ILLNESS CAUSES WOMAN'S CLUB PLAY TO BE PUT OFF

On account of so much illness among members of the cast, the production of Oscar Wilde's "Lady Windemere's Fan" for which numerous rehearsals were held, has been postponed indefinitely. The presentation was planned by the oratory department of the Omaha Woman's club under the leadership of Mrs. W. C. Lambert, the proceeds to be devoted to the penny lunch fund of the club. The oratory department is now rehearsing two short plays to be given for the open day program.

THIMBLE CLUB HAS UNIQUE BANQUET

Regular Gridiron Club Affair at Which Eligible Maids Instructed on Preparedness.

MARRIAGE THE REAL ISSUE

By MELLIFLUA—March 1.
A really, truly Gridiron club affair was given in Omaha last evening. The Thimble club gave the stunt at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal to fifty guests. The treatment was unique. Everything was given political or military nomenclature and aspect—they treated "preparedness," "campaigns" and "candidates"—and all the while they were dealing with domestic affairs.

A well-known maid of the Thimbles gave an excellent talk on "Preparedness," showing a deep insight into military lore and technique, and using terms that it might have taken the West Point training itself to acquire. But the fitness she was speaking for was the preparing of a girl to get her husband, and setting him, to take care of him and the home in which he was to be housed. A matron very cleverly outlined "The Last Campaign." But it was neither a battle, political nor military, that she described, but the last wedding in her family.

The father of two very interesting little girls spoke of "The Future Candidates," but the candidates were the girls and the offices they were seeking was marriage.

The program was opened by a toast by the president of the club, Mrs. J. H. Dument, and then while all the married members and the bachelors stood at attention Mr. Roy Sunderland presented each maid with an old-fashioned bouquet in a paper lace trim.

St. Paul's Episcopal church gives a musicale this evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Baldwin. A program with fifteen musical numbers will be given. This is the first of the musicales of this season. The newly installed rector, Rev. Arthur Marsh, is considering making these musicales a regular entertainment of the church organization and another will be given soon after Easter.

The popularity of the parties given at All Saints' parish house seems more marked with each affair. On Friday evening the last party before Lent will be given, with dancing and cards the order of the affair. The Athletic club will give an exhibition under the direction of Mr. Morley Young.

St. Barnabas' church will give a musicale in the guild room Tuesday evening, Sunday afternoon, March 12, a cantata, "Pentecost, Pardon and Peace" will be given in the church at 8 o'clock.

Prettiest Mile Party.
The ladies of the Prettiest Mile Golf club gave a leap year party Tuesday evening at the Prairie Park club house to seventy couples. The promoters of the affair were Misses Grace Northrup and Clara Flinn, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Flinn, president of the club, and Mrs. A. D. Northrup, secretary. After cards and dancing, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Needham gave a supper at their home to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Emerson and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hawke.

On the Calendar.
Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith will give a luncheon at her home Thursday afternoon for Mrs. Ferguson of New York, mother and guest of Mrs. Lowrie Childs. Mrs. Ludovic F. Crofoot gives an informal musicale and tea her home at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

COLLINS AND JOHNSON CONFESS AND GO TO PEN
Walter Collins and Paul Johnson, confessed highwaymen, entered pleas of guilty in criminal court and were sentenced to serve from three to fifteen years in the penitentiary. Collins and Johnson held up a crowded saloon at 132 South Twentieth street several months ago, but in escaping Collins was seriously wounded by Frank Pietro, bartender, who opened fire. The men escaped, but were caught afterward by the police. Collins is 24 years old and Johnson is 25. Both claim to be homeless and unmarried. They refused to admit that they had perpetrated similar crimes here, and other victims failed to identify them.

BRANDEIS STORES
The Great Silk Show in Full Swing
Wonderful Assortments and Unusual Prices
