

TO KEEP KIDDIES AWAY FROM MOVIES

Measure is Suggested as Preventive to Spread of Contagious Diseases.

LETTERS SENT TO MANAGERS

The city council adopted a motion offered by Commissioner Jardine requesting managers of motion picture theaters and parents to cooperate in excluding children under 12 years of age.

Parents are asked to keep their children from these places during the scarlet fever epidemic and managers are urged to refuse admittance to children under twelve.

There is no legal status to this action by the commissioners, who acted in what they believed to be public policy.

City Clerk O'Connor has addressed letters to all motion picture managers.

During a discussion of the subject in the council chamber a few days ago emphasis was placed upon the motion picture theaters as prolific mediums of contagion.

"I observed a mother with a 6-month-old infant at one of these places last evening," remarked Commissioner Butler.

The suggestion was made that the health commissioner be directed to order these places closed for a stated period, but this stringent regulation did not meet with favor.

PIONEER PHYSICIAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Dr. Richard C. Moore Dies at His Home in Omaha After Long Illness.

LEADER IN HIS PROFESSION

Dr. Richard Channing Moore, pioneer physician of Omaha, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home in the Normandie apartments, after an illness extending over a period of five years.

Dr. Moore had been suffering from a general breakdown during the period and the end was more or less expected.

Dr. Moore was born in Quincy, Ill., November 25, 1841. He was a graduate of Northwestern university, Chicago, getting his degree in medicine there March 5, 1865. He came directly to Omaha and began practice here. He remained in Omaha ever since.

On May 17, 1868, Dr. Moore returned to Quincy to wed Miss Eliza Bushnell.

Dr. Moore was one of Omaha's most prominent physicians and citizens during his long residence here. He was a member of the Commercial club and a trustee in the Omaha Medical college.

Head of Medical Society. In 1887 Dr. Moore was president of the Nebraska State Medical society and in 1894 was president of the Omaha Medical society. In 1902 he was elected president of the Missouri Valley Medical society. He was always an active member in these societies.

In 1894, while still a student at Northwestern, Dr. Moore was honored with the rank of acting assistant surgeon in the United States army.

Dr. Moore was a republican politically and his religion was Episcopalian. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Victor White, Mrs. H. G. Jordan and one niece, Miss Lila De Wolf of and Mrs. E. S. Westbrook, all of Omaha. Definite arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but it probably will be held at Trinity cathedral Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

RESIGNS ALL INTEREST IN PROPERTY OF FIANCEE

William S. Curtis, formerly of Webster Grove, Mo., who is about to marry Janet Monroe Wallace, Omaha school teacher, has resigned all interest in her property by a pre-nuptial agreement filed in the office of Harry Pearce, registrar of deeds. The agreement provides that the marriage will have no effect on the ownership or descent of the property.

Consider Lighting System on Monday

The city council decided to consider the proposed new electric lighting system before committee of the whole next Monday morning, when the city electrician and electric light company officials will be asked to explain features of the plan. Commissioner Withnell advised the council that the plan submitted was prepared by City Electrician Curran. It was announced that all persons interested in this matter may appear and be heard next Monday morning. If this plan shall be approved, then the council will take up the matter of granting the light company a contract for street lighting. The city has been without a contract for a year.

ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY PAYS OCCUPATION TAX

The Omaha Electric Light and Power company has reported to the city a statement wherein the total receipts for light and power last year is given at $1,093,421.77. The company paid an occupation tax of $28,341.82, being 3 per cent of the total receipts, less $105,083.94 amount of the city lighting for the year.

ARE YOU AN AMERICAN?

If you are, you want to read good, old, straight-out American doctrine. You will get it every week in

The Omaha Nebraskan
Nebraska's Illustrated Weekly
Richard Lee Metcalfe, Editor

Read what Theodore Roosevelt says of the efforts The Nebraskan is making for the cultivation of the American spirit:

Oyster Bay, Long Island, N. Y.,
January 13, 1916.

My Dear Mr. Metcalfe: I am more than obliged to you for sending me the Omaha Nebraskan. Most of our public men, and I am sorry to say a majority of our newspapers, have not dared to antagonize this hyphenated-American campaign against America, and it does me good to read the straight-out truth from a straight-out American standpoint, and by a straight-out American. The cowardice of so many of our people is simply astounding. I am, however, strongly against any limitation at this time on the export of arms and ammunition. That would be not only an unneutral act, but it would be an act in the interest of the oppressors of Belgium.

It is fine to have you say, as you do, that the American people will not consent to the defeat of a candidate for the Presidency at the dictation of politicians acting for any parties to this European war and you are right when you denounce such a movement as this of the professional German-American as being a "copper-head" movement.

I am of Dutch origin, but I have the blood of various strains in me, including a little English, a little German and a little French. You are probably of English descent. But we are Americans. We are not Dutch-Americans, or English-Americans, or German-Americans—we are just plain, straight United States.

With hearty good wishes, Faithfully yours,
Theodore Roosevelt
