Hark! Is It Prince Lei Lani Who Sings? Or, Is It the VICTROLA? Or, Are Both Singing TOGETHER? Prince Lei Lani (Mr. E. K. Rose), Native Born Hawaiian, Professional Singer and Recently Hawaiian Soloist of the "Bird of Paradise" Company WILL GIVE A SERIES OF Recitals and Victrola Demonstrations AT OUR ESTABLISHMENT Monday, Feb. 28; Wednesday, Mar. 1; Friday, Mar. 3; Sat. Mar. 4, Commencing at 2:30 P. M. Mr. Rose will take his place beside the Victrola, will insert into it a record made by himself at the Victor Co.'s Laboratories, will let the record play for awhile, will then take up the melody himself, again sing it with his voice alone, then with his voice as duplicated in the Victrola. During this exhibition there will not be a soul in the Audience who will be able to detect when the LIVING singer starts or stops. ONE cannot tell WHICH is Doing the Singing—the Human Marvel Who MADE THE Record, or the Marvelous VICTROLA That Recreates His Voice. If you delight in harmony hear Mr. Rose interchange his voice with that of Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous song bird. "The Rosary," an exquisite Victor record, by Mme. Heink, will be inserted in the Victrola, started, stopped, etc., and Mr. Rose will often substitute his voice for that of Mme. Heink, while few indeed will detect a particle of difference. Mr. Rose has scored success with a voice that is baritone, tenor or male soprano at will. This same gentleman has created many exquisite "Hawaiian" records in the Victor Laboratories and has toured the length and breadth of the country as tenor soloist in the original "Bird of Paradise" Co. To hear him will be a treat for you indeed. Remember, No Charge to Hear Him at MICKEL'S Nebraska Cycle Co. Corner 15th and Harney Sts. OMAHA, NEB.
