DOCTORS EMPTY WHAL-LEN'S STOMACH.

OPERATION IS A SUCCESS.

An Inventory of Its Contents-Nalls, Knives, Glass and Tacks by the Handful-The Barlow Knife That Worried Him-His Recovery Almost Certain Has Few Parallels

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 14 .- Dr. E. Von Quast of the city health department has a two-bladed pocket-knife with an ebony and brass mounted property of the city marshal of Pilot one week ago to-day by Harry Whallen, otherwise the "human ostrich," the council, while giving a street performance of . The conclusion of the letter was as gastronomical feats in that place. Dr. E. Von Quast, assisted by a numstomach open at the German hospital this morning and took therefrom over among them being the marshal's big Barlow knife.

This is an actual and complete inventory of the hardware, glassware stomach:

WHAT HE HAD IN HIM.

- 1 4-bladed knife, 35 inches long. 1 2-bladed Barlow knife, 4 inches long.
- 1 knife blade, 314 inches long. 1 knife blade, 3 inches long. 2 knife blades, 2 inches long.
- 1 knife blade, 1 inch long. 32 large eight and ten-penny fence nails and spikes.
- 34 six-penny wire nails, sharp pointed.
- 26 shingle nails, ! inch long.
- 16 carpet tacks and small wire nails. 1 horseshoe nail.
- 3 large screws.
- I barbed wire staple.

3 ounces fine glass.

The astonishing fact is that Whallen carried this remarkable collection of junk in his stomach a week and is still alive. The case is the most remarkable of its kind that has ever come to the attention of doctors and surgeons in Kansas City. and it has few paralells in the history of surgery.

CAUSE OF HIS TROUBLE.

Not long ago Whallen was stranded in St. Louis. He began to work his way to Kansas City by giving street performances in small towns . I pon the breaking up of the church. these occasions he would swallow nails, knives and tacks and any incredulous individual in the audience who cared to risk his pocket knife for swallowing ability was generally accommodated.

The pocket knife feat caused Whalwent to the city dispensary and told hardware and cutlery in his stomach. They refused to believe his story, but upon examining him found that some hard substance had lodged there. Whallen insisted that he was telling the truth and it was determined to apply the X rays.

This was done by Dr. J. N. Scott in the presence of several doctors and newspaper reporters. X ray protographs of Whallen's stomach were taken with the powerful Crooke's tube machine.

WHAT X RAYS SHOWED.

These photographs showed the bone frame work of the man's body and a dark spot almost as large as a man's hand showed the exact location of the effor: was made to look through Whallen's body with the X rays and the fluoroscope. His ribs and vertebracould be easily discerned, his heart outlined, but the rays were not powerful enough to define what the object really was. It was found that the metal was lodged in the large sack which is technically called the stomach. Whallen's sufferings became intense as the incongruous substances remained in his stomach, and he determined to have an operation performed. As his calling would indicate, the "human ostrich" is a man of nerve. He said he did not fear the operation. At the conclusion of the operation Whallen was weak and of course unconscious, but the surgeons said his condition was good and that his chance of recovery was excellent.

EPISCOPALIANS SPLIT.

Serious Rupture Over the Question of the Color of Gowns.

NEW YORK, June 14 .- At yesterday's session of the general council of the Reformed Episcopal church, the substitute motion of Bishop Campbell, permitting any Presbyter to use either black or white surplice, and, in the case of a bishop, a rochet, in place of Dr. Asher's motion, which allows only those now using the white surplice to continue to do so, was taken up, and a lengthy discussion ensued.

At the afternoon session the vestment question was taken up again, and after a long debate the council proceeded to vote on the original motion to make the black gown the vestment to be used on all occasions, except by those who are now using the surplice. It was voted on "by orders," and the result was a victory for the black gown by 20 to 45 among the clergy and 31 to 12 among the laymen.

The joint vote was 57 to 27. Bishop Cheney of the synod of Chicago then announced that he would handle which, it is asserted, is the himself read a letter which ordinarily should be read by the secretary, but Grove, Mo. "I cannot with good conscience hold any office in the gift of the council which I am convinced has 'laid the ax and cutlery taken from Whallen's at the root' of all Christian liberty in this church.

"I, therefore, most sadly, but positively, resign my position as a member of the special church extension trust, as trustee of the Theological seminary, as member of the committee on doctrine and worship and any other place which I may hold by the authority of the general council."

Bishop latans, with an expression of regret at Bishop Cheney's action, had hardly secured the acceptance of the resignation by the council when Mr. C. M. Morton of Philadelphia announced to the council that Miss Harriet S. Benson had delegated him and William Tracey to state that on account of the action of the council in regard to the vestments she would withdraw, until further notice, the income from her contribution to the special church extension trust and the special synod trust. ### SMITH IS DYNAMITED.

HIS HOME BLOWN UP AND HIS WIFE INJURED.

A Dastardly Attempt to Assassinate the Leavenworth Soldiers' Home Governor - A Dishonorably Discharged Veteran Under Arrest for the Outrage.

A Dastardly Outrage.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 12. - Between and 5 o'clock this morning a cannon-like report was heard at the Soldiers' home, and the beautiful residence of Governor Andrew J. Smith, commandant of the home, was all but demolished.

