one of the popular paintings. Zorn is recognized as one of the greatest artists of the day, according to local art critica 'Moonlight on the Beach" by Birge Har rison, always popular in Omaha, was very well received. "The Portrait of the family of Aman-Jean" by Aman-Jean himself, is the most costly painting. Beginning today, the exhibit is thrown open to the public. "Moonlight-Pueblo de Taos," by E Irving Couse, received the highest num ber of votes as the most popular painting in the Fine Arts exhibit at the Hotel Fontenelle Wednesday night. Birge Harrison's "Moonlight on the Beach" was a close second in popularity. The vote is taken to determine which painting will be purchased as a gift to the city of Omaha, to be hung in the public library. The Fine Arts society probably will purchase another painting for the club.
