

DANCE HALL GETS ROAST FROM SEARS

District Court Judge Tells Woman's Club Public Dancing Emporium Is "Rotten."

ADVOCATES GOOD AMUSEMENT

"You've got to make it easy for people to be good, and remember, you can't reform the whole world," Judge W. G. Sears told members of the social science department of the Woman's club Monday in a talk on "The Possibilities of Greater Omaha."

A return to the old-fashioned home with its garden patch, cows, pigs and chickens—homes where a chapter of the Bible is read every day and grace is said before each meal, was advocated by the judge as the remedy for a great many civic evils, especially those besetting young people.

"Good, healthy amusements at low prices should be provided. Opera as it is presented in European cities should be encouraged here. We have just as good local singers as any of the opera singers that come here."

The judge told of having gone to a public dance hall with a social service board member. "Rotten" was the way he characterized what he saw there. "There's nothing wrong with the Virginia reel, money music or the minuet, but they weren't dancing those dances."

"I've heard they dance somewhat similar in higher class places. If that is true, you can't blame the clerk or waitress. But those young people were there because nothing else attracted them to go elsewhere. I heard, too, that a police officer ran that dance hall."

Hasty marriages was another evil emphasized by the judge. "People are so foolish. They take less care in choosing a life partner than a person would in buying a horse," he said.

Old bachelors and old maids who are always complaining against barking dogs and crowing roosters because it interferes with quietude were also scored by the judge, in passing. "Pretty soon they object because babies cry," he asserted.

"Nobody is happy unless they live rational and normal lives."

"You've got to get all the influences for good focused together in order that evil influences, which are better organized, shall not get the upper hand," warned the judge.

NEAT ALIBI FAILS TO WORK WHEN COP APPEARS

Fred J. Timm, 362 South Fourteenth street, charged with the theft of a valuable pin from Ed Rogacz, 208 South Twenty-sixth street, was arraigned in police court charged with the theft.

"I never saw the man's pin," repeated Timm again and again in a most convincing manner. He was making good progress when Sergeant Russell came into the court room and testified that the pin was taken from Timm's person when searched at the station. Timm was apparently on the verge of changing his story when Judge Foster ordered him back to the bullpen after a lecture on the evils of perjury.

RAILROADS REPORT COLD WEATHER OVER NEBRASKA

While they are not looking forward to a hard winter with a heavy fall of snow, railroad officials have put their snow-plows and all other snow bucking apparatus through the shops, so as to have it in first class condition for use in the event it is needed.

Along all lines of road in Nebraska section crews are busy putting the tracks in the best of condition for winter, leveling up the rails and placing new ties where needed. This work will be finished before the ground freezes, at which time the crews will be reduced to the winter normal. This will mean a foreman and two or three men to the crew.

VAG CAN'T FIND WAY OUT OF TOWN; GOES TO JAIL

Pete Hanlon of St. Paul was brought before Judge Foster Monday morning on a charge of vagrancy and was discharged with the proviso that he leave town immediately. The next morning his smiling countenance beamed before the lowering brows of Judge Foster. "I thought I told you to get out of town," hurled Foster in his most ferocious tone.

"I tried and tried and tried, Judge," answered Hanlon sweetly, "but I lost my way and came back."

"Well, you won't get lost for the next ten days. Put him back," finished the magistrate.

The Grip

Grip is something of a joke to those who have never had it, but when they get it they become dead to all sense of humor. No disease was ever more appropriately named because grip takes hold of the entire system. To get rid of it take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and carefully observe the directions with each bottle. This remedy is highly recommended by those who have used it and know its real value. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

SUES FOR PERMISSION TO SELL TRACTS ON THE CARS

Attilla Randolph, believing that he should have the right to distribute copies of the "Bible Students' Monthly" on street cars, in spite of the objections of conductors, has brought an injunction suit in district court to determine his rights. Pending a hearing, a temporary restraining order permits him to give away the tracts to passengers without interference.

LAW MUST BE CHANGED TO CARE FOR PACKING HOUSES

Health Commissioner Connel has discovered that all of the packing houses of the South Side are operating in violation of the law which prohibits slaughtering within the city limits. The recent merger extended the operation of the Omaha ordinances to the South Side. The ordinance regulating slaughter houses will be amended by exempting the district west of Twenty-fourth street and south of G street, which embraces what is now known as the packing house district.

OMAHA WORKERS HELP OUT CHICAGO STRIKERS

A number of Jewish workers of Omaha held a package party at the socialist headquarters Sunday afternoon and raised $45, which was sent to the garment workers in Chicago, who are out on strike. The sum was sent to the treasurer of the striking fund, and was accompanied by a word of sympathy, the hope being expressed that the striking garment workers would hold out until their demands, increased wages and more regular hours be acceded.

Indigestion May Be Due to Constipation

Neglect of Important Function, May Seriously Impair The Health.

There are many people who believe they suffer from indigestion when their discomfort really is due to a constipated condition.

Bloat, with its attendant mental depression, sick-headache, the belching of sour stomach gases, etc., are frequently due to inaction of the bowels. Relieve the congestion and the trouble usually disappears. The use of cathartics and purgatives should be avoided, however; these shock the system unnecessarily and, at best, their effect is but temporary. A mild laxative is far preferable.

The compound of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended. Mr. Benj. Bassin, 260 Madison St., Gary, Ind., thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a wonderful medicine; for four years he had a severe case of indigestion and constipation before trying Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he is glad to recommend to all who suffer with stomach and bowel trouble.

Held Up Twice at Same Location by the Same Bandits

Lee E. Holt of 218 North Nineteenth street was held up twice within two hours Monday evening at Eighteenth and Capitol avenues by two men.

At 9 o'clock he was stopped and commanded to stand still, the command being accompanied by two revolvers held close to his head. He stood still while searched. He had no money. Then he returned downtown and about 11 o'clock tried to return home by the same route, being stopped again by the same men in similar manner. On the second occasion he had no money.

He was told to have money in his purse the next time, but he decided to proceed to his bed and board, thinking that the jinx was working overtime for him.
