HEMINGFORD, BOX BUTTE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, AUG. 14, 1896.

NO. 25

16 TO 1.
I have a full line of Groceries, Dry Goods, Shoes, Notions, etc., New and Fresh—Largest stock in the county.

Produce taken at its highest market value and 50 cent silver dollars received at their face. C. A. BURLEW.

People You Know.

Thos. Beck, the portly and affable hardware merchant, of Alliance, transacted business at the court house Tuesday.

Geo. A. Underwood and Miss Lillie Hunt were married by the county judge on Wednesday.

Mrs. Fenner is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. O. A. Miller and children departed for Oreville, S. D., Sunday morning where Mr. Miller has located permanently.

Attorney S. M. Smyser accompanied by his wife and daughters drove up from Alliance Sunday and spent the day visiting friends.

Prof. Worden contemplates opening an art studio at Terry, S. D. He is now at Hill City.

R. W. Montgomery, republican candidate for county attorney, was in the city yesterday.

W. F. Walker's little daughter is suffering with tonsillitis.

Don't forget to come out and hear Judge Green speak next Thursday, Aug. 20th. It will be a rare treat.

Dad Shirk is laid up with a sore foot.

The young people of the Congregational church will give a social next Friday evening, Aug. 21st, at the home of Mrs. Sherwood. A unique program will be rendered. Refreshments, ice cream, etc. All are invited.

Hon. R. C. Noleman will speak on silver at the court house tomorrow. Mr. Noleman has the reputation of being a sound thinker and good speaker and you should not fail to hear him.

Sheriff Sweeney was "under the weather" a couple of days this week.

Mrs. M. E. Painter arrived from Colorado and will visit her brother, Hamilton Hall.

Editor Paradis and wife, Mesdames Mounts, Cunningham and Smith and Misses Deal and Mann came up from Alliance to attend the social Friday evening.

Judge Spacht resigned from the school board and Clark Olds was appointed to fill vacancy.

Arthur Moore, of the Platte river, brought in 375 bushels of wheat Wednesday, which he sold to the mill.

Attorney Iodence made a business trip to Chadron and Rausville this week.

Miss Nettie Uhrig is at Alliance, receiving instruction in music from Mrs. Snow.

While in Scotts Bluff county last week Rev. Wunderlich's matched span of blacks strayed away and he is unable to find them.

Grandpa Cook died on Sunday afternoon, of cholera morbus, at the home of Mike Emore, Alliance, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Tuesday. Mr. Cook had passed his 79th year and was an estimable gentleman, liked by all who knew him. Three daughters residing in this county survive him: Mesdames Mike and John Emore and John Lemon, to whom a host of friends extends sympathies.

W. K. Herculal made a trip to the Sand hills this week.

Join the Bryan club.
C. J. Wildy returned from his Black Hills trip Friday morning. Trainmaster Birdsall was in the city Wednesday.

Bryan meeting at court house tomorrow, (Saturday.)

The Bryan ladies served ice cream in the Gerber building Monday afternoon.

Examination for Teachers' certificates will be held in court house Aug. 15th and 22nd.

A. M. Davis returned from Iowa Wednesday morning where he has been for nearly a year.

B. F. Gilman returned from the hills Tuesday. Mrs. Gilman will remain at Hot Springs this week.

Mrs. J. S. Paradis and Miss Lulu Mann, of Alliance, have been visiting Hemingford friends the past week.

Prof. Fenner returned from Scotts Bluff county Tuesday where he has been conducting the Teachers Institute. He returned sooner than he expected owing to Mrs. Fenner's illness.

Miss Mary Collins departed for her home in Montello, Wis., Monday morning. Miss Collins has been failing in health for some time and her many friends here hope the change will benefit her.

The Gering papers and the Co. Superintendent speak very highly of Prof. L. B. Fenner's work in the Institute at that place. Concerning his lecture, the Homestead says:

"Among the interesting features of the Institute this week was the lecture Wednesday night by Prof. Fenner on the subject, 'We the People.' The lecture was listened to by a large audience and was highly appreciated. He presented some unusually good thoughts in an able manner, which showed himself to be in touch with the best of our thinkers in the educational world."

A very pleasant gathering was the old fashioned quilting party at the home of Mrs. Jas. Hollinrake last Saturday. After partaking of an excellent dinner which Mrs. Hollinrake had prepared for her guests, the time was spent in quilting and discussing the political situation of the day. Mr. Volney Curtis favored the company with some choice selections of music.

