The last plank in the pontoon bridge which was brought down to Decatur from Sloux City was nailed on the railing last week.

The insanity commission of Otoe county has recommended that Alexan-der Tourtelotte be placed in the asylum at Lincoln.

William Bosserman of Grafton has harvested 125 bushels of onions from a quarter of an acre. They sell at 40 cents, or $300 per scre.

Vandalism was perpetrated in the grave yard near Chadron. Some mis-creant broke the ears from the marble lambs which adorn the graves of two children, thus paining the hearts of the parents and mutilating a nice piece of statuary.

The farm residence of Mate Placek, southwest of Wilbur, was burned last week with all its contents. Placek and his wife had gone out to attend their farm work, leaving two small children in the house. One, aged 16 months was burned to death, and the other, under 3 years, was saved, but is badly burned

While Wm. Campbell and his son-inlaw, who live north of Kearney, were driving down Central avenue in that city, the team became frightened and ran away. Both men were thrown out, and Campbell's left leg was brok-en near the hip. As he is nearly 70 years of age, the doctors say he will be a cripple for life.

The supreme court has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of John and James Ossey, two brothers who were sent to the pen for holding up a man at Falls City. The men have been out on bail pending a review of their case. The decision was re-versed on account of errors in the admission of evidence.

John Fager, the Lincoln man who was convicted of criminal assault upon his 15-year-old daughter, Hattie, will be apt to spend the remainder of his days behind the gloomy walls of the penitentiary. The supreme court affirmed the decision of the lower court where Fager was found guilty and sen-tenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. W. Q. Dickinson of Seward, who is visiting in McLean county, Illinois, writes that she attended a fair there, and that Hamilton county, Neb., had an exhibit in charge of two citizens of the county, of fruit, farm and garden products that exceeded anything Mc-Lean county had on exhibition. The people there were surprised to see what could be produced in Nebraska.

William Brown, one of the early settlers in Dawson county, was killed by a mad bull on his farm near Amburst. He went into the pasture to take out some of his cattle, when the animal at-tacked him, knocked him down and evidently trampled him to death, as the bull had no horns and the unfortunate man had a great gash in his head and sustained numerous other bruises about the body

There has been a very novel election wager placed between Sam Gra-ham of Scotia, republican, and T. J. Mahoney of Greeley, populist. In the event of McKinley's election Mahoney is to come to Scotia and eat a crow in the dining room of the hotel, publicly; and in the event of Bryan's election, Graham is to go to Greeley and eat erow. A $5 forfeit has been placed and the men are in earnest.

Freight men report business as not only better thad it has been for some time, but improving daily. The shipments of grain continue to be heavy and the farmers are making earnest efforts to clear their bins of last year's corn. Most of the grain that is going east is this season's wheat and last season's corn, principally the latter. The farmers are badly in need of bin room to accommodate this year's crop.

A party from Verdigre returned from a hunting trip through Holt county, and report having encountered a rattlesnake den near Paddock, of unusual proportions They slaughtered 82, 70 of which were rattle snakes and 12 blue racers. The den is located in the broken ground of the bluffs adjacent to the Niobrara river, and old settlers say the snakes gather there for miles around to take up winter quar-

G. W. Buchanan of Alexandria lost a fine driving horse lately and thought he had either strayed away or been stolen. He had the police and half the town out hunting for it, but no horse showed up. Finally he went out to the cob house to get some fuel and found the horse in there. The only door was 3x5 feet and the horse would not come out of it, so a side of the building had to be torn down to release the beast.

It is reported that the Burlington & Missouri River railroad is negotiating for the purchase of the Cheyenne & Northern, which at present connects with the Elkhorn road, the Burlington's great rival. This would, of course, cut off the Elkhorn's western connections, so to protect itself it is said the Elkhorn will begin at once the extension of its Casper line to Ogden. Mesars. Hall and Ainsworth, civil engineers of the Elkhorn, were last week looking over the ground, and will neither affirm nor deny the report.