Dynamite was employed in the outrage and the explosion aroused many residents of this city and houses trembled as if in an earthquake shock. In the barracks the shock was terrific enough to throw veterans from their cots, and prompt work was required on the part of the commandant to prevent a serious panic. One veteran, who was occupying a seat on the lawn, was thrown to the ground:

Mrs. Smith's escape from instant death was miraculous, the explosion was directly beneath her bed chamber. She usually sleeps upon a couch, but last night occupied a bed in the same room, but on the side farthest from the outer wall. She heard the shutters rattle, but saw no one. A moment later the explosion followed, and she found herself in the midst of flying furniture and shattered window panes. One entire side of her room was torn away. The couch she usually occupied caught the full force of the explosion and was hurled across the room, passing directly over her bed and landing upon a bureau.

Governor Smith and daughter, Miss Daisy Smith, occupied rooms on the second floor, and were far enough removed from the seat of the explosion to escape the serious consequences suffered by Mrs. Smith.

Besides being cut and bruised by broken glass and pieces of flying furniture, Mrs. Smith was completely prostrated by the shock and is now in a precarious condition. Mrs. Smith has been in delicate health for years. The scene at the governor's residence is one of wreckage and confusion. The brick walls are shattered and torn, the east side being almost wholly blown out, the windows broken and debris is scattered over the ground.

The whole interior was wrecked, bric-a-brac senttered about the various apartments, and furniture tossed about and piled up in a confused mass.

A SUSPECT ARRESTED.

About one hour after the explosion the police authorities arrested Joseph W. Oliver, a dishororably discharged veteran, for the crime. He was found in his room at a Cherokee street boarding house where he had just arrived after having been out all night. Many persons are ready to believe he is implicated. His trousers were bedraggled, showing he had walked through tall grass, and his shoes were soaking wet and covered with blue grass seed. He was in a surly mood and when taken into custedy expressed regret that Governor Smith had escaped death.

Afterward he refused to say anything. Another dishonorably discharged veteran is suspected of complicity, but has not been apprehended. Oliver is a tough character, and a few months ago was arrested and punished for deliberately shooting into an electric car. A few nights ago John Biringer's powder magazine was robbed, and it is believed the robber is the one who caused the explosion. It is the universal opinion in this city that the outrage is a direct result of the persecution waged against Governor Smith for the past five or six years by certain persons in Leavenworth and elsewhere in Kansas. Threats to blow up the governor have been freely made by discharged veterans since the national board of managers made the order transferring Colonel Smith to the Pacific branch home at Santa Monica, Cal.

SUGAR SCHEDULE DEBATE

A Labyrinth of Technical Details of Little Public Interest

WASHINGTON, June 12.-The long deferred debate on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill came on abruntly at 1 o'clock yesterday, after the Senate had disposed of the cereals in the agricultural schedule. Senators and spectators soon lapsed into a state indifference as the speeches dealt with a labyrinth of technical details, of vital interest, though, to the sugar refiner and expert.

Mr. Jones of Arkansas opened the debate, to some extent answering Mr. Aldrich's statement on the sugar schedule. It was argument active and lacking in any severe denunciatory. features. The Senator held that the rates proposed gave the refiners an excessive differential and pointed out how they had thrived on the oneeighth differential of the present law.

Mr. Vest severely criticised the Sugar trust and argued that the rates were a further tribute to its vast resources. Mr. Caffery of Louisiana also opposed the schedule as a whole. Early in the day Mr. Tillman of favor of the amendment giving an export daty on agricultural products. After some running debate a vote was taken on the Cannon amendment, providing an export bounty for agricultural products, and it was defeated -yeas, 10; nays, 59. The affirmative vote was given by Messrs. Allen, Butler. Stewart, Harris of Kansas, Heitfeld, Populists; Cannon, Mantle, Pettigrew, silver Republicans; Roach and Tillman, Democrats.

Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota gave notice that he would offer his amendment to admit free of duty goods made by trusts at the end of the sugar schedule.

Co-Ordinate With Judiciary.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 12 .- Judge Simpson, of the district bench, handed lown an opinion that while it was the duty of the governor to respond to the grand jury's subpoena and to produce such papers as it required, he could not be compelled to by the judiciary part of the state government. which is only co-ordinate with and not superior to the executive. The governor is exempt from judicial process while in discharge of his duties and he alone is judge of when such process would interfere with such duties. He is amenable to the legislature alone, which may impeach him for violation of duty.

Englishmen and Americans,

A careful inquiry into the average height of different nations has elicited the following facts: The English professional classes, who head the list as the tallest of adult males, attain the high average of 5 feet 914 inches. Next on the list come the maies of all classes in the United States and a minute fraction behind them come the English of all classes. Hence we may conclude that, taken right through, the English and American races are approximately of the same height. Most European nations average for the adult male 5 feet 6 inches but the Austrions, Spaniards and Portugese just fall thort of this standard.-Exchange.

SUMMER CARE OF BLANKETS. Blankets which have been used all winer, no matter how white, are never clean, and should be washed before putting away. Many housekeepers satisfy themselves by shaking and airing their blankets rather than risk spoiling them in washing. But this is a mistake, for if the work is prop-erly done no shrinking will take place, and the fleecy soft appearance may be retained, as well the color, for years. The necessary thing in washing blankets is to have plenty of soft water and good pure soap. Inferior soap is really the cause of the damage done woolen goods in washing. It hardens the fitre and yellows the fabric. When ready to begin the work shake the blan-kets free of dust, fill a tub half full of hot water. Dissolve a third of a cake of Ivory Scap in it. Put one blanket in at a time. Dip up and down and wash gently with the hands. Saver rub soap on binokets, or wash them on the washboard. After the binnkets are clean, rinse in warm water until free of suds. Add a little blueing to the last water. Shake and squeeze; then hang on the line until dry.
