PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY.

Hemorrhage of the Stomach Came When He Seemed to Be Convalescent His Managerial Career and Recent Failure-Had Managed Pattl. Bernhardt, Irving, Coquelin, and Many Theaters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 .- Henry E. Abbey, of the great operatic and theatrical firm of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau, died early this morning in his rooms in the Osborne hotel from hemorrhage of the stomach. With him at the end were his daughter and Mrs. Kingsley, mother of Mr. Abbey's first wife. The present Mrs. Abbey, who recently brought suit for divorce, is said to be in Europe. Mr. Abbey had been heard of but little publicly since the publication of reorganization of his firm, which ment world a few months ago. Only his intimate f. iends knew where he was living, and they had no intimation of the seriousness of his condition. For death came as a complete surprise.

Henry E. Abbey was born in Akron, Ohio, in 1846 and was the successor of his father as a jeweler there. Then he became a jeweler at Buffalo, N. Y. In 1869 he managed a summer opera company at Akron. In 1870 he was Ned Adams' advance agent and a year later in conjunction with Adams leased the Akron, Ohio, opera house and failed for a large amount. In 1876 Abbey assumed control of the Academy of Music in Buffalo. He took as a partner John B. Schoeffel, whom he made manager. A year later they acquired possession of the Park theater in this city. On October 30, 1882, fire broke out in the theater and spoiled Mrs. Langtry's American debut. In 1883 he and Maurice Grau took the Metropolitan opera house here and lost $250,000. The firm of Abbey & Schoeffel then managed the Grand opera house in this city, Booth's theater, the Park and Tremont theaters in Boston; the Metropolitan opera house in this city, and the Lyecum theater in London. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau brought Patti, Bernhardt, Irving and Terry, Coquelin and Hading to this country and the history of the partnership is that of the most conspicuous part of the American stage during the last decade and a half. Each man, important by means of his special knowledge of his division of the business and by reason of his marked personality, com-bined in the firm a power for the control of theatrical affairs which has been seldom approached in this coun-They made the distinct reputafor themselves of being men whose words were their bonds, and it has been said within the last eight years that the firm merely had to cable any distinguished artist in Europe or America that their services were desired, and, if disengaged, the aid of the artist was theirs. The firm had the absolute confidence of singers and actors alike. They never went back on their promises. Toward the end of last May the firm, about whom financial difficulties had been collecting for some time, were compelled to assign. The oper atic ventures of the three since 1891 had given them great profits, but with two or three exceptions their dramatic undertakings were disastrous, not only swallowing up all the great gains of the opera seasons, but running the firm into such debt that they found themselves, as a firm and as individuals, practically stripped of every dollar that they owned.

Early in August papers in a suit for separation were served on Abbey by Florence E. Abbey, the allegations being cruelty and abandonment. Mrs. Abbey, who, in former years, was well known on the stage as Florence Gerard, was married to Abbey in Boston four years ago. In his answer Abbey alleged that his wife was insanely jealous and for years had subjected him to a degrading system of espionage through the agency of the servants. He said he had taken his daughter away because her mother was poisoning the child's mind against him. The litigation was pending when death cut it short.

This gave the officers a new start and it is known that they have struck the right trail.

BRYAN'S TOUR.

Puts Some Questions to a Michigan Editor Who Criticised Him.

Owosso, Mich., Oct. 19 .- When Mr. Bryan awoke this morning he said he was completely rested. He resumed his speech making at 8 o'clock at St.

At Ovid a three minute talk was made from the car platform, and the people gathered cheered repeatedly.

At Owosso Mr. Bryan spoke to a large andience from a stand a few blocks from the station. He had received a copy of a paper published there in which certain questions were asked. He referred to it as follows: "Ladies and Gentlemen: When I was at Owosso Junction a moment ago I received by special delivery a copy of the Owosso Press of October 14. From the fact that it bore no stamp except the spe-cial delivery stamp, I assume that it was sent by the editor himself. The paper contains some questions submitted to me. As this paper is not sup-porting me, I think I am justified in asking some questions myself, if I am expected to answer questions, and therefore I will ask if the editor of the Owosso Press is in the audience.'

An auditor replied: "He was here a moment ago.' Mr. Bryan asked: "Will you let me know where he is?"

'He has gone where his circulation is going," was the reply.

Mr. Bryan asked again: "If he will not make himself known, will someone point him out to me?"

"He has gone," was the answer.
"Well, if he is not here to hear the answers to his questions," Mr. Bryan went on, "I will wait until he attends meeting and then answer him. I am informed that the editor of the Owosso Press is standing in that wagon in the rear of the crowd and wears a blue Now, I will ask him a question. Did you indorse the financial plank presented by the minority at the Chicago convention?' I repeat the question. You have asked me questions: you ought to be willing to answer questions. Did you indorse the minority plank at Chicago?' Well, my friends, I have spent so much time trying to find the editor of this paper and to unmask a man who is seeking to elect a Republican by pretending to support the Indianapolis ticket that I find I have no time left to talk to you. I ask you to remember that the gold standard never fought an open fight. Those who sup-ported the minority plank at Chicago pretended to be afraid that free coinage would prevent international bimetallism, and when they got to Indianapolis they forgot all about international bimetallism and declared for the gold standard. Then they nominated a ticket which they did not intend to vote for because they were not willing to bear the odium of voting for the Republican ticket. I prophesy that the editor of the Press does not intend to vote for Palmer and Buckner. I prophesy that he intends to vote for the Republican candidate and that he is receiving money from the Republican committee to keep up a pretended fight for the Indianapolis ticket." A fifteen-minute stop was made at Durand, where Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform near the station. There was a good sized crowd of listeners and considerable enthusiasm.