Those farmers of Adams county who raised sugar beets this year are now harvesting their crop and shipping to the factory at Grand Island. While the beets did not grow so large as last year, they are of much better quality and will give a better return than any other of this year's crops.

Nat Smithwick, an employe at the Taylor sheep ranches, Grand Island, was brought to St. Francis hospital with a badly cut throat and very weak from loss of blood. His injury was the result of a wholesale scrimmage which took place at a ball held in the village of Cairo. The wound is not necessarily fatal

The onion which took first premium at the North Platte irrigation fair, was a monster, weighing 28 ounces. It was raised by J. F. Granson at Lodge Pole. The yield of the variety which took the premium was at the rate of 1,660 bush-als per acre.

A large crate, containing two mag-nificent specimens of American engles, was received last week at Lincoln by express, addressed to W. J. Bryan. The eagles came from Telluride, Colo., and a letter accompaning them explained that they were the gift of the business men of that city. With the two eagles recently received from Idaho, Mr. Bryan has now awaiting him when he arrives home, four of the kings of the feathered tribes.

Robert Payne, receiver of the old Kearney National bank, has issued a notice stating that a dividend of 10 per cent on the proved claims against the bank has been declared by the comp-troller of the currency, payable Mon-day, October 26, to the claimant in person, on presentation of his receiver's certificate. This is the first dividend the receiver has declared, and it is expected now that the depositors will receive at least 50 per cent of their Government marshals, aided by de-tectives of the Union Pacific railway and of the Pacific Express company, are said to be on a hot trail of the robbers who successfully held up the U. P. fast mail at Uintah, Utah, last week. A man was arrested at Spokane, Wash., on Tuesday night with upwards of $200 worth of postage stamps in his posses-sion. It is believed that he is connected with the Uintah affair and that he knows of the whereabouts of more valuable matter and its possessors.

Fred Stabler, aged 24, a U. P. brakeman, was shot and killed while at work at Cheyenne, by Lewis S. Tremmel, a fellow workman. Tremmel is a tramp brakeman who had worked but a week. Stabler, with whom he worked, had complained that he was incompetent and he was transferred to another crew. He threatened to shoot Stabler, but no importance was attached to the threat. However, he carried into effect his threat, his victim dying a few minutes after being shot.

An Alma dispatch says: Much grain is being brought to the markets each day, and the farmers are beginning to settle down to work instead of coming to town to talk politics. They are beginning to realize that the only way to make money, whether it be free sil-ver or any other kind, is to get out and rustle. Too many farmers in this section have talked politics instead of plowing corn. If they live here long enough they will find that they must work as other men do in order to suc-

The biggest fair ever held in Western Nebraska closed its gates for the season at North Platte last week. Although the attendance was large, the expenses for the first season have been very heavy, and the management will be some behind in the finances when all accounts are settled. As an exhibition the fair has been a grand success. Every one pronounced the dis-plays in the different departments as first class. The agricultural, horticul tural and fish exhibits were exceptionally fine.

Henry Vanderhoof and Frank Slonecker returned Saturday from Bushnell, Ill., says the Seward Blade, were they attended the district fair, with an exhibit from Seward county. Mr. V. informs us that the exhibit they had from this county attracted a great deal of attention. Five other counties from this state had exhibits there, but Seward county eclipsed them all. The exhibits of farm and garden products from this state exceeded those from that part of Illinois, both in quantity and excellence.

A shooting affray in which Clarence Tingley lost his life, occurred on Elm Island, a few miles from Shelton. Tingley and a farm hand in the employ of John Hutchinson had some trouble over a wager. They met on the road and engaged in an altercation. Tingley got out of his wagon and invited the other to combat, which invitation was accepted. At this juncture Hutchinson interfered, and as Tingley advanced toward him in a threatening manner, shot him in the right side. Tingley expired in a few moments.

