NOTES OF DAY.

Three Irishmen represent Scottish constituencies in the house of commons.

It has been found that nearly all the rivers in west Africa, within 1,000 miles east and west of Ashantee, yield gold.

A doctor says that half the deafness prevalent at the present time is probably the result of children having their ears boxed.

Platinum wires have been drawn so fine that two of them twisted together could be inserted in the hollow of a human hair.

A carpet used in the room of the English mint, after being in wear some years, was recently burned in pans and yielded $2,500 worth of gold.

If any member of the imperial family lives out of Russia for more than one-fourth of the year, then his or her income is considerably reduced.

At the beginning of the century the population of London increased yearly 20 per cent. It increased only 10 per cent from 1811 to 1891, and now the increase is still less.

A remarkable success is claimed for the London Schools Swimming Association. During last year no fewer than 10,000 school children were taught to swim by its instructors.

The most curiously made soap in use is that supplied to the stations of the London and Northwestern Railway Company, which is made from the fat and grease washed out of their meat cloths.

At one of the university unions an orator declared that the British lion, whether it is roaming the deserts of India or climbing the forests of Canada will not draw in its horns or retire into its shell.

In a coroner's jury empaneled in London the other day there were 12 Smiths, one Jones and one Brown. To complete the cycle it is only necessary to mention that the deceased's name was Robinson.

It is a curious and bewildering circumstance that in a world and in an age where progress is one of the laws of existence the violin should be today as to form and all essential details exactly what it was some 300 years ago.

A museum in Berlin has secured possession of Luther's bible which he used in his study. Its margins are covered with notes in the reformer's handwriting. It was printed in Basle in 1509, and is in excellent state of preservation.

The Law Times of London calls attention to the fact that the privy council, of which the cabinet is merely a committee unknown to the law, has entirely ceased to hold meetings for the purpose of deliberation, and has become a body of merely ceremonial nature.

The annual value of timber imports into Great Britain and Ireland is nearly $90,000,000 sterling, besides a further $40,000,000 a year for "minor forest produce." In addition to these amounts, the import of wood pulp for the manufacture of paper represents an annual value of nearly $1,500,000.

Silk shirt waists, exact duplicates of the summer variety, will be worn until the snow flies.
