

What is Going On in Society Circles

Former Omaha Girl Engaged.

Mr. William Edward Clark announces the engagement of his daughter Ruth to Mr. Garrit S. Cannon of New York City.

Mr. Cannon is a graduate of Yale university, class of 1888, Shattuck Scientific school. The marriage will take place on Tuesday, the 25th of April, at the church of the Transfiguration, New York.

Creighton Students Organize.

The seniors of the five departments of Creighton university held a smoker and general gathering Wednesday night at the arts department assembly rooms.

Bauer-Miles Betrothal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miles of Sidney, Neb., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Idella, to Mr. Raymond William Bauer of Lincoln.

Miss Miles was graduated from Brown Hall a few years ago, having gone there for six years, at which time she studied voice under Mrs. Smith.

The wedding will take place the latter part of June in Sidney.

Honor Out-of-Town Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurine Levinson will entertain at dinner Sunday at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Harry Raphael of Cheyenne, Wyo., house guests of Mrs. J. L. Cobb. Covers will be laid for:

Mrs. Harry Raphael, Messrs. and Mesdames—William Harris, Mrs. Levinson, J. L. Cobb, Maurice Levinson, Richard Schlaes.

Mrs. Johannes Goes East.

Mrs. Charles E. Johannes leaves for Washington Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Emily Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Burke, who will be the guest of Congressman and Mrs. Kent of California.

Miss Florence Russell, who will spend her ten-day vacation from Smith college with Mrs. Johannes, Mrs. Johannes expects to be gone two months, visiting in New York before her return.

Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Redmond entertained at dinner at the Henahav Friday evening in honor of Miss Julia Dwyer's birthday. The decorations were in green and white and each guest was given a St. Patrick's day favor. Covers were laid for:

Messrs. and Mesdames—Edward P. Walsh, T. P. Redmond, Drs. and Mesdames—T. J. Dwyer, Mrs. Della Flanagan, Miss Julia Dwyer.

St. Patrick's Day Luncheon.

Miss Ethel Tierney entertained at a bridge luncheon Friday afternoon. The decorations were in green and white with St. Patrick's day emblems. Those present were:

Misses—Arminia Anspach, Hazel Anderson, Helen Anderson, Ethel Tierney, Katie Kuntz, Rose Kuntz, Viola Mowat, Terra Tierney.

Christ Child Society Juniors.

The Christ Child society, which is one of Omaha's most active Catholic charity organizations, has been doing some splendid work this winter and is planning to further increase its scope by interesting some of the younger daughters of the members in forming a junior branch to sew and save their money for charity.

Among the younger girls who are interested are Misses Marion Hamilton, Eleanor Burkley, Catherine MoShane, Catherine Smyth, Virginia Auldous, Esther McVann, Virginia Crofoot, Mary Jane Kinler, Ruth Kinler, Esthona Hamilton and Emma Nash.

Buchanan-Adams Wedding.

Miss Sophia Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams of Milwaukee, was married in Chicago yesterday to Mr. Wilson Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Buchanan. Mr. Wilson Buchanan went to Chicago Thursday evening to be present at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Buchanan will be at home in Omaha after a three weeks' honeymoon in the south. Mrs. Buchanan was head resident of the Social Settlement here.

Among the Visitors.

Mrs. P. J. Molnery of New York is visiting Mrs. Edward Riley.

Mrs. A. R. Jaquith has as her guest Mrs. O. C. Thompson of Grand Island.

Miss Margaret Lee of Sun Lake city is visiting Miss Nell Beatty at Highland Court.

Mrs. E. Z. Arnold of Chicago is the house guest of Colonel and Mrs. D. W. Arnold. Many affairs are planning for Mrs. Arnold.

Mrs. Edwin Freeman of Lexington, Ky., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Freeman, at the Potter. Mrs. Freeman was formerly Miss Shirley Freeman of this city, and many affairs will be given in her honor.

Holy Angels' Kensington Club.

Among the societies formed for charitable work this Lent is the Holy Angels' Kensington club. Mrs. W. J. Casick is president; Mrs. James Farbing, vice president; Mrs. J. A. Bender, treasurer, and Mrs. J. J. Walker, secretary. The club met last Thursday at the Working Men's home, an institution of which Rev. Edward Flanagan is president. The work

Visiting Her Parents in Omaha

Mrs. Edward Freeman ALHAMBRA STAGE

WILL SOON LEAVE TO MAKE HER HOME AT GRAND ISLAND.