C. R. Evans, traveling salesman for Haight & Co., Omaha grocers, and H. C. Templar, one of the members of the firm, have begun suitagainst a number of Sweet Springs, Mo., merchants for $10,000 each, for false imprisonment. The suits grew out of the arrest of the two men on December 20 of last year. They were canvassing for the firm in Missouri, taking orders directly from the farmers and others. This aroused the ire of local merchants, who maintained that the firm was violating the state law by failing to take out a license.

A reception was tendered Dr. Mann of Brooklyn, N. Y., right worthy grand templar, at Lincoln, by lodge No. 35, which was largely attended by visiting officials of the grand lodge of the or der, at that time in session in Lincoln, and by nearly all Good Templars in the city. Dr. Mann made an address, in the course of which he related his investigations of gilded saloons in New York, where apparently respectable women drink Manhattan cocktails from china tea cups to disguise the nature of their tipple and declare that Nebraska is furnishing some of her most beautiful young girls to act as waiters and stool pigeons in these

August Hult, one of the oldest settlers of Polk county, died last week. He accidentally hurt his hand while at work the other day and lockjaw set in. Omaha and Lincoln as well as home doctors were sent for but they could

BENSON'S LAST WORK.

The British Primate Was Engaged in Answering the Pope When Death Came.

LONDON, Oct. 26 .- The last work which the late Bishop of Canterbury was engaged upon was the preparation of an answer to the bull of Pope Leo XIII on the Anglican orders. In this Dr. Benson said: "The positiveness of the assertion may still have effect with some who mistook the kindliness of a personage for the thawing of frozen church policy to which he is commit-

The late primate denied the pope's contention and asserted that Rome had not an accurate knowledge of England concerning the Anglican orders, and declared that the bull "moves all English church men not to be decided by a pretension to unity and by assertions which have historically created the widest and deepest separations; but to draw closer together in faith, in firmness and in forbearance.

Gossip still selects the bishop of Winchester (the Right Rev. Dr. Anthony Wilson Thorold) as Dr. Benson's successor. Dr. Thorold was born in 1829 and educated at Oxford. He was rector of St. Gile-in-the-fields from 1857 to 1868, vicar of St. Pancras from 1869 to 1877 and canon of York in 1871; was consecrated bishop of Rochester in 1879 and was transferred to Winchester in 1890. He is prelate of the Order of the Garter and patron of 117 livings.

Atkinson for Senator.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 26.—Governor W. Y. Atkinson, who has just been reelected chief executive of Georgia for a term of two years, is prominently mentioned as successor to the Senatorial seat which would have been Mr. Crisp's had he survived. Should he enter and be elected, there would probably be a contest for the governor-ship between Hon. Robert L. Berner and Hon. A. S. Clay, chairman of the State Democratic executive committee. Governor Atkinson's choice as senator would render necessary a special election for governor.

W. K. Miller Passes Away.

CANTON, Ohio, Oct. 26 .- W. K. Miller, an old friend of Major McKinley, died last night from a stroke of apoplexy. He was the Republican nominee for Presidential elector in this district, but Wednesday before he lost consciousness he resigned. The congressional committee named his son, Charles R. Miller, for elector from this district. Major McKinley called at the Miller residence to pay his respects to the family shortly after the end came.

Gag Law Enforced in Havana. HAVANA, Oct. 26 .- The police have searched the editorial rooms of the Discussion and the houses of the editors on account of an editorial asking the intervention of the American republics to put an end to the rebellion. The office was seized, the arrest of the editor was ordered and the publication of the paper was suspended awaiting the result of a process.

A British Ship Abandoned at Sea. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26. - The big British freight steamer Linlithgow is a derelict. The captain and twelve of the crew have arrived at San Jose de Guatamala, and thirteen of the crew are still in an open boat in mid-ocean. Five of the crew reached Acapulco August 31, after sailing 800 miles in an open boat and suffering great hard-ships, and reported that the steamer had broken her shaft and was drifting helplessly.

