Mrs. Thompson and her sisterin-law were removed yesterday tender hands have been administering every possible relief to their distress. Mrs Thompson was formerly Miss Lulu Kendall, of this city. Last year she taught school in Hot Springs and was elected to a position in the Chadron Schools, but resigned about amonth ago when she married Mr. Thompson. The Journal wired the particulars of the sad affair shortly after its occurence to Mrs. E Kendall, Ainsworth, the mother of the griefstricken young women; her brother, Rev. J L Kendall, Harri, son, and the father of the unfortunate young men, H J Thompson, Lakeside, Neb.

A number of relatives of the bereaved wife and sister and the unfortunate young men who lost their lives in the treacherous stream, arrived in the city to-day, and arrangements for the funeral will be completed.