Mrs. LM Williams

Last month at the Hotel Fontenelle and the receipt of many social attentions, left last Sunday for Colorado Springs, where she joined her brother, E. F. Folds, for a motor trip to Los Vegas and other points in New Mexico.

Mrs. Charles B. Keller has gone east to visit her son, Harold Keller, in Philadelphia. Miss Emily Keller, who is to attend a dance at West Point, chaperoned by Mrs. Harold Keller, will join them in Philadelphia next week.

Mrs. F. S. Owen has returned from her beautiful winter home in Monte Cito, Cal. Mrs. Owen made a trip to San Diego, and while there went through many exciting experiences in connection with the great floods which have devastated that region.

Mrs. Gertrude Owen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Owen, will graduate this year from Bishop's school and Mrs. Owen is expecting to return to California in time for the graduation exercises.

Scottish Rite Musicals. The Scottish Rite Woman's club will give a musical at the cathedral, Friday afternoon, following which a reception will be held.

Phi Rho Sigma Smoker. The Phi Rho Sigma chapter of the Phi Rho Sigma gave a smoker to the members of the faculty of the College of Medicine of Nebraska university at the chapter house Friday evening.

Call for Officers. Mrs. Otto Showers has hosted Thursday afternoon at the J. F. W. club at the annual election of officers and the social meeting that followed the business session.

Party for Her Husband. Mrs. Frank Hooper entertained the Orhild club at a St. Patrick party in honor of her husband's birthday.

Mrs. Katharine Leeder was given a surprise party Friday evening on her sixtieth birthday by members of four different clubs with which she is associated.

Mrs. J. J. Wielog and daughter Mildred of Lincoln and Miss Mary Coleman of Chicago have been called to Omaha by the serious illness of Mr. John Brady.

Mrs. G. W. Hervey left Saturday for Buffalo, Ark., called there by the serious illness of her brother, Mr. S. G. Campbell, who twenty-five years ago was well known in Omaha in real estate and railroad circles.

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Linn Smith, regent of Rev. Ruben Pickett chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Chadron, Neb., is in the city en route home from attending the state conference held at Lincoln last week.

Miss Edith Hamilton is spending the week in Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters have arrived home from a month spent in Belair, Fla.

Mrs. D. C. Stapleton returned Saturday from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber at Phoenix, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Howland and daughter, Miss Marjorie Howland, have returned from California.

Mrs. Leep Daly of Chicago, who has spent some time at the guest of her mother, Mrs. John B. Faray, has returned to her home.

Mr. Farnam Smith returned Tuesday from Palm Beach, where he and his uncle, Mr. B. F. Smith, have been spending some time.

It takes but a minute of time to save dollars when you read The Bee Want Ad columns.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Florence Social Items

Mr. Frank Johnson of Tuscola, Ill., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson and family.

Mrs. R. A. Cole of Ohio is visiting her son for a few weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ady expects to leave shortly for Iowa, where she will visit relatives and friends for a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Blair visiting friends and relatives.

Max Mary Mann of Bryan, Tex., arrived in Florence Wednesday to spend the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Tucker.

L. T. Amis, having sold his blacksmith business to Joseph Stock, expects to leave shortly for the south with his wife, who has been in poor health.

The Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs entertained at a banquet at their hall on Friday evening at a roll call session. Over 100 couples sat down to a sumptuous feast, which was interspersed with speech making.

Mrs. Mattie Baird left Sunday for a short business trip to Missouri.

Mrs. W. O. Nelson entertained Friday evening the senior class of Florence High school. About fifteen were present and greatly enjoyed the evening.

The minstrel show which will be given by the Eagles' Military band on Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21, will be the big social event of the season in Florence.

All the music of the production is specially written for this occasion by the leader, H. H. Rohrs. Besides the customary first part the second act will consist of the musical farce, "The Tale of Stow," depicting the adventures of the shipwrecked minstrel company on a cannibal island. In this act there will be introduced a number of specialties, and the songs will have a local color.