WANT PERRY REMOVED. POLITICS IN COURT | S. F. NORTON FOR BRYAN.

Charges Preferred Against the Eansas District Attorney.

TOPERA, Kan., Oct. 26,-Edwin E. Wilson, a Kansas City attorney, who is speaking for free silver in Kansas, sent the following telegram yesterday to Attorney General Harmon:

"TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 23.-The present United States district attorney for Kansas, W. C. Perry, fully meets the definition of an offensive partisan as laid down by the present chief executive of the government. He is giving his entire time to making political speeches. If Mr. Perry is drawing a salary as an employe of the United States he should not be permitted to violate civil service rules by being con-tinuously engaged in other than his regular duties as prescribed by statute, to the detriment and prostitution of the public service. As prompt and per-emptory action should be taken in this case as has been exercised in the case of other governmental employes who are supporting Mr. Bryan. Please answer.-Edwin E. Wilson." Eugene Hagan, State chairman of the national Democratic party, refer-ring to the telegram, said: "I have no doubt that Mr. Perry fully understands himself in this campaign. My knowledge of him is that he is a stickler in the observance of the civil service rules. He has a right to take part in the politics of his own State without advising the Department of Justice about it. You will find that his speeches in the campaign will be dignified and logical, and that he will not stoop to trickery in his conduct. He may have consulted Attorney General Harmon for all I know, and Mr. Harmon may or may not have given his consent. But I will say this much: Perry is acting upon personal conviction and he will go ahead and make these speeches, even if he loses his position. The free silver Democrats are not consistent. There they are jumping Perry for making half a dozen speeches, forget-ting that dozens of federal office holders of the free silver faith have been so active in this campaign as to be offens-

ALTGELD AND HILL.

Tammany Indorses the Illinois Governor and Rejects Its Old Leader. New York, Oct. 26.-Tammany hall has this year been unfortunate in its choice of dates on which to hold its large mass meetings. Rain fell in torrents when the braves turned out to hear Wilbur F. Porter, the candidate for Governor; Frederick C. Scraub, the candidate for Lieutenant Governor; John J. O'Neill of St. Louis and C. M. Heyer Zulich of New Jersey. Never-theless, there was a crowd which filled the hall. Erastus S. Ransom presided. John B. Goldrick read a set of resolutions offered by John C. Sheehan, reiterating the pledges of Tammany hall to Bryan and Sewall, and urging the members to redouble their efforts to carry the state and declaring the masterful exposition of the national Democratic platform pronounced by that "able and fearless leader of western Democracy, the Hon. John P. Altgeld, governor of Illinois, has had the effect of making it clear to all intelligent and impartial citizens that the Democratio party was the ark of the covenant of constitutional government." The speeches were all for free silver and denouncing trusts.

The names of Hill and Whitney were both loudly hissed. Resolutions on the death of ex-Speaker Crisp were read and passed unanimously.

APPEAL TO POPULISTS.

All Members Urged to Support Bryan-

Vice Presidential Dilemma. WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.-The Populist national committee, through its chair man, Senator Butler, has issued an address to the members of the party urging them to royally support Bryan and to follow his banner wherever he

The addres is highly eulogistic of Bryan as the people's champion and warmly commends Watson. It urges the People's party not to be discouraged by the fact that there are two candidates for vice president in the field marching under Bryan's banner. It says there will be two months between the election and the casting of the votes by the electors and that there is surely wisdom enough in the two parties which support Bryan to adjust that complication satisfactorily to all. The address says People's party brethren need have no fear that the campaign will destroy the People's party; that its principles are right and therefore immortal. It says that if the Democracy lives up to its pledge, the alliance will be continued, but if it does not three-fourths of its people will march off under the standards of the Populist party, which still has a tremendous mission to perform. A fervent appeal not to miss this opportunity to succor the oppressed concludes.

