The Populist Situation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.-Chairman Butler, of the Populist national committee, was asked the following question last night: "In view of your statement to the effect that the Populist candidates are Bryan and Watson, and will be until the close of the campaign, and will be earnestly supported to the end without discriminations for or against either, what will be the position of your committee with reference to those States where Democrats and Populists have fused by the latter taking the State ticket and the former all of the electoral ticket?"

"We have no official information," he replied, "that this has been done in any state; but if it has been done, or is contemplated, the national committee will not approve or recognize The highest law of any party is the action of its national conventions. No man or state organization can be disloyal to such supreme authority without arraying itself in direct and hostile opposition to the national convention. Our national convention nominated Bryan and Watson by an overwhelming majority, and it is the bounden duty of every loyal Populist to support both of these candidates earnestly and loyally; and, besides, Watson stands for what Bryan stands for, and therefore Bryan and Watson is the only ticket that represents the principles that the People's party believe in and have contended for from the beginning. Mr. Sewall is no more the candidate of the People's party than is Mr.

"The executive committee will see that the action of our national convention is maintained in every state, but if there should arise disaffection or disloyalty to either of our candidates in any state, then we are sure that there are true Populists in such states who will support a whole ticket, and such alone will be recognized by our national committee.

"Does this mean you will insist upon a straightout Bryan and Watson ticket in every state?"

"No; but it means that wherever Populists and Democrats join forces on the electoral ticket there must be a due and proper recognition of each party's candidate by a just and equitable division of electors supporting the candidates of the respective par-

Senator Butler was asked what effect this announcement would have upon the fusion in Kansas, where the Populists took the State ticket and the Democrats the electoral ticket, but he declined to go into specific details, saying his announcement related to the general policy of the committee. The statement of Mr. Butler was said to be the unanimous expression of the committee.

The declaration of principles is the platform adopted by the national silver party at St. Louis July 23.

POPS GETTING READY.

National Committee Busy Arranging the Details of the Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.-To-day the executive committee of the Populist party decided that J. R. Sovereign should be assigned to the Chicago headquarters, which will be under the management of Mr. Washburn of Massachusetts. Chairman Butler will be in charge here and will give his whole attention to the campaign, assisted by Secretary Edgerton. As far as possible, documents which can be franked will be sent out. These include speeches by Populists in Congress and some of Tom Watson's will be among the number. Some of the literature being sent out by the Democratic committee and also by the silver committee will be distributed. Chairman Butler said this morning that the committee was embarrassed for want of funds, and Secretary Edgerton said that the committee must rely upon voluntary subscriptions as much as possible. "We have chipped in," said Chairman Butler, "to pay our expenses thus far. We have no rich men to make large contributions for campalga expenses. I expect we will have to make a campaign like others we have made in the South, where we have managed with very little

Chairman Butler will enter into correspondence with Populist leaders and with free silver leaders in various parts of the country at once and endeavor to effect an adjustment of all existing difficulties which will bring the supporters of silver and Bryan into harmonious action.

THURSTON RETRACTS.

His Charge Against Mr. Bryan Publicly Withdrawn.

CHICAGO. Aug. 21 .- "Mr. Bryan's word 'goes' with me, and I shall be glad to state to the people of this country," said Senator John M. Thurston of Nebraska to day, after reading the flat footed denial on the part of W. J. Bryan that he was or had been in the employ of the silver mine owners. "Mr. Bryan has denied the charge, which was made by a Democratic newspaper, and I have no hesitation in declaring that I believe

Mr. Thurston gave out the following card last evening: To THE PUBLIC:

"On July 11 the Chicago Chronicle charged W. J. Bryan with being a salaried employe of the silver bonanza interests.

"On July 31, at Madison, Wis., I read the editorial of the Chronicle, and insisted that Mr. Bryan owed it, as a duty to the American people, to answer the charge.

"His explicit denial appears in the press this morning. I stated in Nebraska that Mr. Bryan's denial would be accepted by me, and that I would so notify the country, which I take this immediate and public manner of doing.

000 in Gold Coin From Europe. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.-Acting Secretary Curtis has received a telegram from the assistant treasurer at New York stating that arrangements had been made there to import $6,000,000 in gold coin from Europe. While foreign exchange is slightly above the importing point, it is said that should it decline during the next few days as rapidly as during the last week gold importations from Europe would yield a good profit. The officials are hopeful that the tide has turned, and that from now on the reserve will be rapidly increased.

WATSON WILL STAY.

AND THE POPULIST VOTE WILL GO TO HIM.

What the Chairman of the National Committee Has to Say-He Thinks Mr. Watson Has a Better Chance of Being the Next Vice President than Mr. Sewall-A Conference Between Senators Jones and Butler.