Watson to be Placated.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.-A meeting of the Populist national committee was held at the Sherman house to-day to consider the question of fusion in Kansas an . Colorado, over which considerable friction has arisen. It is probable that action will be taken looking toward the displacement of some of the Democratic electors in the States named by Populist electors.

Senator Butler of North Carolina, chairman of the national committee, when asked if Mr. Watson would come out in a letter opposing the fusion arrangement in the West, stated that no such letter was expected. "We are pulling to defeat McKinley." said he, "and while there is some friction over the division of electors in several of the States, no action will be taken that will in the least compromise the chances of our ticket. This will be discussed to-day and I am sure will be adjusted amicably. You can state authoritatively that Mr. Watson will remain on the ticket. No thought of his resignation is entertained by us."

"What do you think of the political outlook?" "Bryan's chances are improving day. There has been a perceptible change in the last two weeks. One of the strongest factors in the Republican campaign until recently is now its greatest weakness and that is the prodigal use of money. There is a revolt among the workingmen especially against the apparent use of money by the Republicana It would have been far more effective if they had depended more on the live issues of the campaign. As it is now, the money that Mr. Hanna is using is the party's greatest weakness."

The meeting to-day was held behind closed doors, the committee going into executive session at 11:30 o'clock.

QASTLES UNDER BONDS.

Appen Evidence Against the Wealthy Californians.

LONDON, Oct. 13. - In the Marlborough street police court to-day, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Castle of San Francisco, who were arrested at the Hotel Cecil last Tuesday charged with stealing a quantity of furs, etc., from various dealers in this city, were arraigned on remand and, after a short hearing, were again remanded for a week, bail being allowed in the sum of $150,000.

James R. Roosevelt, secretary of the Uhited States embassy, and H. Hodson, one of the under secretaries of the embassy, were accommodated with seats on a specially reserved bench. Castle appeared. His wife, was led in by two policemen. She was stylishly dressed in dark brown with a blue cloth cape, the co lar of which was turned up so as to partially hide her face. She sobbed violently while in the dock and held her handkerchief to her face. When the first witness was called she became hysterical and her condition was such that the police allowed her and her husband to sit on a bench. Castle put his arm around his wife and did his utmost to calm

Mr. Avery, who prosecuted for the treasury, said that it was not a case of wealthy persons buying goods for which they did not intend to pay, but a regular case of shoplifting. called the attention of the magistrate to eighteen tortoise shell combs, seven hand mirrors, two sable boas, two muffs, two neckties, seven gold watches, nine clocks, seventeen valuable fans, sixteen brooches, seven tortoise shell eye-glasses, two plated toastracks marked "Hotel Cecil," and a large number of smaller articles of less value, such as trinkets, etc. which were plainly stolen. During the reading of this list Mrs. Castle appeared to be upon the point of losing consciousness. She frequently ejaculated, "Oh, dear! Oh, dear!"

Inspector Arrow of the Metropclitan police described in detail finding the effects alleged to have been stolen in six trunks and in the wardrobe of the Castles' room at the Hotel Cecil. The plated toastracks were found at the bottom of one of the trunks covered with clothing.

The prosecutor asked that the pris oners be remanded for a week, and Charles Mathews for the defense asked that the prisoners be released on bail. In the course of his remarks he said: "We can clearly prove that Mr. Castle is entirely innocent, and that he is a man of the very highest reputation. We do not contend that his wife is innocent. But at the same time we shall be able to prove by the testimony of physic:ans in court that she is suffering from a disorder which affects the mind."

After some formalities the magistrate granted the release of the prisoner on $150,000 bail. The following gentlemen were accepted as sureties: Mr. Seymour, managing director of the Anglo-California bank; Charles Guthrie of Guthrie & Co. bankers; Idol Lane; Lewis Weill, a watch manufacturer of Hatton Garden, and August Cohen, a diamond merchant of Holborn.

Mrs. Castle was removed to the jail sobbing violently and a doctor was called in to attend her.

Democratic Chairman's Figures Are: Mer Rinley, 81; Bryan, 279; Doubtful, 87.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee, gave out a statement last night characterizing as absurd the figures showing the probable result of the election as given out by Senator Quay. Chairman Jones states that in all the states classed by Senator Quay as doubtful a complete and harmonious fusion between the Democrats, Populists and silver Republicans exists, rendering them certain for Bryan. For the same reason, he classes as doubtful the states of Iowa, Ohio and Wisconsin, and claims for Bryan the electoral votes of Illinois, Indians, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and West Virginia, all of which were claimed for McKinley by Mr. Quay. The table given out by Chairman Jones gives 81 votes as certain for McKinley, 279 for Bryan, and 87 as doubtful.

She has never encouraged her clergy to be personal partisans, yet I would be a dumb guardian of my people should I hesitate to say that any member of the Episcopal church who supports the Chicago platform will do so in the teeth of the moral teachings of his thurch. I have never been a party man, and do not declare for any personal preference in this election, but do declare for patriotism, matual charity and confidence between the rich and poor, anti-sectionalism and bonest money."
