BARNETT AND LANE RUN IN THE FIFTH

McCook and Hastings Men Are Candidates for Republican District Delegates.

HANSEN FOR MOOSE GOVERNOR

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 1.—(Special.)—Information comes to Lincoln that the republicans in the Fifth district are studiously at work securing signatures to numerous petitions for the purpose of placing the names of A. Barnett and C. C. Lane of Hastings as candidates for the republican district delegates to the national convention.

These two gentlemen have selected Frank A. Dean of Holdrege and Daniel Garber of Red Cloud, respectively, as their alternates.

Mr. Barnett is a lumberman and has been associated with developments in western Nebraska and is a good roads booster, while his alternate is a banker at Holdrege.

Mr. Lane is president of the Exchange National bank of Hastings and one of the leaders in the movement to get the republicans together. Daniel Garber, his alternate, is a well-known republican, not only of that district, but of the state.

Hansen for Governor. Candidates for state office on the bull moose ticket are beginning to put in an appearance, and today filings were received at the secretary of state's office for governor and treasurer.

James F. Hansen of Fremont sends in a filing for the bull moose nomination for governor.

W. C. Crooks of Lincoln would like to be state treasurer from a bull moose standpoint.

Other filings were E. C. Newland of Holdrege, who files for the state senate on the republican ticket from the Twenty-first district, composed of the counties of Phelps, Gosper, Furnas and Harlan, represented in the last two sessions by Jack Grace of Manscot.

Noble for Elector. Colonel Henry Clay Richmond of Omaha, after performing a job as general engineer at the legislative league banquet last week that puts him in the class with Delmonico, Waldorf-Astoria, Tobasco and a few others of great reputations as banquet engineers, appeared at the state house this morning in the role of official booster for Sophus Noble for presidential elector.

Among the names of well-known patriots, scholars and statesmen on the petition are James C. Dahlman, Arthur Melien and Richard L. Metcalfe, so it is evident that Colonel Noble has been able to mix the sheep with the goats and get away with it successfully, and will probably land all right, thanks to the excellent work of his suave and Chesterfield friend and neighbor, Colonel Henry Clay Richmond.

Mrs. Underdown Again Sues Railroad for Thirty Thousand

FAIRBURY, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—A $30,000 death claim case against the Burlington railroad was filed with the clerk of the district court here Tuesday by Mrs. Della Underdown of Reynolds, Neb. This is the second appearance of this case into court. Less than a year ago it was filed by former Adjutant General John C. Hartigan and came up for the preliminary skirmish November 4, 1915, before Judge L. M. Pemberton. He ordered the case transferred to the United States federal court at Lincoln. Four months have elapsed and the federal court has decided the case belongs in the district court at Fairbury.

William C. Underdown was killed by a fast Burlington train en route to Omaha near the yards at Ashland, Neb., December 14, 1914. He was employed as a laborer and while working on the tracks with a work train he stepped in front of a passenger train. The attorneys alleged that the passenger train approached at an excessive rate of speed without any warning; also that the deceased's vision was obscured by the escaping steam from an old and defective worktrain locomotive.

Mrs. Underdown was appointed administratrix for the estate May 11, 1915. She alleges that she and her four children have been deprived of the maintenance and support of the husband and father and has been damaged to the amount of $30,000.

Madgett Intimates Carson Is Trying to Aid the Democrats

HASTINGS, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—Mayor Madgett filed his second broadside yesterday at H. F. Carson of Lincoln, superintendent of the Nebraska Anti-Saloon league, who has undertaken to organize the dry republicans of the state for A. L. Sutton of Omaha. In his rejoinder to Mr. Carson's intimation that Madgett is a recent convert and should be content to play an inconspicuous part in the league's work, he says: "I have lived in Hastings practically all my life. I do not drink, smoke nor chew. My life is an open book and when I made the race last spring for mayor of the city of Hastings against a democratic brother of Mr. Carson's, I had the support of the church federation and good people of Hastings and succeeded in defeating his democratic brother for re-election by a nice majority. Mr. Carson has been in Hastings several times since I entered upon my duties as mayor and I am certain if he wished he could say many good things about my administration. He could tell you that in making my appointments I selected good, clean, sober men and that we have chased out gamblers, boot-leggers and prostitutes and have generally enforced the law.

"The friends of any cause should ever be in mind that browbeating, rule-arbitrarily, crushing and threatening political boycotting methods don't go with a people that are as intelligent and law-abiding as they are in Nebraska and people who believe in proper methods and a square deal."

Secretary of State Rakes in the Cash

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 1.—(Special.)—Nebraska requires all corporations doing business within its borders to pay for the privilege of existing as corporations. The records in the office of Secretary of State Pool attest that a special tax has no deterrent effect, as is shown by a comparison of the cash receipts from that source during the month of February for the last two years, as follows: February, 1915, $1,947.10; February, 1916, $3,268.73. The total receipts of the office for February, 1916, were $2,373.30, while in February, 1915, they increased to $3,723.54. The following are the sources from which these receipts were collected:

Table showing sources of receipts for Secretary of State: Corporation permits, $1,453.00; State of incorporation, $2,533.25; For filing notary commissions, $98.00; For filing certificates and transcripts, $109.50; Sale of old records, $121.00; All other sources, $16.29. Total: $3,723.54.

Attorney General

Reed Still Very Ill (From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 1.—(Special.)—Attorney General Willis Reed is still very ill at his apartment at the Lincoln hotel. He called and arrived last night. Mr. Reed is suffering from a relapse from a former attack of grip. He was called to Iowa by the death of Mrs. Reed's father, and upon his return took up some important cases in court and the exertion was too much for him. He again went to bed and is suffering from pneumonia and other complications, though it is not thought that the illness will be critical unless another relapse occurs.
