Many Would Adopt Bright Baby Left on Doorstep by Broken-Hearted Mother

Mrs. Rose Donnell was sitting with two of her children, Clifford and Goldie, in their home, 223 Dodge street, Friday evening when they heard an odd sound on the front porch.

"Guess it's just the cat," said Clifford. But it didn't sound like the cat. So Mrs. Donnell went to investigate and found a baby! Yes, sir, a regular human baby!

Ah, the glorious mystery of a baby's effect on woman's heart!

How Mrs. Donnell fluttered about! How some women roomers in the house arrived there as if by magic when they heard the baby's wails!

How they fondled it! How they fed it with milk from a spoon! How they carried it into a darkened room and sang lullabies to it! How they smoothed its clothes and kissed its dimpled cheeks and chubby hands!

Mrs. Donnell finally called up the authorities and soon came Detectives Dunn and Kennelly.

They looked upon the baby with masculine calmness. They poked stubby fingers into baby's velvety cheeks. They spoke in baby language thus: "Da-da," "Kitty-hay."

Dunn looked at the pretty little wail and sagely remarked: "Bout 4 months old."

But he didn't get away with his pretense of wisdom about babies, for Mrs. Donnell exhibited a note found pinned on the bundle. It read:

"Born February 19, 1916. I can't keep her. Please give baby a home."

It was the farewell note of a sorrowing mother making the greatest sacrifice that poverty can force a mother to make.

The child was fully dressed and had a cotton flannel nightgown and a thin serge coat wrapped around it.

And, so, after the women had kissed it goodbye a dozen times it was bundled up and entrusted to the two big men, who took it to the Child Saving Institute. One of its little hands took firm hold on Dunn's forefinger as he carried it away.

"Oh, I'd have loved to keep it," said Mrs. Donnell later. "If I'd only had some way to take care of it. It was such a dear little thing. I've had six phone calls this morning from women who wanted to adopt it."

HENRY GASSAWAY DAVIS SUCCUMBS

Man Who Ran for Vice President with Judge Parker in 1904 Is Dead.

NINETY-THREE YEARS OLD

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Henry Gassaway Davis, former United States senator from West Virginia and vice presidential candidate on the democratic ticket in 1904, died here early today after a brief illness, aged 93 years.

Henry Gassaway Davis' remarkable career is a distinct encouragement to the eugenists who believe men should live in health a century. When he ran for the vice presidency, the oldest candidate ever known for that office, there was some criticism on this score.

Mr. Davis was born in Baltimore, November 16, 1823, and received a meager education in the public schools. At a very early age he was hard at work. He was the eldest of five children, and the death of his father, Caleb Davis, made him the family breadwinner. He became a railway brakeman and soon began his long career as a railroad man. His advance was rapid and in a few years he was known as a railway magnate and a lumber and coal operator. He owned vast coal fields in West Virginia.

He entered politics soon after the close of the civil war and led the delegates from West Virginia in six national democratic conventions. In 1904 he ran for the vice presidency on the ticket with Judge Alton B. Parker.

For Your Own Protection—a Paige

We want you and your family to FIND FOR YOURSELVES in this new Paige Fleetwood "Six-38" ($1050) all the VALUE and QUALITY which, we claim, make it supreme among five-passenger motor cars. We want you to find for yourself the tremendous POWER, sturdiness and reliability of the motor. You will need this on steep hills, in sand, for all those road-conditions that bring out the real worth of a motor. We want you to find for yourself the flexibility of the motor (from a speed of 2 1/2 miles an hour to almost a mile a minute) and the remarkable ease of control. We want you to see for yourself the beauty of line and design, the elegance and the luxury of the equipment and furnishing throughout. We want you to find for yourself the REAL VALUE and QUALITY and SUPREMACY of Paige cars. Last year the "Six-36" sold for $1095. Now we offer you the Fleetwood "Six-38" with a longer wheelbase (117 inches), with even more luxurious roominess, with even more elegance in upholstery and furnishing throughout, with a motor even more powerful and flexible. Now we offer you in the new five-passenger Fleetwood a greater car—a larger car—a more luxurious car—and a reduction of $45 in price. In their efforts to keep pace with Paige cars—the Fleetwood and the seven-passenger "Six-46"—other manufacturers of Light Sixes are introducing radical features—new designs—new power plants—new engineering theories. These are all experiments. Why should YOU risk an experiment? Why should YOU consider anything but the national standards of six-cylinder value—the five-passenger Fleetwood "Six-38" at $1050 and the seven-passenger Fairfield "Six-46" at $1295? Paige cars have won the overwhelming endorsement of the American people. They have been perfected to the current hour of motor car building. They are built and backed by one of the strongest companies in the industry. Why buy anything but a proven, an established success? Why anything but a Paige?

The Proof

DON'T accept claims or opinions. Every man selling an automobile will tell you his car can be run at low cost.

He'll tell you this because he knows and you know that gasoline, oil and tires are costing more and more all the time. He knows and you should know that the operating cost of any automobile during five years' time is worth your careful consideration.

We don't give you any guesswork. We tell you what we know. We state the facts and figures—proved and verified figures. Here they are:

| Maxwell World's Non-Stop Record Facts. |        |
|--|--------|
| Miles without a motor stop             | 25,023 |
| Average Miles per day (44 days)        | 509.5  |
| Miles per gallon of gasoline           | 21.48  |
| Miles per gallon of oil                | 400    |
| Average miles per tire                 | 4,871  |

Most Maxwell owners get even better results than these but we are just giving the actual figures set when the Maxwell stock touring car broke the World's Motor Non-Stop Record.

When you get your Maxwell you can be sure it will give you economical service—probably far more economical than these figures indicate. But to be sure that you can get your Maxwell, ORDER NOW.

We have a few here but don't know when we can get more. Freight cars are scarce and the Maxwell factories, in spite of doubled production, are away behind in shipments.
