NANCE CUUNTY, NEBRABKA, FARMS
We are authorized by the owners to sell their 90-acre farm in Nance county, Nebraska, at a price that cannot be duplicated, and on terms that should appeal to anyone wanting a fine improved farm in the richest farming district in Nebraska.

This farm is the very best rich black corn land, mostly all level, 250 acres under cultivation for crops, 100 acres in alfalfa, which cuts 4 tons to the acre, 30 acres timothy and clover hay, 30 acres pasture. We can sell this farm as one, or can subdivide it into five 150-acre farms, or in two haif-section farms and one 160-acre farm, every one of them being first class level, land.

There are two sets of improvements, one set being extra large and good, with 12-room gas lighted residence, large horse barns, cattle barns, hog houses, two silos, double corn cribs for 30,000 bushels, modern hog houses with coment floors, wells, mills and tanks; farm all fenced and cross-fenced, nice orchard and shade trees, located on main level road within six miles of two good towns and close to church and school. Fifteen to twenty-five years' time will be given on over half the purchase price at 8 per cent. Club together and buy this farm and divide it as you wish, or take it all. Any farm located as this is, and a great producer with no waste land or failure of crops, that can be bought for a price around $11.50 per acre, should be attractive to any one wanting good farm land.

F. T. WALKER & COMPANY, Omaha.

FOR SALE—One fresh milk cow; milk cow coming fresh soon, and 2-year-old short-horned built. Call Walnut 1304.

Thirty-two milk wasons for sais, chean. regiments. Just as the Sixteenth division of the new army, "The Irish brigade" that railled upon the invitation of Mr. Redmond from the Irish National Volunteers, north and south, was preparing to go to the trenches, came stirring accounts of the deeds of the Tenth division 'round Lake Dorian in Macedonia. The Tenth division was the first purely Irish divison to take part in the war. It received its baptism of fire at Sulva bay, and fresh from the ships was thrown against the entrenched positions on the Anafarta ridges. No official account of its valor in that desperate fight has yet appeared. But the unofficial accounts of the capture of Chocolate Hill and Dublin Hill by the Dublin fusillers, and the frontal attack by the Inniskillings on the Anafarta der now for future delivery. To the gallantry of the Munster Fusiliers, the Dublin Fusiliers and the Connaught Rangers, the general ascribes the a safe execution of the plan for the withdrawal to the Vardar. And the general's censors have also allowed the press correspondents to describe the work of the regiments. They state that but for the stand of the Tenth division and the fierceness of its counter attacks with bayonets when there was no artillery to help them, the retreat of both the French and the British armies would have been cut off and the orderly withdrawal would NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS
