket to St. Louis at THE ONE WAY RATE.

Think—isn't it worth a few dollars—a few days time—to see the next President nominated?

Full information on application to any agent of the B. & M. R. R. R. or by addressing J. Francis, Gen'l. Pass'r. Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha, Neb.
