GUNNERS SLAM CENTRAL HIGH

Townsend Team Walks Around Local School Tomers, Forty-Eight to Twenty.

TEAM WORK DOES THE BUSINESS

Central High school lost to the Townsend Gun five last evening at the University of Omaha in a Tri-City league tilt, 48 to 20. Coach Mulligan's men found it impossible to pierce the Gunners' defense. On the other hand the Townsends had little trouble in cavorting about the court at will.

Superior team work and greater accuracy in shooting baskets was the direct reason for the Gunners' large score. The students lost several chances to increase their score but fluked out on a number of easy shots. Maxwell at right forward was the chief four goals, while Bechtold did the heavy work for the Gunners with eight doubledeckers. The lineup:

goals: Maxwell (4), Patty (2), Logan (2), Smith, Hansen (3), Harris (6)), Bechtold (8), Lutes (5), Foul goals: Patty (2), Harris (4), Fouls committed: High school, 4; Townsends, 4, Referee: Kamanski, Time of halves: Twenty minutes.