Mrs. William Anderson is spending a couple of weeks in Schuyler, Neb., visiting her sister.

The Eagles' Dancing club entertained about 100 couples at a St. Patrick's dance at their hall Friday evening.

Leonard Schuitze, who has been spending the winter at Wausau, Neb., returned to Florence Sunday evening.

C. J. Kierle and M. B. Thompson left Monday evening for Kansas City, Mo., on a business trip. They were joined by their wives Wednesday and returned home Saturday.

Mrs. H. J. Harrington entertained Circle No. 2 of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church at her home Tuesday afternoon. After a pleasant afternoon a dainty luncheon was served.

The ninth grade of the Florence school met Wednesday afternoon and elected those officers for the rest of the year: President, Bertha Ove; vice president, Vi-rotia Barham; secretary, Mae Hunt; treasurer, Harry Brabin; sergeant-at-arms, Cecil Barham and Robert Lettinsky. Circle No. 2 of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will entertain at a shadow box social at the church parlors Thursday evening.

Barry—To Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conrad Sunday, a boy.

Mrs. R. H. Ormsted, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Bentley G. McCloud, in Chicago, returned home Sunday evening.

AMES AGGIES WIN DEBATE AT LANSING. LANSING, Mich., March 18.—Iowa State college last night defeated Michigan Agricultural college in a debate on the subject "Resolved: That there be vested in the federal government exclusive right to manufacture and sell arms and munitions of war." Iowa had the negative.

GOVERNOR AMMONS TO SPEAK HERE WEDNESDAY. Former Governor E. M. Ammons of Colorado is to speak to the Commercial club at a public affairs luncheon at noon March 22. "Development of Water Power in the West" is to be his subject.

PHI RHO SIGMA SMOKER. The Phi Rho Sigma chapter of the Phi Rho Sigma gave a smoker to the members of the faculty of the College of Medicine of Nebraska university at the chapter house Friday evening.

CALL FOR OFFICERS. Mrs. Otto Showers has hosted Thursday afternoon at the J. F. W. club at the annual election of officers and the social meeting that followed the business session.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Nell Dugdon, who has been ill with scarlet fever, is recovering and able to sit up for a short while during the day.

Mrs. J. J. Wielog and daughter Mildred of Lincoln and Miss Mary Coleman of Chicago have been called to Omaha by the serious illness of Mr. John Brady.

Mrs. G. W. Hervey left Saturday for Buffalo, Ark., called there by the serious illness of her brother, Mr. S. G. Campbell, who twenty-five years ago was well known in Omaha in real estate and railroad circles.

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Linn Smith, regent of Rev. Ruben Pickett chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Chadron, Neb., is in the city en route home from attending the state conference held at Lincoln last week.

Miss Edith Hamilton is spending the week in Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters have arrived home from a month spent in Belair, Fla.

Mrs. D. C. Stapleton returned Saturday from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber at Phoenix, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Howland and daughter, Miss Marjorie Howland, have returned from California.

Mrs. Leep Daly of Chicago, who has spent some time at the guest of her mother, Mrs. John B. Faray, has returned to her home.

Mr. Farnam Smith returned Tuesday from Palm Beach, where he and his uncle, Mr. B. F. Smith, have been spending some time.

It takes but a minute of time to save dollars when you read The Bee Want Ad columns.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, jr., who has been visiting in Burlington, Vt., with her mother, writes friends here that her mother's condition is greatly improved and that she hopes by summer to be able to go to the seashore and to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and little daughter, Esthona, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barber in Phoenix, Ariz., for several weeks, are now in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olen Wharton, who has been visiting at Richmond, Va., is now in West Orange, N. J., but will leave this week for New York City, where she will join Mrs. Moshier Colpitts.

Berg's 15th and Douglas Berg's

Advertisement for Berg's clothing store, featuring 'The Fashions of the Hour' and 'Our Collection of Suits is Beautiful'. Includes prices for suits and hats.

Advertisement for Lacy & Tremaine millinery store, featuring 'The Silk Shop' and 'Just received' section.

Advertisement for Miss Hartell dress shop, featuring 'Model Gowns' and 'Latest Importations'.

Advertisement for Margarette Lemen piano teacher.