Those present were,

Kendall,	Curtis,
Hammond,	Neeland,
Bean,	Cross,
Hatch,	I. Reed,
Nichols,	F. Reed,
Reynolds,	Blanchard,
Bushnell,	W. Hollinrake,

The political social at the court house Friday evening was a decided success in every particular. The hall was prettily decorated with beautiful mottoes and portraits of McKinley and Bryan were conspicuous. The several parties were ably represented—the democratic by Mrs. Switzer chairman, Mrs. Millett and Mrs. Bean; populist, Mrs. Nichols, chairman, Mrs. Iodence and Miss Hamilton; republican, Mrs. Sweeney chairman, Mrs. Rustin and Mrs. Hammond; prohibitionist, Mrs. A. M. Miller. The representative of each party spoke like an old-time politician and all were heartily applauded. The glee club rendered several choice selections and Mesdames Switzer and O. A. Miller sang a duet, entitled "Silver Threads Among the Gold," which was well received. Mrs. Blanchard made a few appropriate remarks and reminded us that while we may have different views on the political question, there is one thing we all love alike—the Stars and Stripes. After the program was finished all joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," when the room was cleared, the tables arranged and loaded down with "gold" and "silver" cakes which were served with delicious ice cream and Mrs. Miller's prohibition pop. In fact the only thing lacking about the entertainment was "gold bug" argument and ice cream which disappeared before many were aware of it. The receipts amounting to about $12 were donated to the church. All the ladies, and several of the gentlemen, worked hard in getting up the entertainment and are deserving of much credit.

A distinguished party from Box Butte county, Neb., has been visiting our successful dry goods and clothing merchant, Herman B. Wildy, the past week, and have enjoyed immensely the romances connected with mountain life. The party consists of C. J. Wildy, a brother of our popular townsman, and a prominent merchant of Hemingford; B. F. Gilman, county attorney for Box Butte county, his wife and children; and Miss Anna Neeland, county superintendent for the same county. They are out for a good time and the beautiful weather of the past week has afforded ample opportunity to inhale the pure oxygen of the bracing mountain air. Of course Herman has spared no pains in looking after their entertainment, and no attraction in the way of mining wonder and rugged mountain scenery has been overlooked.—Terry News.

A Suspicious Case.

The suspicions of the Times regarding the intentions of the Hemingford HERALD proved to be true, as the paper came out last week squarely for free silver. The publishing of the delinquent tax list for this year was awarded the HERALD very quietly at a meeting of the pop board of county commissioners last week, which makes it appear on the surface as if some kind of a trade might have been made. Well, the popocrats have been wanting an organ in this county for some time, and now they have it. Tommy will be strictly in clover next November after Bryan is elected—to stay at home.—Alliance Times.

Well, well, Bro. Ellis seems to have another attack of cholera morbus. So the "printing of the tax list was awarded the HERALD very quietly at a meeting of the pop board last week," was it? Democrats never tell the truth so we quote the following from the Commissioners Record:

"JANUARY 16, 1896.—Bids for furnishing stationery and printing official notices were opened and considered. Contract was awarded to the Hemingford HERALD and that paper was designated as the official paper of Box Butte county for 1896 and said paper to publish the official tax list. Bond of the Hemingford HERALD for the faithful performance of the contract was examined and approved.

Attest: F. M. PHELPS, County Clerk."
Harvey, don't you remember that you were present on that day, when the contract was let. But anything to get a rap at the two "pop" members of the board. Have you forgotten about the compliments and notices you used to give this same "pop" board two years ago when you were publishing a pop paper and getting all the patronage? How things do change, Harvey! You, and the other editor who drove twenty miles through the rain during the last meeting of the board, to get the printing, have worked nobly and we extend to both of you our sincere sympathy. We trust that you fellows will not forget yourselves again and come out next summer trying to elect McKinley.

Judge W. L. Green, of Kearney, will address the people of Box Butte county on the political issue of the day; at the court house in Hemingford, Aug. 20, at 2 p. m. at the opera house in Alliance 8 o'clock p. m. Everybody should hear this noted orator. Good music in attendance.

CLARK OLDS, Chairman.

NOTICE

All those who have expressed their intention to join the Bryan club and all others who wish to become members of the club are requested to come to the court house on Saturday Aug. 15 1896, 1:30 p. m. for organization, and other business. Good speakers will be on hand.

Don't make the mistake of thinking you can't afford to attend the '96 State Fair.

The truth is you can't afford to stay away.

It makes no difference what your business is, your knowledge of it, your interest in it, will be increased by what you see in Omaha, Aug. 27 - Sept. 5.

And the low rates and special train service offered by the