No Putting Off Watson.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19. - Senator Butler of North Carolina, chairman of the national committee of the Populist party, arrived Here to-day to attend a meeting of the Populist managers this afternoon. Five members of the executive committee are here, the others hawing sent letters of excuse. It was decided even before the executive committee met that the national headquarters should be here and it is probable that rooms in Wormley's adjoining the Democratic subheadquarters will be secured.

One of the matters which may be brought up is the vice presidency. though it is known that the executive committee will listen to no proposiion looking to the withdrawal of Watson from the ticket. Senator Butler said that if Sewall had stood for what Bryan did before the people, neither the holding of the Populist party organization together nor anything else would have prevented the nomination of the whole Democratic ticket by the Populists. As it was, Sewall did not represent the Populists and under no circumstances would they consent to vote for him. He thought that Watson stood a better chance of being the next vice president than Sewall.

Another matter to be settled is the notification of Watson. Mr. Butler is chairman of the notification committee. He says that nothing definite has been arranged as yet. He says he has been so busy with affairs in his own State since the national convention adjourned that he had little correspondence with members of the notification committee.

The situation in North Carolina was the subject of several conferences after the arrival of Chairman Butler, One of the Democratic leaders spoke positively about the matter. said that if Mr. Butler thought he had the Democrate in a tight place and could drive a hard bargain with them he would find they would not stand on it and would make a straight fight. They did not propose to be bulldozed into giving up anything.

The conference between Senators Jones and Butler was not very fruitful as no conclusions were reached upon the subjects under discussion. The Democrats are not satisfied with the fusion propositions in several Southern states and, on the other hand, the Populists do not like the offers which have been made to them in some of the Western states. It is not likely any definite conclusion will be reached until after the return of Senator Jones from Chicago.

After this the Populist executive committee went into session. The meeting was devoted almost entirely to receiving reports and to an interchange of view as to the condition of

CAIL HAMILTON DEAD.

The Author of Many Books Stricken

With Paralysis. HAMILTON, Mass., Aug. 18.-Abigail Dodge, better known as Gail Hamilton, the writer, who has been ill at her home here for some time, died last night. Miss Dodge sustained a stroke of paralysis while sitting at the breakfast table yesterday morning. She became unconscious and remained so nutil her death.

Miss Mary Abigail Dodge, writer, biographer and controversialist, widely known under the pen name as Gail Hamilton, was a native of the town in which she died, having been born in 1830. At the age of 10 years she went to Dr. Clark's private school in Cambridge. She was graduated from Ipswich academy at the age of 20. In 1851, she went to Harvard as assistant in the Hartford high school. She refused to take the customary ex-amination, but was given the position without doing so. She was also instructor in physical science in this school for several years, and was subsequently governess in the family of Dr. Gamaliel Balley of Washington, D. C., the editor of the National Era, to which paper she became a contributor.

In 1865-7, she was one of the editors of Our Young Folks, a magazine for children, published in Boston. From 1870 until a little over a year ago she had lived most of the time with her cousin, Mrs. James G. Blaine, in Washington. In the course of this daily contact with the Blaine family, Miss Dodge was led into a very close friendship with Mr. Blaine and at the death of the latter, she became his literary executor, being in possession his papers and documents of value to her as his authorized biographer. She was engaged, as frequently as her hearth would permit, on Mr. Blaine's biography from the time of his death until her illness of last year and it is thought her untiring devotion to the work was instrumental in bringing about that prostration. Gail Hamilton was a frequent contributor to prominent magazines, and her published works, written in a witty and aggressive style, consist largely of selections from her con-tributions.

Miss Dodge's one novel, "First Love Is Best," had not the success which attended some of her other works. During recent years she engaged in political writing, and many famous review articles and political "interviews" have been accredited to her which have roused much warm discussion and have exerted more or less influence upon national politics.

THE GOLD DEMOCRATS

They Issue a Call For Their National Convention

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.-The executive committee of the national Democratic party was in session here yesterday and issued a lengthy call for a national convention at Indianapolis September 2. The call bitterly attacks the Chicago convention and platform, and says in part:

The Chicago convention having thus departed from the recognized Democratic faith and promulgated doctrines new and strangs to the Democracy all Democrate are absolved from Democracy all Democrate are absolved from obligation to support its program.

When a Democratic convention departs from the principles of the party, no Democrat rem insuader any moral obligation to support its action, nor is there any tradition of the party that requires him so to do On the con-trary, it is evidence of moral weakness for any free man to vote to enforce policies which. in his opinion, are inimical to the welfare of the people or to the integrity of the nation.

