

CHANCELLOR HAS SITUATION IN HAND

Move to Displace Von Bethmann-Hollweg with Admiral Tirpitz Probably Will Fail.

SUBSEA TWO-EDGED WEAPON

BERLIN, March 20.—(Via London, March 21.)—Friends of the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, are now confident that he has well in hand the political situation connected with the displacement of Admiral Tirpitz as minister of marine, and that there need be no fear that it will develop into what is termed a chancellor's crisis. They believe the national liberal and conservative resolutions, calling for unlimited use of submarines against hostile vessels, with the exception of passenger ships, may not even come to the point of open discussion and a vote in the Reichstag.

The prime movers in the agitation—Herr Von Heydebrand, conservative leader in the Reichstag, and Major Ernst Basserman, national liberal leader—have avoided introduction of interpellations to which the chancellor would be forced to reply, and have chosen to state their proposals in the form of resolutions, which unless they are made urgent measures, will take their place in the regular order of resolutions. So many other important resolutions have precedence that discussion of the submarine proposals in this event would be postponed indefinitely. In any case the chancellor scarcely will speak upon the subject matter as the resolution unless he is compelled to do so.

Political Motives in Agitation. The movement which found expression in the resolution is composed of two constituent elements. First there is the large body of popular opinion, which honestly interested in the submarine weapon, desires that it may have an opportunity to display its efficacy unhampered by political restrictions. This element generally is unaware of the political motives which play a part in the movement. Second, there are those who are now and long have been desirous of having another chancellor—one who would permit discussion of peace terms, the projects of the annexationists and the sharpening of the submarine campaign regardless of political dangers. This element would renounce the idea of Prussian franchise reform, the war and administer a check to the socialists as a party entitled to a vote in the affairs of the nation. Some of these have Admiral Von Tirpitz in mind as the proper chancellor, while others have no special candidate for the post.

The chancellor, his friends say, has proved much stronger than his opponents expected, both at headquarters, where he won in the test of strength, and among the people, where he has widespread support, particularly of the great body of the lower middle classes. The moderate character of the chancellor's ideas regarding the nature of Germany's ultimate peace program and the advisability of avoiding measures which might bring new enemies into the field, which assisted him in his opposition of the Pan-Germans and the more extreme annexationists, brought him popular support. With such assistance and with the aid of the more enlightened public opinion the chancellor is confident of his ability to control the situation.

Regarding the immediate occasion of the conflict, it is said advocates of unrestricted use of submarines argued that by proclamation of a regular blockade and declaration of intention to sink all merchant ships bound for England, it would be possible to force Great Britain to make peace overtures within two months. This argument found a certain amount of support at headquarters until it was checked by the counter-argument that the effect probably would be to lengthen instead of shorten the war, owing to the effect on neutrals.

Masons at Spring Reunion Here Are Conferring Degrees

Degrees from the fifteenth to the eighteenth, inclusive, were conferred on the second day of the spring reunion of Nebraska consistory, No. 1, and co-ordinate bodies of the rite, which is being held at the Scottish Rite cathedral, Twentieth and Douglas streets. The reunion started Monday.

John W. Dishrow, vice master of Semper Fidelis chapter, Rose Croix, No. 1, was in charge of Tuesday's work. Luncheon was served at noon at the Scottish Rite cathedral, members of the Scottish Rite Women's club being in charge.

Masons from all parts of Nebraska are in Omaha for the reunion.

Special Train to Stecher-Ordeman Go for Omaha Mat Fans

A special train to carry Omaha mat fans to the Stecher-Ordeman wrestling match, which will be held at Lincoln on the night of March 31, is being lined up by Dan Gimes. A large block of choice single seats for the go will be placed on sale at the Merchants hotel, so that the Omahans who make the trip will not experience the inconvenience of scrambling for tickets after arrival in Lincoln. It is expected that 300 to 400 mat fans will go from Omaha for the event.

Art Exhibit Will Be On Display at the Omaha Library

Plans are now being made by the Library board and officials for the display in Omaha of the exhibit of the Artists of the Northwest, which will be held in the near future. The paintings and drawings that will constitute the exhibit, are being assembled in St. Paul from all parts of the northwest. After packing in iron-bound crates at St. Paul the paintings which will make up the exhibit to be displayed in Omaha, will be sealed by library officials in that city and shipped here by express. Although local library officials believe that the exhibit will arrive in Omaha in a day or so, no definite date for the art display has been set. The entertainment committee having in charge the arrangements for this convention are now at work planning for the proper entertainment of the wives of the delegates, many of whom will bring their "better halves," on the evening of the men at the "big show."

