NEW GOODS at the Millinery Store.

The finest display of all kinds of Holiday Goods at Bean's Drug Store.

Attorney Tuttle made a trip to Alliance Wednesday.

W. T. Caldwell, Alliance's excellent photographer, has a new ad in this issue. Read it.

Mrs. Bean is enjoying a visit from her little niece, Miss Francis Langson, of Milwaukee.

Albert Nelson and Matilda Cornell were married by Judge Hewett Saturday.

The finest display of Christmas goods ever brought to Hemingford—at Bean's drug store.

Mrs. M. J. Baumgardner, of Box Butte was a Hemingford visitor Saturday.

Attorney Iodence now has his office in the old Smith building.

John Dillon's play "Wanted the earth," at Alliance Friday night, is reported first-class. Those from here who attended were, Mesdames Bean, Gilman, Rustin, Miss Neeland; Messrs. Bean, Gilman, Tash, Copeland, H. F. Goodenough, Reynolds, Sheldon.

See the elegant line of Holiday goods at Bean's drug store, and they're so cheap too.

Johnny Eisler purchased Mr. Sherwood's interest in the meat market and dray line Tuesday. Henceforth the firm name will be Bushnell & Eisler.

E. C. Sheldon departed for Pennsylvania last week to look after his father's estate.

Messrs. Evan O. Jones, W. O'Mara and Mrs. Gilbert were among the Box Butte precinct people who transacted business at the county capitol Tuesday.

Miss Neeland spent the fore part of the week at Chadron.

Say, young man, don't you think you ought to buy your girl a Xmas present—Bean has 'em.

Mrs. E. W. Alexander visited friends in town a couple of days this week.

Miss Jessie Sweeney and Master Freddie were numbered with the sick the first of the week.

P. H. Kensvold brought a load of brooms to town Monday. The brooms manufactured by Mr. Kensvold's firm are equal to the best and our citizens should patronize home industry.

Christmas comes but once a year—make the children happy with some of those pretty toys at Bean's—they're very cheap.

Miss Maude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Huot, of Spring Hill, Mont., died last Sunday and Birdie, their youngest child, is not expected to live. Mr. and Mrs. Huot are certainly having more than their share of trouble. They have the sympathy of their many Hemingford friends in their bereavement.

Mrs. Akin and son Roger, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton for several weeks, departed for their home at Waterloo, Iowa, Wednesday.

There are a few in every community who have not yet discovered that they are the loser by sending to Montgomery Ward & Co., Sears, Roebuck & Co., and other eastern firms for merchandise. They may see "flowery" quotations in catalogues and think they are getting bargains but if they would take into consideration the fact that almost invariably they receive shoddy, shelf worn goods, it would soon be a case of "self cure." You can buy a superior quality of goods and for less money of your home merchant every time.

ELEGANT LINE OF NEW CLOAKS AND NEWMARKETS, CHEAP AT

C. A. BURLEW'S.

A. M. Clark and Miss Lucy Smith were united in marriage by Rev. James Sheppard at the Baptist parsonage last Monday. Both the contracting parties are well known in Dawes county and more particularly in educational circles, the groom being county superintendent of schools and the bride an instructor of exceptional ability. Chadron—Journal.

The meeting of the Northwest Nebraska Teachers' Association held in this city was a very interesting session, and greatly enjoyed by the large number of educators who were present from Dawes and surrounding counties.

At the business meeting Prin. John N. Bennett, of Chadron, was elected president; Prin. C. F. Leetham, Crawford, vice-president; Miss Anna Neeland, Hemingford, secretary; Prin. Frank Disney, Rushville, treasurer.—Crawford Gazette.

The executive committee have decided to postpone the meeting of the Box Butte County Theaters association, which was to be held in Alliance December 12, 1896, until the last Saturday in January, 1897.

Death of a Faithful Old Horse, at the Age of Thirty Years.

On the 30th ult., faithful old Mike the family horse belonging to John W. Broshar died of old age. Old Mike was a very intelligent horse, possessing more than average horse sense.

For several years he has been a privileged character, exempt from work on the farm and his name did not appear on the assessor's book for taxes. Mike seemed to realize his greatness and also to appreciate his freedom as he roamed unmolested through the neighborhood. Mike was a neighborly horse; he would call on a neighbor at any hour of the night and in a very familiar way rub up against the door, window or side of the house.

