

ROURKE AND KRUG OPEN CAMP TODAY

Accompanied by Cy Forsythe, Pa and Marty Leave for Beatrice to Get Things Ready.

EARL SMITH IS ON HIS WAY

At 8:30 this morning Pa Rourke, Marty Krug and Cy Forsythe will catch a rattler out of Omaha for Beatrice, where they will open the spring training camp of the Rourkes. Rourke and Krug will spend the remainder of the week getting the camp ready for the athletes when they begin to report next week.

Marty and Forsythe also contemplate a little preliminary working out so they will have the edge on their mates in the way of condition and be able to put ginger and pep into the training festivities. Fritz Schliebner, Clink Claire and Wallie Spellman will leave Sunday for the camp. All three of these players live in Earl Smith, the scintillating outfielder, left his home in Portsmouth, O., yesterday and will arrive in Beatrice, Saturday. Smith is crazy to be up an, at 'em and says this year he'll rang among the .000 sluggers, as well as retaining the honor of being the best fielding outfielder

Two Will Be Late.

Harry Krause and Ernie Kruger will be a little late in reporting. Krause leaves San Francisco, Sunday, and will arrive in Beatrice, Wadnesday, Krueger will not leave Arizona until April 1, thus and Krueger have been working out already, living as they do where spring has already arrived, and will be in shape when they report.

Cecil Thompson will be on time. He had previously expected to be late on account of pressing business affairs at home in Perry, N. Y. Rourko got a wire from the southpaw twirfer yesterday, in which

KREIGER THROWS REYNOLDS AND CLAIMS THE BELT

PULLERTON, Neb., March 22,-(Special.)-In a fast match for the Nebraska Wednesday evening, Adam Kreiger of Lincoln gained a new title for bimself by throwing Jack Reynolds of Sliver Creek in straight falls; the first in fifty-seven minutes and thesecond in six. Reynolds heretofore held the championship and weighed in at 145; Kreiger weighed in at 1475. The first fall was by the hammerlock and head scissors, but Reynolds' backers claimed that the head was a strangle and after considerable argument it was decided to call the first fall a foul and go for two more falls, so the referee was changed and Kreiger wanted to bet odds that he could throw his man in five minutes, but found

The next fall was by the arm strangle and hammerlock in six minutes and completely put Reynolds out of business. He could not "come back" and the match

Teachers in High School of Commerce Demonstrate that They Are Some Players.

CLOSE RIGHT UP TO FINISH

At basket ball Wednesday afternoon the faculty of the High School of Commerce defeated the pupils, 16 to II, on the Young Men's Christian association floor. The Commerce Righ quintet fought the instructors to a standstill and the game was in doubt until the last minute of play. It was the beaket shooting of Drummond, Linn and Detring that put t over the school team.

The score stood 7 to 5 at the end of the first half, in favor of the faculty, but the students came back strong in the beginning of the second half and overtook the lead and held it until the last three minutes of play. Rokusek was the individual star for the students, with six points to his credit.

As a preliminary to the game the Com merce Reserves walked away with the commercial Tramps by a score of 8 to 2 Brown of the Tramps was the only point getter for his team, with a field goal in the first half. The Tramps were unable to score in the seconi half on account of the close guarding of the Commercial seconds. Fixa and Nicholson played in stellar fashion for the Reserves. The animal has arrived in Omaha from Red Wing, Minn. It came in a car by itself with a liberal consignment of feed and all charges paid. The animal is billed at 3,000 pounds net weight.

Why the elephant should be wished onto him is a mystery Northrup is as yet unable to solve. Not contemplating any opposition to the circus trust at present Northrup is inclined to regard his elephant as a white elephant. Some months ago Northrup became the possessor of one automobile, and the upkeep expense threatened to bankrupt him. He managed to dispose of it and thus escaped. Now he's got an elephant that can eat more peanuts than an auto can gasoline, and a constant chant of "woe is me" can be heard emanating from the Great Western office.