Extension Course in Omaha in Fall

A University Extension course for Omaha is being talked of by several members of the professions, the Ministerial association and other organizations. These courses, which are held annually all over the United States in cities no larger than Omaha, are said by educators and university graduates to be of inestimable value to a community. While no concentrated effort as yet has been made to make plans for such a course the lectures of Prof. Edgar J. Banks this week at the Young Women's Christian association, according to those who are boosting the project, have awakened fresh interest in the probability of a University Extension course in Omaha next fall or winter. I. R. Lines, assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian association and one of the most ardent enthusiasts for a course of this nature, believes that the chances are excellent for making the project a reality. He declared that a University Extension course on the scale as followed in most of the larger cities would mean the bringing to Omaha at intervals of two or three weeks six or eight men of national and international reputation—men who have achieved world-wide fame and distinction in some particular line of endeavor.

STENGER SEES GOOD CROPS FOR SOUTH PLATTE COUNTRY

Ernest Stenger, general manager of the St. Joseph & Grand Island road, is in town in conference with Union Pacific officials relative to improvement and betterments on the line during the coming summer. Mr. Stenger asserts that small grain prospects through southern Nebraska and Kansas were never better. Wheat has come through the winter in splendid condition and there is nothing to indicate that the growing plant is going to be injured by Hessian fly or other insects. A guarantee was given to Belgium, Sir Edward Grey said, that the powers would not cease hostilities until it had been reinstated in its political and economical independence and largely indemnified "for the wrongs it had suffered."

TICK OF MANY WATCHES LEADS COP TO A PINCH

Fred Atkins of Sioux City, awaits trial in the district court on the charge of stealing seven watches from Harry Rothkop, jeweler, at 501 North Sixteenth street. Atkins was bound over from police court, with bonds fixed at $100. Atkins would never have been captured if the seven watches had not insisted in making him sound like an infernal machine. He had just made good his haul, when he strolled casually by an officer, who hearing the ticking, stopped the ill-jeweled culprit, and brought him to jail.

BUT THREE NEW SCARLET FEVER CASES REPORTED

Three scarlet fever cases and one death were reported Monday, as follows: James Miller, 563 South Twenty-eighth; Fara Lamora, 1113 Charles; Mrs. George Flossa, 1231 South Sixteenth. Morris Lumber, 11 months of age, died at 925 Franklin street. For a Billions Attack. When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, loathing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and a ten bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effective. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

Master Butchers Already Booked for Big Den Show

Things are "humming" these days around the office of Secretary J. J. Cameron of the Omaha Retail Butchers' association in preparation for the thirty-first annual convention of the United Master Butchers of America. Through the courtesy of Secretary Weaver of Ak-Sar-Ben the visiting delegates to the convention next August will be the guests of Omaha's justly-famous organization on Monday evening, August 7. Inquiries from many of the local associations in the national body led Secretary Cameron to assure Mr. Weaver that least 600 visitors could be expected that night. The entertainment committee having in charge the arrangements for this convention are now at work planning for the proper entertainment of the wives of the delegates, many of whom will bring their "better halves," on the evening of the men at the "big show."

DESERTER GIVES HIMSELF UP; MUST STAND TRIAL

Into the army recruiting office walked a young man and sat down and talked with Recruiting Sergeant Hansen about the army. "It's a pretty good life," he said. "Steady job, pay regular, good grub." "Oh, there's worse jobs than the army," agreed the sergeant. "You bet," said the visitor. "Guess I'll join." "Well, if you pass the examination, we'll enlist you," said the sergeant. "Oh, you'll take me all right," said the man. "You'll be glad to get me." "Don't be too sure," warned the sergeant. "Well," said the man, with a shadow of a smile, "I'm a deserter. Will you take me now?" The sergeant didn't reject him. He is John McOwen and he said he deserted from the Third cavalry, stationed at Mission, Tex., in December, 1914. The Third cavalry is now engaged in the pursuit of the Mexican bandits. McOwen is lodged in the city jail and will be sent to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., as soon as a guard comes from there to get him, as the army force here now is so small that a guard cannot be spared to take him south. He will be tried before a court-martial, which consists of from five to thirteen officers. Deserters are placed in the "disciplinary barracks," where they have hard work, much drill and no pay. They are generally kept there from six to eighteen months. Some are then discharged dishonorably. Others are restored to the service.

MEETS PREPAREDNESS AS HE ATTACKS KITCHEN

Francisco Regalado made a raid on Gater restaurant, at 1013 Capitol avenue, Monday night, and, armed with a razor, was bent on the gentle pastime of cutting up. Francisco evidently was unaware that preparedness has been the watchword for some weeks, so when he received a generous portion of fillet of sole, he proceeded to retreat toward Senora. A company of dishwashers, headed to the teeth, pursued and captured the offender. Francisco was to have been shot at sunrise, but the day being cloudy, he was sentenced to ten days in the workhouse, instead.

