

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert-vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty and muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and "peevishness" we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of Limestone Phosphate at the drug store, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation.

Remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.—Advertisement.

Happy Old Age. When old age carries with it hosts of friends, good health and an abundance of this world's goods, it should be as happy as any period of our existence. That is old age as it should be, but too often it means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery.

Missionary from Omaha is Shot by Some Revolutionists

R. H. Secord, connected with the Missouri Pacific Railroad company here, has received word, announcing that his brother Rev. C. F. Secord, a missionary in Guatemala, was shot and wounded by revolutionists of that country, October 28, and that he is now in a hospital in Guatemala. Rev. Mr. Secord was born and reared in the vicinity of Louisville, this state. He studied for the ministry and subsequently became a missionary to the Central America states.

The letter sent by Morano F. Embrades, a representative of President Cobera of Guatemala does not state how seriously Rev. Mr. Secord was wounded. It says: "Rev. Mr. Secord had been out with the president's party several days, October 25 the party was surprised by revolutionists. Three of the president's bodyguard were killed and your brother was wounded. Scouting parties found two wounded members with your brother, tied to a stake, and on an ant hill, where they would have been devoured when the night had passed."

Hitchcock Favors Preparedness as the Best Policy

Speaking on "Preparedness" at the noonday luncheon of the University club, Senator G. M. SUES GRAIN EXCHANGE FOR REFUSAL TO DEAL WITH HIM

Jeremiah Delaney, grain dealer and owner of four grain elevators in Nebraska, has brought suit for $50,000 damages against the Cavers-Sturtevant company and the Omaha Grain exchange, alleging that the defendants have refused to handle his grain and have injured his credit. According to the plaintiff's petition, the defendants refused to deal with him because they asserted he declined to submit a business dispute to arbitration, according to the rules of the grain exchange.

YES—IT IS POSSIBLE TO STOP RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is a tormenting and stubborn malady. In some cases it yields to treatment which is without avail in other cases. The darting pains, lame muscles or stiffened joints only disappear by gradually expelling the uric acid, and so many thousands have been relieved by the blood-enriching oil-food in Scott's Emulsion that you should give it a faithful trial. Scott's Emulsion acts as a powerful blood-purifier by increasing the red corpuscles and it strengthens the organs to carry off the acids which cause the trouble.

Electrical Week to Be Celebrated

The Omaha Electric club has made K. M. Bickel director manager of the activities of Electrical Prosperity week which is to be celebrated in Omaha November 23 to December 4. Special pages of advertising of electrical devices and appliances will be carried at that time in the Omaha newspapers.

"Do it electrically" is the slogan of a placard that is to be widely posted throughout the city during that week, and the whole plan of the campaign is to call the attention of the general public to the many uses to which electricity can be put, and to the many conveniences that result from the use of electricity wherever it is possible.
