BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 10 .- (Special.)-A would-be safe cracker entered the office of the Dierks Lumber company during the early hours of the night, but before he could reach the cash box was frightened off by Manager Joe Molyneaux and a friend. The manager went to the office about 8 o'clock in the evening, and as soon as he entered saw that something was wrong. The safe door stood open, a back window had been pried up with a loading bar and the back door was open. Only a small amount of money was in the cash box, which had not been reached.
