Mrs. R. M. Remier, of Federal, Mansas, writes an interesting account of her success in reducing a severe case of enlarged veins that should be encouraging to others similarly afflicted. She suffored with badly swillen and inflamed weins (in fact, one had broken), for more than seven years before she became at-quainted with Absorbine. Jr., and used it. came into the Remodeled Hostelry Saturday and as the courteous boy employe offered to carry his grip, asked:

"Who is the Manager of the Millard now?" When the boy replied "Mr. Lou Rentfrow," he registered for one of the best rooms in the Hotel, then called for the Manager to come to his room at once.

Was an Old Patron of Hotel

His praises of the new atmosphere to Mr. Rentfrow were very flattering. He had been a patron of the Millard since its con-struction (but had not visited Omaha for three years). His comment on the marked improvement made by the management was very complimentary.

Wires Family to Stop at Millard

After a brief interview, he asked for telegraph blanks and wired his family, who are on their way to New York City, to stop over in Omaha, and informed Mr. Rentfrow he wanted a suite of rooms for their use. This demonstrates what proper managing of a hotel will do.
