STECHER MATCHED TO MEET ORDEMAN

Nebraska Phenom and Man Awarded American Championship by Gotch Signed for Tilt.

CARDED FOR LINCOLN MARCH 31

Word has reached Omaha that Joe Stecher and Henry Ordeaman of Minneapolis will meet on the mat at Lincoln the night of March 31. Ordeaman will be remembered as the wrestler Frank Gotch awarded the American championship upon his retirement from the game. For the last two years Ordeaman has done little wrestling and was for a time laid up by illness. Following the rapid rise of Joe Stecher to prominence Ordeaman made up his mind to tackle the young Nebraska phenom. With this in view he has been training diligently for the last three or four months, and a couple of weeks ago made the announcement that he would like to wrestle Stecher. Lincoln immediately began plans to get the match, although Ordeaman expressed a preference for Minneapolis, Omaha or Kansas City. Lincoln got the match, however, and March 31 has been set as the date.

Ordeaman has been defeated but twice during his long term in the ring game. Frank Gotch once beat him, as did Stanislaw Zbyszko. Ordeaman, however, secured one fall in his match against Zbyszko.

The Minneapolis man was one of the best American wrestlers in the business, and if he is as good on the night of March 31 as he was when actively engaged two years ago, Stecher will encounter some tough opposition.

TOM FLYNN MEETS ONE JOE STECHER

But Not on the Padded Mat—Meets Other Celebrities, Too, on His Trip to the Coast.

AND SAW SOME BIG SHIPS

Thomas J. Flynn, United States marshal, as back from the Pacific coast, where he delivered one Jay J. Parker to the federal authorities in Seattle. He took Deputy Marshal T. W. Carroll of Lincoln with him.

Their duty performed, the marshal and his deputy rubbered around at the sights in Portland, Tacoma, Astoria and Salt Lake City. Marshal Flynn had never seen big ships before. He tried the decks of some of the big liners at Tacoma and can now tell the bow from the keel and the mast from the smokestack just at a glance.

In Portland they ran across a couple of old Omahans in the persons of "Book" Keith, former base ball manager and well known citizen of Omaha, and "Ed" Kennedy, another old-time Omaha ball player. "Book" operated a third parlor in Portland until the city went into the "dry" column and is now the owner of a large and flourishing fish market. "Ed" is a special agent for the United Pacific.

Proceeding to Salt Lake City, whom should the two marshals meet walking along the street but Joe Stecher, his brother Anton and Joe Hetmanek! The five Nebraskans fall on each other's necks, with joy and repaired to the hotel, where they talked over the beauties of the old home state. "Joe" was "turning 'em away" everywhere, the marshal says. Then they were taken to the taberna and shown all the other sights.

"We saw Brigham Young's grave and wives," says Marshal Flynn. "He passed the grave of the graves of five of his rounded by the graves of his favorite wife and he assured us the favorite was the seventeenth. There were nineteen altogether.

"The guide got off a good one. He said, 'Salt Lake City has eighty-nine churches and two saloons.' He passed there and after a moment added, 'to every church.' Two saloons to every church, you see."

WILLARD TRAINS IN A DRIVING STORM

Champion and Moran Practice Over Frozen and Slippery Roads for Bout.

JESS WRESTLES WITH HUSSANE

NEW YORK, March 16.—In a driving snowstorm, over frozen and slippery roads, both Jess Willard and Frank Moran did hard work today in preparation for their bout. The champion jogged about four miles through Central Park and along nearby thoroughfares, while Moran's five-mile run was cross country near West Chester training quarters.

Willard went through his regular afternoon stunts in the West Side club house, showing plenty of vim and speed in shadow boxing, tumbling on the mat and working the pulleys. Then he took his three sparring partners for two rounds each, and followed with a four-minute wrestling bout with Hussane, the Turk. The medicine ball, which was thrown vigorously by himself and two of his attendants, wound up the most strenuous day of his training.

Moran showed much ability in bag punching and rope skipping, as well as in all his gymnastic work. Trainer Willie Lewis kept Moran's boxing down for four rounds today. He had two hard three-minute sessions with Bartley Aden and Bill McKinnon and finished with two fast rounds in which there were some heavy exchanges between the Pittsburgher and Frank Kendall of Portland, Ore., the heaviest of Moran's three sparring partners.

