SCOTS WILL PULL OMAHA TUG TEAMS

Jack Prince Writes from Chicago that He Has Signed Up Tug-of-War Champions.
WILL ARRIVE ON THURSDAY

Jack Prince, who promoted the international tug-of-war at the Auditorium recently, writes from Chicago that he has made all arrangements with the champion Scotch tug-of-war team of that city to come to Omaha to pull the Omaha Danish and German teams here February 6 and 7. Prince says he will be in Omaha Thursday or Friday and will bring the Scots with him.

The Scots are the tug-of-war champions of the world, having won that honor in open competition and will be defending their title against the Omaha pullers. The Scots were the winners in the recent Omaha event and the Germans were runners-up. Prince declares both of these teams will give the Scots a pull for their money and will stand an even chance for victory.

The German team captained by Pete Loach will pull the Scots at the Auditorium Saturday night, February 5, and the Danes captained by Emil Talbot will pull the champs Sunday night, February 6. Both pulls will be to the limit. The winning team must pull the losing five feet to the five yards if it takes all night. No twenty-minute time limit will exist.

Prince conveys the news that the Windy City Scots will come to Omaha all primed for the event. They will bring their bagpipers with them and Prince says the bag-piping crew is the best in this country. The Scots will be entertained by the local Clan Gordon society while in Omaha.

PITTSBURGH COACH HAS DEVELOPED MANY STARS.

ANDREW KERR.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23.—Next fall the University of Pittsburgh puts the residential rule into effect, necessitating the development of a good freshman football team and "Andy" Kerr has been engaged again to coach the first year men.

In Prof. Kerr's Pittsburgh has a man who has developed more real high class varsity football than Speedy Rook, Supt. of Illinois and other men who have graduated from the small school coaching jobs to those of the big varieties.

As coach of Pittsburgh Central High school and previous to that Johnstown, Pa., High school, Kerr made a wonderful record in foot fall coaching circles and developed a winner each year.

After graduating from Dickinson college he became a member of the Johnstown High school faculty and coached all their athletic teams. Kerr made such a great record at Johnstown that the call came for him to become a member of the Pittsburgh Central High faculty. He accepted in 1905 and has been there ever since. For eight years he coached their teams and did wonderful work. Last year, Pitt signed him as freshman football coach, as well as varsity track coach. He still teaches mathematics in Pittsburgh Central and coaches the Pitt boys as a side issue.

Here are some of the men Kerr has developed: Frank Glick, captain of 1918 Princeton varsity; Jim Munna, captain of 1914 Cornell varsity; Jack Lindsay, captain of 1909 Pittsburgh varsity; Ken McCutcheon, guard Cornell varsity 1913 and 1914 and captain of 1914 Cornell championship track team; John Lyons, end, University of Michigan varsity 1914; Roy Leventry, tackle, Cornell; William Knicker, guard, Lehigh; Edward Martin, end, Penn State; Stan Ewins, quarterback, Pittsburgh; L. Shapiro, guard, Pittsburgh; Karl Gasa, Cornell back field back; William Barnet, Penn State half back; Webster Saylor, F & M tackle and captain; Robert Martin, Andover half back; James Rebut, guard, Penn State, and many others. Among the list of men he developed are seven varsity captains.

New Bellevue "Gym" Is Joy Forever with Its Swimming Pool

In spite of the fact that the young men of Bellevue college have been enjoying the new gymnasium pool since Christmas, the girls took their first plunge Friday when Miss Bernice Miller gave the initial lesson to the six classes in the aquatic art. Following the method of Coachman, who teaches Young Men's Christian association and Young Women's Christian association water work, under whom she studied at Battle Creek, Mich., Miss Miller taught the girls to breathe properly for swimming and to float on their backs.

The pool is in excellent condition, the water being heated by the injection of steam. It is 25 1/2 feet, larger than any pool in this vicinity. Professors and students alike are flooded with a pleasant addition to the college equipment, and frequent the place from early morning until 11 o'clock at night. Special care is being taken to keep the water in a thoroughly sanitary condition.