THERE IS A VAST ARMY

of men and women who really never know what it is to enjoy sound, vibrating health—who would be surprised to suddenly gain that exhilarating vitality that robust health brings. Literally thousands without any particular sickness live in "general debility," as the doctors call it—have headaches, are tired and indifferent. To all such people we say with unmistakable earnestness—"Take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month and allow its rare oil-food to enrich and enliven your blood, quicken your circulation, stimulate nutrition, and aid nature to develop that real red-blooded life that means activity, enjoyment, success." Scott's Emulsion is not a drug, but a pleasant food- tonic—free from alcohol. One bottle may help you. Scott & Bowser, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-21

A Never Failing Way to Banish Ugly Hairs

No woman is immune to superfluous growth, and because these are likely to appear at any time, it is advisable to always have some delicate powder handy to use when the occasion arises. A paste is made with some of the powder and water and spread upon the hairy surface; in about two minutes this is carefully removed and the skin washed. You will then find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real Delozone.—Advertisement.

Historical Parade of Ak-Sar-Ben Will Cost Over $20,000

No less than $20,000 will be the cost of producing the historical parade for Ak-Sar-Ben this year, when with fifty floats and twenty-five groups of soldiers, Indians, cowboys, trappers and scouts the history of Nebraska for the last 200 years will be represented. President Everett Buckingham gave this estimate in a brief talk to the hustling committee yesterday when they lunched at the Henshaw hotel. He told them this incidentally in urging the need of boosting the membership, as the organization needs the money. He said also that the finances of the organization are in good shape at present and that Ak-Sar-Ben owes nothing at this time except the little bills that are incurred from month to month. He urged the men to get at least 3,000 members this year, and declared that the gates would not be even closed at that figure. There are already 751 members, as announced by Secretary Weaver. There were 44 members at this time last year. The leading team in the hustling committee, headed by Bert Potter, has brought in 173 members, of which thirty-six are new members, not in the organization last year. Of the 751 members to date 106 are such new members. Charles L. Saunders, new member of

Beautiful Hair, Thick, Wavy, Free From Dandruff

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once. Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out. Immediate!—Yes! Certain!—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderrine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggly, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderrine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderrine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderrine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Advertisement.

For Sprains, Lame Muscles

Absorbine, Jr., brings quick relief. Keep it always at hand for instant use. Athletes use Absorbine, Jr., for the muscle that has been strained, for the cut or laceration that runs a chance of infection, for the abrasion that pains and the lumps that are stiff and lame from over-exertion. Walter Johnson, the famous pitcher of the Washington Americans, says: "Absorbine, Jr., is a first-class liniment and rub-down for tired muscles. I have used it myself to advantage and can heartily recommend it to ball players everywhere." Absorbine, Jr., is a concentrated antiseptic liniment—only a few drops required at an application. It is safe and pleasant to use—leaves no greasy residue. Sold by most druggists, $1.00 and $2.00 a bottle or postpaid. Liberal trial bottle for 10c in stamps. W. F. YOUNG, P. O. D. POOR FELINE IS RUN OVER BY A SPEEDING AUTOMOBILE

One black cat is dead at Sixteenth and Leavenworth streets. The dead animal man was notified to remove the carcass. An automobile struck the feline, which was trying to cross the path of the machine. It is believed the driver of the machine was superstitious about black cats crossing his path. The health officer, where reports of dead animals are received, states that it is rare occurrence to hear of a cat being run over.

COUNCIL SAYS CLARK CAN UMPIRE THIS YEAR

The city council confirmed the appointment of George C. Clark by the Recreation board as chief supervisor of amateur base ball at a salary of $75 per month. Mr. Clark has started a school for amateur base ball umpires.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My daughter was poisoned by salt and it turned into eczema from her hands to her elbows was one mass of red, burning, itching eruptions. It began with a rash which was of such a burning itching nature that at times she was nearly wild. For many weeks she could not put her hands in water and she could not sleep. She suffered intensely for several weeks and I tried wringing towels out of hot water and priting a rubber sheet across her, but she wasn't helped. The Doctor said to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I did and the itching and burning left her, and I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment together with the Cuticura Soap and she was completely healed." United States Tread 'U.S.C.O.' Tires. The Long-Sought-For 'Balanced' Tires. We have actually produced the long-sought-for 'balanced' tires. The instant success of our popular priced 'U.S.C.O.' Tread is a striking example of the automobile owners' immediate recognition of our 'balanced' tires. There are three big, exclusive reasons why the 'balanced' tire is the 100 per cent. efficient tire. 1. Because the rubber tread is 'balanced'—that is, the tread has just the exact 'balance' between resiliency and toughness, which produces the greatest possible efficiency in the whole tread. 2. Because the fabric carcass is 'balanced'—that is, the carcass has complete 'balance' between flexibility which gives easy riding, and strength which gives endurance. 3. Because the whole tire is 'balanced'—that is, the rubber tread and fabric carcass are in such complete 'balance' as to give equal wear—both tread and carcass are equally strong. It is this three-fold 'balance' that sets the five United States Individualized Tires in a class apart. Since our 'balanced' tires began to be "felt on the market" last fall, the sales of United States Tires have increased steadily month by month up to the recent highest increase of 354 per cent.