Killed Over Politics.

Accused of Murder.

DEXTER, Me., Oct. 26 .- Bob Rice, farmer living near here, was arrested to-day, charged with the murder Charle Smithson. Smithson died at Rice's home three weeks ago and was buried by Rice and a neighber. Suspicions were aroused, and the body was exhumed two weeks later and a post-mortem ex-amination held, and the warrant under which Rice was arrested was sworn out by Ceroner James Sitton, based on evi-dence produced at the post-mortem. Rice was ledged in tall in Bloomfield.

THE WATSON CASE HEARD JUDICIALLY.

The Attorneys' Arguments on Both Sides -A Suggestion of Delay in Behalf of the Opposition Not Entertained-Clemens, Godard and Judge Horton Oppose

Watson's Case in Court.

TOPERA, Kan., Oct. 22.-The application of Populist State Chairman John W. Breidenthal for a writ of mandamus to compel Secretary of State Edwards to place the name of Thomas B. Watson on the official ballot as the candidate of the People's party for Vice President was heard before the Supreme court this forenoon. The argument began at 9 o'clock and lasted until nearly noon. Breidenthal was represented by G. C. Clemens and Secretary of State Edwards by Assistant Attorney General Goddard and ex-Chief Justice Albert H. Horton.

Secretary Edwards filed an answer to Breidenthal's petition, setting out that he had decided not to put Wat-son's name on the official ballot as the candidate of the People's party for reasons as follows: First, he had been advised Saturday, October 17, by affi-davit filed by Abe Steinberger, that Watson wanted his name withdrawn from the Abilene ticket; second, on Monday, October 19, he had received Watson's affidavit of withdrawal; third, the two sets of electors are identical and all are democrats, and they would not vote for Watson; fourth, the supreme court has no authority to interfere in the matter.

After the papers in the case had been read, Mr. Godard asked for more time for preparation. He said Mr. Edwards had not been served with notice of the case until Monday afternoon, and the one day that had elapsed since had not been sufficient time for proper preparation. There were some questions of fact in Mr. Edward's answer which would require time to prove, unless the other side should admit them to be true. He suggested that the hearing be postponed until the next regular session of the court, that is to say until the day before the election.

After an informal discussion of the status of the case, Mr. Clemens proceeded with his argument, going ex-haustively into the case. He claimed that Mr. Edwards had no right to act on Steinberger's affidavit October 17, and that on the 19th, when Watson's affidavit finally arrived, it was, under the terms of the law, too late to make any more changes or alterations of any ticket on the ballot. He also claimed that the affidavit sent by Watson had not been properly verified, it not hav-ing, in addition to the jurat of the verifying officers, the great seal of the State of Georgia. He also referred to the fusion compact by the terms of which Watson or Sewall was to get the Kansas electors according to the relative number of electoral votes the two candidates might have in the electoral college without Kansas. He said this compact was a complete refutation of Edwards' allegation that the Abilene ticket was intended to mislead

Judge Horton said that if the facts alleged in Mr. Edwards' answer were not admitted, time should be given to not admitted, time should be given to the automatic binding mechanism. him to furnish evidence on the subject. His machine has been successfully He said it was generally known that at least one of the fusion electors, Morris Gliggett. would never vote for Watson. Even Watson alleged that the Abilene ticket was a fraud. He had been in Kansas for the purpose of investigating the matter, and he had since declared in his speeches that the Abilene ticket was made for the purpose of deceiving voters. More re-cently he had verified his statements by an affidavit, and that affidavit was now in this court. Watson was unwilling to permit the use of his name to impose a fraud upon the people.

Mr. Clemens replied briefly and the sourt took up a couple of local cases which seek to compel County Clerk Mo-Cabe to put the names of Holliday and Keith on the official ballot as legislature candidates. This argument concluded, the court adjourned for dinner.

