Leading Lady in College Play is Sick With Mumps

The fact that the leading lady of their play, Miss Florence Weiler, is confined to her home with the mumps is causing the Believue college preps to redouble their work on the play, which they will present in the college gymnasium March entitled "A Bachelor's Romance," Janice Betz has taken Miss Weller's part and will work it into shape so that if the leading lady does not recover in time for the performance, the understudy will be able to fill her place.

Three rehearsals a week are being held by Prof. Edwin L. Puls. The parts are nemorized and worked into excellent shape already and dress rehearsals will soon be instituted.