When Mike introduced this fashionable method of calling on the neighbors at first some were a little alarmed thinking it might be foot-pads till discovery proved it was only good old Mike, so the alarmed wife and children when disturbed in their slumber by the rub, rub, or tramp, tramp, would be quieted by the husband and father saying gently "Oh that is John Broshar's old Mike making an evening call." We shall miss his gentle rub-rub at our door or window and his steady but firm tramp about the house.

Mrs. Bush gave a Thanksgiving dinner in honor of her son Mr. Andy Leavitt, who returned from Spearfish to remain during the winter and now intends to farm his mother's place should the prospects for a crop appear favorable next spring. Andy is a very enterprising young man, full of life and energy. The dinner was a success, as Mrs. Bush is an experienced hand in the art of entertaining. There were a large number of friends and neighbors present, all appeared happy and much pleased with the entertainment of the host and the many thrilling stories that Andy had prepared of army life. Andy advanced several new theories as to how Box Butte county might be successfully irrigated and his hearers were so favorably impressed with Andy's ideas that they agreed to give them due consideration during the long winter evenings and will report on Christmas eve as to what parts of his theories they considered practical for the irrigation of Box Butte county. A New Year—A New Deal.

Another year is rolling by,
But our mill keeps rolling on,
Our brands of flour for quality,
You may depend upon.
We do no credit business,
But a good exchange we make,
We'll give you 34 lbs. of flour and bran,
For a bushel of your wheat.
Farmers, we would be pleased to have
Of your patronage a share,
And you'll find in dealing with you,
We'll treat you fair and square.

Box Butte Items.

The ladies of Box Butte will give a supper Friday evening and an interesting program is being prepared. Everyone is invited to attend.

School commenced in the Libby district last Monday with Miss Carrie Bissell as teacher.
Mr. Hicks and Mrs. Trobridge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Sunday.

Mr. Connell preached here last Sunday to a well filled house.
Geo. Lee's school closed last Friday.
Mrs. Loomis has been very sick for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks, Hughes and Blair were Alliance visitors Saturday.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a fair next Friday afternoon and evening Dec. 17th at the church. Everyone come and buy a Christmas present for friends. You can find articles both useful and ornamental more beautiful and cheaper than you can make them. Come and see the display. Refreshments will be served from 2 o'clock to 10 p. m.

Photographic Views.

Photographer W. T. Caldwell of Alliance has made arrangements with Mr. W. T. Andrews, a photographer having years of experience, who will take views of the country within a radius of fifty miles in all directions from Alliance for the next few months.

He is equipped with a first-class outfit and all the work will be furnished at the popular Caldwell Studio, and will be furnished the same as the best grade of portrait work. Parties wanting work of this kind done, by dropping a card to either of the above parties at Alliance will be notified when Mr. Andrews is expected to be in this vicinity.

We have a new Kimball organ for sale at a bargain.

CURE CONSUMPTION.

T. A. Slocum, M. C., the Great Chemist and Scientist, Offers to Send Free, to the Afflicted, Three Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy in its wake than the offer of T. A. Slocum, M. C., of 183 Pearl street, New York City.

Confident that he has discovered an absolute cure for consumption and all pulmonary complaints, and to make its great merits known, he will send, free, three bottles (the Slocum new system of medicine) to any reader of the Herald who is suffering from chest, throat and lung troubles or consumption.

He invites those desirous of obtaining the remedies to simply send him their express and postoffice address, and receive in return the three free bottles.

Already this "new scientific course of medicine" has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

He considers it his religious duty—a duty which he owes to humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

Offered freely, apart from its adherent strength, is enough to commend it, and more so is the perfect confidence of the great chemist making the offer.

He has proved consumption to be a curable disease beyond any doubt. There will be no mistake in sending—the mistake will be in overlooking the Doctor's generous invitation. He has on file in his American and European laboratories thousands of testimonials of experience from those cured, in all parts of the world.

Delays are dangerous; mail your address to T. A. Slocum, M. C., 183 Pearl street, New York, and when writing the Doctor, please mention reading this article in THE HERALD.