CALDWELL ON COERCION.

The United States Circuit Judge Declares Himself.

St. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 22 .- Judge Caldwell of the United States circuit court, defining the relations of receivers of railways to the employes,

"It will not be necessary for employes of corporations under federal receiverships over which I have any control to vote for McKinley or Bryan or any other candidate for a political office in order to hold their places. "I would order an investigation of a complaint that an employe of the court had been discharged for political ressons; and if the complaint, upon investigation, appeared well founded, I would at once order the dismissal of every receiver, general manager or other officer or employe of the court having anything to do with discharging or threatening to discharge employes for political reasons.'

DEFAULTER KILLS HIMSELF W. T. Rambusch, the Juneau, Wis.,

Banker, Dead in Virginia JUNEAU, Wis., Oct. 22,-A dispatch was received here last night from the coroner of Fredericksburg, Va., stating that W. T. Rambusch, the absconding banker of this city, had committed suicide there. He disappeared on October 10, and forgeries amounting to between $300,000 and $500,000 are charged to him.

ILLINOIS DAY AT CANTON.

Special Trains From All Parts of the State Carry Hosts to See McKinley.

CANTON, Ohio, Oct. 22. - Ideal weather prevailed for Illinois day with Major McKinley. The visitors came from all parts of the state and over all the railroads and at noon not nearly all of the trains announced for the day had arrived. The first to arrive was a party from Pike county, whose car was a part of a regular Pennsylvania train. A special train of seven coaches fol-lowed, bringing a delegation from Paris and violeity.

The Middle-of-the Road Lender Urger Populists to Vote Unitedly.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 32 .- Senator Butler to-day received a letter from S. F. Norton of Illinois, the favorite candidate of the middle-of-the-road Populists for the Presidential nomination at the St. Louis convention, announcing his support of Mr. Bryan and ad vising Populists everywhere to as sist in Mr. Bryan's election. He advises Populists to forgive for the time any unjust treatment from the Democrats and postpone the settlement of minor differences until after the election. "If," he says, "success is assured, the Populist party camnot be denied the glory of the victory, whether Bryan is a Populist or not, One thing absolutely certain is that every enemy reformers have encountered during the last twenty years we find to-day among Mr. Bryan's bitterest and most relentless opponents. If they are his enemies he must be our friend. His success is their defeat; their defeat is our victory.

"Although some of us may regret certain fusion arrangements that have been made, it is a notable fact that ne other man in the United States is ac much troubled by them as the manager much troubled by them as the manager of the Republican campaign. I never realized before how highly Republicans have honored and respected the Populist party till it fused with the Democrats. If any consolation is needed, however, for the loss of Republican esteem, it may be found in the fact that Messrs. Cleveland, Carliale and Palmer have become legatees thereof.

BURY PEOPLE ALIVE.

Fresh Atrocities Perpetrated by Order of the Sultan.

London, Oct. 22.-A Berlin dispatch to the Daily News says: The St. Petersburg Viedomosti gives details of the Van massacre, secured from fugitives who have arrived at Elchmiadzin. They declare no Armenians are left in the Van district

The Kurds, declaring they were executing the sultan's will, mercilessly butchered the men, kidnaped the prettiest women and girls, and threw the children into the pits intended for storing corn and buried them alive in order to save ammunition. The vic-tims were arranged in rows and killed, two and three at a single shot. The details of the outrages on the priests and temples and the sacred books and vessels are indescribably revolting.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 28 .- In accordance with the suggestions of Mr. Bryan and Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee, Governor McIntire to-day issued a proclamation calling upon all good citizens, irrespective of political affiliations, to display the national flag October 31. Regarding Chairman flauna's original suggestion of a flag day, he says: "It is my opinion that the attempt of Mr. Hanns to debase the national colors of the United States is unpatriotic and impertinent and should be resented by all good
