THEATER PARTIES AHEAD OF LENT

Many Box and Line Affairs Are

or Two. AFTER WEDNESDAY COMES LENT

Planned for the Next Day

By MELLIFICIA-March 6.

It would seem that every one wants to have at least one more evening or matince at the theater before the beginning of the penitential season. Of course every one goes this evening and next with the resolution of "never again for forty nights." But, notwithstanding, the theaters will be filled just the same, and did one ever hear of a house dark just because Lent had come.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Brogan will entertain eight guests this evening in a box at the Orpheum, and Mr. King Denman will be host in a box to a party of eight. Other entertaining parties of six to eight are Messrs, F. A. Pitzgerald, J. R. Golden, Roy B. Zachary, S. P. Mason

Mrs. L. W. Hayden gave a box party at the matinee this afternoon to six guests. Other hostesses to parties were Mesdames D. A. Peycks, W. V. Schermerhorn, Lionberger and S. Strauss. Mr. J. A. Cavers' party, which was to be given this evening, has been postponed to later in the week.

Mr. Edwin H. Luikart gives a matinee party Tuesday after a luncheon at the Commercial club to seven guests. One of the big Tuesday matinee affairs will be a party of twenty, the Atlas club of council Bluffs, with Mrs. H. A. Quinn the hostess. Another club party will be the Sermo club, Mrs. P. A. Themanson, hostess. Miss Marie Riley gives a matinee party to five guests.

On Wednesday afternoon the Woman Prettiest Mile Golf club gives a matinee party with forty guests.