The duly of the hour is to stand steadfast in the defense of our ancient faith. In this crisis there is at at ike more than the possibility of temporary victory. The honor and perpetuity of the Democratic party are at stake. A political organization that is untrue to itself, its principles, its history and traditions, is disgraced and dishonored. The existence of our great historical party, that has withstood the assaults of every foe, is threatened by rea on of the recreancy of many of its members. That this party, as we have known it, may not die. let the faithful of years rall around its historic banner, reform its broken lines, and with abiding faith in the final triumph of its principles, units to restore the name Democrat to its former meaning and proud distinction.

STEWART TO THURSTON.

Challenges the Nebraskan to Prove the Bryan Charges.

Washington, Aug. 19. -Senator W. M. Stewart has sent the following letter in reply to that of Senator Thurs-

"You assume that you are not assailing Mr. Bryan when you are quoting what irresponsible newspapers say of him, and giving to such statements all the credit your high official position can confer. You belittle your understanding when you say that it is the duty of Mr. Bryan to enter into personal controversy with every hireing newspaper scribbler who is employed to slander or defame him. The people understand the animus of partisan newspapers, and make proper allowances for their assertions, but when you clothe their slanders in your official robes, it is a lame and cowardly defense on your part to protect ourself by skulking behind miserade newspaper scribblers. "If you have no case against Mr. Bryan, which you already virtually admitted by citing irrelevant, incompetent hearsay to prove your charge, your slanders will be harmless so far as he is concerned, but can you afford to be published to the world as a peddler of standers which you cannot prove? Not Employed by Silver Men.

UPPER RED HOOK, N. Y., Aug. 23.-W. J. Bryan last night gave out the following statement regarding the charge that he was in the employ of the silver mine owners:

"I have already denied this charge on several occasions, but the reiteration of it by Senator Thurston, a distinguished resident of my own state, justifies me in answering it again. I have never at any time, or under any circumstances, been in the employ of any mine owners, individually or collectively, directly or indirectly, nor have I ever been in the employ of, or paid, by any Bimetallic League asso-

"Aside from my editorial salary of about $150 per month paid by the Omaha World-Herald, and a small amount derived from the legal profession, my income since my retire-ment from Congress has been derived entirely from lectures before Chatauqua, lyceum and lecture bureaus, which have usually paid me a fixed sum, and from contributions made by the people of the localities where I have spoken. In some instances I have received nothing at all. In most cases I have received more than enough to pay traveling expenses. In only two instances, I think, has my compensation exceeded $100, and in these instances it was about $200 at one place and about $300 at the other.

'Having made this answer to Mr. Thurston's letter, I shall hereafter take no notice of individual or newspaper comment on the subject. Born in London in 1808, of a family which had been connected with the musical and literary world, Frederic Nicholis Crouch early evinced a deelded musical talent. This is taken to mean that it has been decided not to formally notify Bryan or Watson.

MR COCKRAN REPLIES.

The Tammany Orator Scores Mr. Bryan's

Speech. New York, Aug. 20. - The second notable demonstration in the political campaign in New York city was held last night under the auspices of the Democratic Honest Money League of America, in Madison Square garden, where Hon. W. Bourke Cockran addressed an ummense audience with a apeech entitled, "In Opposition to Repudiation."

Mr. Cockran had been selected to answer Candidate Bryan's speech because of his opposition to the Chicago platform, and because of the reputation as an orator which he had earned by his participation in the tariff de-bates of two congresses, and by his famous protest against the nomination of Mr. Cleveland, delivered at daybreak in the convention of four years

Eighteen thousand seats had been placed in the garden, and all of them were filled when Mr. Cockran advanced to the front of the platform and was greeted by a tremendous cheers, men climbing upon their chairs and waving little American flags which had been strewn through the hall. Three hearty cheers were given hall. Three hearty cheers were given for McKinley, and there were hisses when a gallery god yelled, "What's the matter with Bryan?"

Mr. Cockran arraigned the Chicago convention, the platform and Mr. Bryan's speech in unmeasured language. He declared that the Demoeratic party had been led into the Populist camp and that it was the duty of true Democrats to balk. He secred the income tax plank of the scored the income tax plank of the Chicago platform and called the supreme court criticism treason. Concluding he said:

"Stripped of all verbal disguise, it is an assue of common honesty, an and the dishonest repudiation of pub-He and private obligations.

"This is a conspiracy between professional farmers, who want to pay low wages, and the unreconciled slaveholder, who would like to pay no wages at all. Here is the real root of this conspiracy. Mr. Bryan did not create it. No man can create a movement like this. The forces that have created it are active and have been working in a thousand different directions. Mr. Bryan, representing this theory, is but like a drop of water on the crest of the wave, more conspicuous, but no more important than the millions of drops that forms its base. The Populistic movement is the attempt of these professional farmers, of these men who are unwilling to share with the laborer, to appeal to their greed. They are an enemy to public order; they are an obstacle to progress; they are conspirators against the peace and prosperity of the industrial masses sountry.
