most pleasant surprise party was en ou Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hutchison Tuesday evening at their new home in Hazel Dell, the occasion being Mrs. Hutchison's birthday, As Mrs. Hutchison's birthday comes only once in four years a special effort was made to make the atfair a memorable one. Various games were enjoyed and supper was served. About fifty guests were present.

A july party of young people gathered Saturday evening at the some of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Joseph in colebrate the capture by the Second Prosbyterian five of the Joe Smith trophy for the church league bushet bull. The loving cup was placed on a pedestal in a prominent place in order that all might admire it. The evening was spent in basket half discussion, each young man giving an impromptu speech on some phase of the subject. After the speeches Dr. George A. Ray made a few apprepriate remarks, as also did Mrs. E. A. Morehouse, superintendent of the Sunday school. Mr. Joseph humorously outlined plans for keeping the cup another year. The program was interspersed with music by Miss Freds Kenady, Miss Katheryn Morehouse, Miss Florence Senior and Miss Lois Wood. The basket ball players each had the privilege of inviting a young woman, the guests numbering about thirty. A two-course luncheon was served by the hostess late in the evening.

The Misses Theresa and Edith Brugenhemke entertained at a slumber party Saturday night at the home of their sister, Mrs. R. C. Freeman. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman have been spending the last week at Holton, Kan., and turned their house over to the young women, who enloyed the occasion to the utmost. A taffy pull occupied the early part of the evening and a midnight supper was served. Mr. E. W. Hart went to Chicago Mon-

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, 2700 Third avenue, observed their thirty-third wedding anniversary Monday evening. They were much surprised when a number of friends and relatives, including members of the Nazarene church, of which the family are members, marched in singing. The evening was most enjoyably spent and refreshments were served at a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon have made their home in Council Bluffs for fourteen years. They have four daughters, all of whom were present at the celebration. Appropriate addresses were made, to which Mr. and Mrs. Shannon responded.

The members of the J. K. club were entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Carry Arbuthnot at the home of Mrs. H. A. Musselman. The afternoon was spent at cards and prizes were won by Mrs. A. B. Wright, Mrs. William Marquardt and Mrs. Williamson. Club guests were Mrs. Fred Clausen, Mrs. George Bushnell, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Musselman. The club will meet Wednesday of next week at the home of Mrs. Lesile Kirkpatrick.

The members of the Woman's club of the Railway Mail Service were entertained at a 2 o'clock luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Latta. Eighteen members were present and Mrs. Charles Reynolds was a club guest. After luncheon an informal program was given, with Mrs. R. G. Allerton as leader, an interesting paper being read by Mrs. A. E. Downing. In a game which followed prizes were won by Mrs. Carl Frahm and Mrs. Thomas Craig. It was decided to hold an evening party for members and their families next Tues-day evening at the home of Mrs. W. S. Leighton. Mrs. Leighton will also be hostess of the club at the April meeting.

Bluffs Woman's club met Monday evening at the public library, an interesting time being spent in the study of the Lichfield cathedral. Miss Mittie Pile gave the history of the cathedral, beginning with the Norman structure of the thirteenth century erected on the foundation of the early Saxon church, which suffered by reason of its exposed condition from the invasion of the Danes, and later from the soldiers of Cromwell. She also told of its later restoration under various architects. Mrs. Dollie Burgess gave an excellent description of the exterior of the red sandstone cathedral of Lichfield, from different angles of view, mentioned under the direction of Mrs. Robert Moth. as the "Queen of English Cathedrals." Each member was privileged to invite its charm as the most beautiful and a guest, and the program was followed symmetrical of cathedrals was menby refreshments and a social time. Mrs. tioned. Mr. and Mrs. Mar tens left for a short wedding trip, after which they will go at once to housekeeping at West Side, where their new home is all ready for them. Mr. Martens is established there in the furniture and implement business. The bride is a clever and accomplished young woman, who has lived here all her life and has an exceptionally large circle of friends. She was graduated from the The art department of the Council Council Bluffs High school, later from the state university and afterward attended the Academy of Pine Arts in Chicago. She has great artistic ability and her work is well known here. The Book Lovers met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, sr. The club commenced the study of Charles Dickens, His early neglect and street education, his London life and the various occupations in which he was engaged were discussed. His humor, pathos and descriptive powers were also discussed. The general discussion was followed by reading of extracts from "David Copperfield," dealing especially with the well known character, "Mr. Micawber." The club will meet with Mrs. Hannan again next Wedneeday afternoon and begin the study of one of Dickens' most able novels, "The Tale of Two Cities." Mr. and Mrs. William Powers entertained the Social Neighborhood Card club Tuesday evening. Prizes for high scores wer won by Mr. Barris and Mrs. Hickey. Luncheon was served after the game. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