Moran's trainers admitted he is on edge and will need careful nursing to keep in condition. He said he wished his bout with Willard was on for tonight instead of ten days away.

Convict Pleads with Solons for Dry Law

ALBANY, N. Y., March 16.—Petitions said to contain the names of 1,000 inmates of Sing Sing, Auburn and Dannemora state prisons were filed with legislative committees today by an ex-convict who appeared at a hearing in support of the Wilson-Puller state-wide prohibition bill. The former prisoner, whose name was not disclosed, was introduced as "No. 11,232."

He said that if the future of the bill lay with prison inmates it would be enacted into law in ten minutes. "Most of these men know the effects of intemperance," the former prisoner declared. "They know it was intemperance largely that put them where they are."

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in opposing the measure, said that prohibition was not the cure for intemperance and its attendant evils.

Washington Affairs

Spain's 1915 trade figures, received at the Department of Commerce, show that both exports and imports increased by many million dollars last year. Secretary Daniels announced that dreadnought No. 43, to be built in the New York navy yard, would be christened Tennessee, and that the old armored cruiser, Tennessee, will have its name changed to Memphis.

January foreign trade figures, assembled today by the Department of Commerce, put the month's exports at $22,000,000, compared with $21,000,000 for the same month a year ago. Imports reached $18,000,000, compared with $17,000,000 a year ago.

Internal receipts of the government have shown such a marked increase during the last few months over those of the same months last year that Treasury department officials now are hopeful that the present fiscal year, which ends June 30, will find the treasury with a surplus. At the close of the fiscal year, 1915, there was a deficit of about $5,000,000.

Fast San Francisco Team Too Much for Stores in Extra Time Game.

ENGLEWOOD IS EASY MEAT

CHICAGO, March 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The game between the Olympic club of San Francisco and the Brandeis Stores' five of Omaha, which favored the coast team, 52 to 40, featured the preliminary basket ball games for the National Amateur Athletic union championship last night in the Illinois Athletic club gymnasium. The semi-finals will be decided tomorrow night in the First Regiment armory. Four of the thirteen teams remain.

The two western teams were knotted at the end of the second period, each having scored thirty-nine points. The officials ordered another five minutes of play. The Californians went after their opponents with a vengeance, shooting six baskets and a free throw.

It was a rough game featured by plenty of exciting play. Both officials were busy at all times keeping the players out of trouble. The rivals pushed each other into the side walls, the tactics being much like foot ball. The Californians, however, stood the staff and walked off the floor the popular winner.

The University of Utah five under the guidance of Nelson Norgren, the former University of Chicago athlete, won its way into the semi-finals, by defeating the Columbia Athletic club of St. Louis, 14 to 13. As a result the team from the Norman state looks like a good bet for the honors. Norgren's men used excellent judgment in passing the ball.

Like the other game, the contest was featured by rough play. The players went after the ball in the same manner as a rat ferrier would chase a mouse. They punched and elbowed each other and in every scrimmage it was a common occurrence to see several players sprawling over the hard floor. Scores:

IT'LL BE KIND OF CHILLY DRESSIN' OUT HERE BUT I CANT AFFORD TO MISS THAT DANCE AT DINTY MOORES

It is doubtful if more enthusiasm was shown ever before at a basket ball tourney in Chicago.

A team which opened the wintertime of the local fans was the Brandeis Stores set of Omaha. The only thing to duplicate their line of attack and mode of defense was that of the Illinois Athletic club. Hoppert and Burkenroad bounced 'em from all sides and had no trouble helping their teammates chalk seventy-two points. The final was 72 to 25. Lineup:

Ford Factory Not a Domestic Relations Court, He Asserts

DETROIT, Mich., March 16.—Henry Ford does not undertake to regulate the marital affairs of his employes. This was learned today through his denials of testimony given in a divorce case in Chicago.

Henry Carter, a porter employed by the Ford Motor company, testified that one reason for his seeking a divorce was that Ford employes must make peace in their homes, get a divorce or lose their $5 a day wages. Walter G. May, a former Ford investigator, testified that the line of the Ford policy was incorrect.

"There is no such rule in force," said Mr. Ford. "We make an effort to keep man and wife living together in harmony, but to gain this end we never have gone so far as to lay down an order that a man must obtain a divorce or lose his job if unable to live in peace at home."
