Envious Clouds Obscure Efforts of the Moon to Hide Face of Sun

The "envious clouds," as Father Illego, Omaha's astronomer calls them, were veiling the azure vault of heaven in Omaha yesterday morning.

They were veiling more than that, and burn 'em. They were veiling an eclipse of the sun. The well known moon batted in for an hour or two directly between the earth and the sun, thus cutting off a segment of Friend Sun from the view of our earth dwellers while the eclipse lasted.

If it had been clear and if you had pulled out your timepiece at 23 minutes, 41.7 seconds after 9 o'clock this morning, you would have observed the dark circle which is the moon, pushing itself over the face of the sun.

At 41 minutes past 9 o'clock you would have seen 23 per cent of the sun's face obscured by the moon.

And then, at 23 minutes, 28.8 seconds after 10 o'clock, (the sure your watch is exactly right), you would have seen the envious moon give up the job in disgust and the sun shining forth in his usual brilliancy, radiancy and effluency again.

But the "envious clouds," got him 'em, spoiled it all. And we don't have an eclipse of the sun every day to look at. No, nor every year either.

However, this is merely a celestial phenomenon. And Omaha is in the eclipsing business itself, good as dead, by Deputy United States Marshal E. J. Qinsley on a charge of having prohibited drugs in his possession. He was brought to Omaha, waived preliminary hearing before Commissioner J. A. Singhaus and was bound over to the grand jury under bond of $2,000. A large quantity of "dope" was found in John's possession.

FORWARD MOVE RALLY IN OMAHA

Bishop Henderson Says Minister Who is Too Big for House Work is Not Wanted.

Should do just as Paul did in his evangelism, is too little to stay in the ministry.

There is a great difference between church work and work of the church. This was forcefully pointed out by some of the speakers at the opening of the Methodist forward movement rally for Omaha and vicinity, held at the First Methodist church.

Both Bishop F. M. Bristol and Bishop Theodore S. Henderson of Chattanooga, Tenn., emphasized this point. The work of making quilts to be sold to raise money for the church, collecting boxes and barrels of clothing for the poor, giving church dinners and a lot of other things were mentioned as church work, but not work of the church.

"Unless the barrels, the mite boxes, the quilts and the benevolence all lend themselves to the work of the church in getting people to God," said Bishop Bristol, "they are of little importance. For these things in themselves are not the work of the church."

Go Gunning for God. Bishop Henderson of Chattanooga clinched the idea by going even farther in his discussion along the same line.

"I wish you'd go gunning for God with real bullets, not merely with gunpowder," he said. "God wants you to go gunning and get people into the church that will do the work of the church. You can't find folks with a microscope. You must go after them on your feet."

"Back in Tennessee from whence I just came, we have a lot of the kind of people who don't know the difference between church work and work of the church. They say, 'Don't we pay the preacher? Don't we pay for coal and light? Don't we send up benevolences?'"

"Yes, to be sure, but these things are not the work of the church. Yes, they make quilts, and bless them, I don't know what we would do without quilts. This is perfectly good church work; but I don't know what we would do without our mission societies."

House to House Work. "I want to say that the greatest opportunity for work today is house to house evangelism. The Methodist minister who is too big to go from house to house to house work."

Household Economy. How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 50 cents, a full pint of real honey cough syrup that you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and breaks up the tenacious and persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with gualacal, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction. Full refund, goods, with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

OMAHA MAN PINCHED FOR HAVING DOPE ON PERSON

He was brought to Omaha, waived preliminary hearing before Commissioner J. A. Singhaus and was bound over to the grand jury under bond of $2,000. A large quantity of "dope" was found in John's possession.

"Just What I Want!" "Give me cake made with Calumet—I know what I'm getting—I know it's pure, wholesome, nourishing, tempting and tasty."

SCARLET FEVER IS FOUND IN SCHOOLS

Four with Disease and One with Chickenpox Sent Home by the Inspecting Nurses.

IS ARGUMENT FOR INSPECTION

Four children with scarlet fever and one with chickenpox, sent home from public schools by nurses this week, according to Health Commissioner Connell, furnishes convincing evidence of the needs of medical examination of schools.

Two children were excluded from Park school and upon closer examination at their homes were found to have scarlet fever in a mild form, but none the less dangerous as mediums of contagion. Another was sent from Mason school and the fourth from Kellom school. The chickenpox case was sent from Castelar school.

"This goes to show, as I have contended for years, that medical inspection of the schools is necessary. Here were four children attending schools with scarlet fever. Had they not been excluded this week, there is no telling how much contagion they may have spread and, in all probability, they spread the disease to some extent before discovered and excluded," said Dr. Connell. The health commissioner has sent notices to eighteen parochial schools, ordering medical examination of all attendants.