The whole gymnasium is highly satisfactory. Amateur students of the president and their play basket ball in spare moments, students and college gymnastic classes are held there and professors take the medicine ball, play volleyball, indoor base ball or tennis. The floor is in excellent condition for basketball games and the showers, lockers and dressing rooms, with the added feature of the pool, make the gymnasium the most popular spot in the college.

Chamberlain Out of Game Next Year

LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Information reaching Dr. R. G. Clapp, secretary of the Nebraska Athletic board, from the registrar of Nebraska Wesleyan university today, indicates that Chamberlain, the Nebraska star, will be declared ineligible to participate in university athletics after this year.

Chamberlain's loss to the foot ball team next year will be a severe one as critics generally agreed he was one of the greatest players on the gridiron last season.

The registrar's letter indicated that Chamberlain registered at Wesleyan as a full fledged freshman, and carried complete college work for two years, securing fifty-six hours of credit. That would limit his playing to two years on the University of Nebraska.

The Nebraska Athletic board will undoubtedly at a meeting next week declare Chamberlain ineligible for further participation in athletics.

BURNASCOS BEAT THE COYOTE FIVE

Visiting University Tossers Find Store Team Too Strong for Them.
ENDS THIRTY-ONE TO TWENTY

The University of South Dakota met defeat at the hands of the Burgess-Nash Saturday at the Young Men's Christian association, 22 to 30. The collegians while outclassed on team work played a strong aggressive game and were at all times tagging at the heels of the Burnascos in the matter of point getting. The South Dakotans were a little off on locating the basket, missing many opportunities of shoving the ball through the hoop. The contest while slow was continually enlivened by spectacular shots from difficult angles of the court.

Tony Vidal, crack halfback of the Coyote team and performing at the spot station for the visitors, pulled off some brilliant work during the fray. Time and again Vidal dribbled down the floor and was only prevented from hooping the ball by the excellent guarding of the Burnascos. Vidal was in evidence at all stages of the tilt. Although playing center the lanky tosser caged three baskets. McKenna as left forward was also in evidence duplicating Vidal's feat of three baskets.

Captain Otto Meyers was in the calcium for the locals, with six field goals. The lineup:

TWO UNI MEN FLEE STIEHM'S HOUSE

Athletic Directors of University of Nebraska Ordered from Home of the Ex-Coach.
TROUBLE OVER THE RECORDS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—There has been a fresh break between "Jumbo" Stiehm and members of the Nebraska athletic board, which culminated yesterday in Stiehm ordering Manager Guy E. Reed and Dr. R. G. Clapp out of his home.

Three days ago, it is charged, Stiehm went to his office at the university and removed all the correspondence, records and other data collected during the five years he was in charge of athletics at the University of Nebraska. It is claimed he took the scouting notes, the records of the foot ball players and other valuable material, Stiehm says he took only that material which belonged to him.

Chancellor Avery yesterday sent Mr. Stiehm and the coach him to return the stuff and a note asking him to return a portion of it. Some of it had been destroyed by the janitor, but it is supposed this was private correspondence. Among the material returned was the Nebraska contract with Iowa for foot ball games, which has still a year to run. Stiehm explained the contract had become mixed up with his property.

Manager Reed and Secretary Clapp asked Stiehm to allow them to inspect the data at the Stiehm home, but they were invited to leave.

The Suffolk also returned to port and anchored off quarantine.

The Brazos came to port under its own steam and officials of the company said tonight that repairs probably would be completed so it could sail again for San Juan, Porto Rico, on Monday.

Originally the action was for the recovery of $1,000,000 the steamship company alleging that its business had been damaged to the extent of $2,000,000 and the law permitting triple damages, but the amount was greatly reduced by a ruling of the judge that the statute of limitations permitted the collection of damages only from 1905 to 1911.
