ROLLER ROLLED BY JOE STECHER

Seattle Heavyweight Wrestler Is Unable to Stay Over Five and Half Minutes.

SCISSORS MAKES HIM YIELD

KANSAS CITY, March 39 .- (Special Telegram.)-Joe Stecher, Nebruska's youthful heavyweight wrestler, took another step toward the crown worn by Frank Gotch last night in Covington hall when he planed the shoulders of Dr. B. F. Roller to the mat, in straight falls.

The first fall was won in five minutes and thirty seconds with the s iss rs and a half Nelson, while the second lasted only two seconds longer (five minutes, thirty-two seconds), a scissors and bar rm, turning the trick

The farmer boy never was in danger throughout the match. He started after the veteran like a wild bull and the good on the offensive. "I have heard so much about the highly touted Roller," sa'd the Ne'raskan before the match, 'that I am go'ng out and tame him as quickly as possible." An Stecher made good his word, Roller is one of the most brilliant memers of the head-spinning union. Although

"OLD KENTUCKY" CHEW THAT SATISFIES

Full of Flavor That Lasts As Long As the Chew Lasts

SWEET AND WHOLESOME

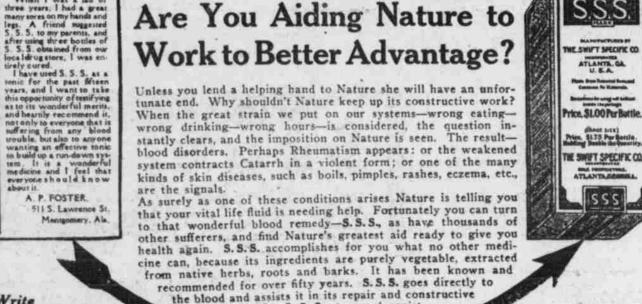

You have noticed, of course, that every kind of loose tobacco dries up, and loses its flavor and fragrance.

It is only the hard-pressed plug, like Old Kentucky, that retains the juice, and preserves the flavor, for a long period.

A chew of Old Kentucky carries straight to your tongue, where you get the full good of it, the sweet, wholesome, appetizing digestion-aiding juice of the leaf.

Old Kentucky makes a specially healthful and satisfying chew because it is made of ripe, selected, hand-stemmed Burley leaf, pressed into plug in a bright, clean factory, under the most rigid sanitary conditions.

If you haven't tried Old Kentucky you should do so right away. You'll say you never supposed a tobacco could be so fruitysweet, delicious and refreshing, In 10c plugs. __Advertisement.
