Young Highwayman Compels Grocer's Daughters to Staff Money in His Pocket.

MAKES GETAWAY IN SAFETY

"You get that money up or I'll blow your head off."

With a vicious flash of a monster revolver, an unidentified highwayman about 25 years of age, compelled Misses Henrietta and Rose Jacobson, daughters of A. Jacobson, grocer at 223 Third Street, South Side, to pick up some money he had dropped, while stuffing spoils from the cash register in his pocket. The father was held at bay at the point of the gun.

The holdup and robbery occurred at 9:45 o'clock. The man dressed in a heavy brown overcoat that reached to his ankles, entered the store and after dicking over the price of a certain article, suddenly drew a large revolver from his pocket and demanded that the proprietor and his daughters all hold up their hands. They obeyed. The thief got away with $5 in coin and bills and made a clean getaway before Captain Briggs and a patrol team of officers arrived on the scene a few minutes later.

The two girls were nearly prostrated with fear and were too weak to appear at the station. The man was described as about 25 years of age, five feet eight inches in height, smooth shaven, rough complexion, black silk hat, dark shirt and trousers and wearing a long brown overcoat. He is thought to weigh about 125 pounds.

GREY SAYS PEACE WAITS ON VICTORY

Foreign Minister Reaffirms Aquith's Historic Pledge of a Year Ago.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Reaffirmation of Premier Asquith's historic pledge regarding the entente allies' terms of peace, delivered at the lord mayor's banquet November 9, 1914, was made by Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, today in a written answer to a question put by Sir Arthur Markham, liberal member of Parliament for the Mansfield division of Nottinghamshire.

Grey's Statement. After stating that Great Britain's position in the war is fixed by its alliances with Japan, France and Russia, the foreign secretary proceeded:

"In our view the conditions of peace must fulfill those laid down by the prime minister on November 9, 1914. It is very desirable that it should be understood once and for all that this is the determination of the government, collectively and individually, and of the nation."

What Asquith Said. At the lord mayor's banquet November 9, 1914, Premier Asquith, in outlining the war situation, said:

"This is going to be a long war, but there is nothing in a long struggle to depress us, or in what has happened. Our enemy has tried three objectives—Paris, Warsaw and Calais—and has been baffled in all."

"That is not enough. It will not sheathe the sword, which we have not drawn, until Belgium has recovered more than it has sacrificed; until France is adequately secured against menace; until the rights of the smaller nations have been placed upon an unassailable foundation, and until the military domination of Prussia is finally destroyed."

Missouri Pacific Loses in Nemaha

ALBURN, Neb., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—In district court the jury in the case of Josephine Tynon against the Missouri Pacific Railway company today returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $1,023. This was the second trial of the case. In the first trial last spring a verdict was returned for the defendant. Judge E. E. Good of Wahoo, who presided, set the verdict aside and granted a new trial.

Lambert & Armstrong and R. F. Neal represented the plaintiff and E. A. Kennedy, general attorney, and Kellie & Farnau of this place appeared for the defendant.

The other two cases set for trial this week were both settled and the court adjourned until next Tuesday, at which time Judge Begley of the second district will preside, and Judge Haper will hold court for Judge Rex.

The cases set for next week are: M. S. McClintock against John C. Voline, libel; Fred G. Hawley against James Sparks, slander; L. L. Cline against Jay Will, slander, suit on contract to sell grain, and Sterling Wilber against John E. Epler, slander.

Convicted on Wire Tapping Charges

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 12.—John Flaherty and James Daniels, charged with obtaining $5,000 from George Roth of Des Moines by a wire tapping scheme, were convicted in the Kansas City, Kan., circuit court today.

The first trial of the men a year ago resulted in a disagreement. At the former trial Roth testified concerning his visits to a fake pool hall which, he declared, the defendants operated in Kansas City, Kan., but refused to come from Des Moines to appear against the men at this trial. His testimony taken a year ago was read and a conviction followed a minute after the jury retired.

Joseph Porter also was arrested with the two men convicted today, but the federal government claimed him on a similar charge and he is now serving a sentence in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 13.—Escape of a fireman named Thierly of the crew of the interned German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich was reported today to Rear Admiral Reilly, commanding the Norfolk navy yard.

Customs officials and police have been asked to aid in finding Thierly.

RAILROADS DOING GREAT BUSINESS

General Manager Walters Says the Northwestern Has About All It Can Handle at Present.

CORN CROP IS ENORMOUS

General Manager Walters of the Northwestern railroad lines west of the Missouri river is in a tour of the company's Nebraska territory and asserts that conditions in Nebraska were never as good as at this time. Said Mr. Walters:

"The Northwestern is handling an immense tonnage in Nebraska and we have about all the business we can take care of. There is a heavy movement of small grain and live stock. There is also a correspondingly heavy movement of merchandise and building material and coal back into the country."

"Wheat is coming out far better than was expected, both as to yield and quality. Stacking the wheat seemed to materially improve the grade."

"I think the country along the Northwestern lines has more marketable corn than at any time in the history of the state. Of course, there is a large quantity of soft corn and corn that will not grade for market purposes, but all of this is being used by farmers and stock men for early feed or fattening their hogs and cattle."

"The potato crop has been enormous and while growers are not getting as much per bushel as during some former years, the extra yield is bringing in more money."

"Take the country as a whole. It was never as prosperous as now. Farmers seem to have plenty of money and they are buying freely, though not recklessly. Everywhere the merchants are doing a good business."

Principal of the South Side High is Given Divorce

Because Mrs. Vera E. Moore, in the opinion of District Judge Redick, "would prefer cleaving unto her family and property and home in the state of Kansas, rather than following the fortunes of her husband in Nebraska," Samuel W. Moore, principal of the South Side school, was granted a divorce from her by District Judge Redick, on grounds of desertion.

Mrs. Moore's mother is mentioned in the judge's decision as follows:

"The evidence convinces the court that the defendant has been, under the influence of her mother rather than submitting to the judgment of her husband."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore, the judge found, are of good character.

Mr. Moore was directed to pay $50 a month for the support of their son while he remains in his mother's custody.

No alimony was awarded Mrs. Moore, except a judgment for $25, without interest, which he borrowed from his wife early in their married life.

Correction Made to Distinguish Two of the Same Name

The John Cunningham, who was in the auto accident near Millard, described in the issue of The Bee of November 2, is in the saloon business at Twenty-fourth and Q streets, South Omaha, and has been living with his brother, James Cunningham, 201 V street, and not at 1103 North Twenty-third street, as stated in the article, the John Cunningham living at the latter address being a commission merchant with offices in the Exchange building, who had no connection with the mishap. The Bee makes this correction of its own accord, attention having just been called to the mistake in the address.

VILLA WILL RECEIVE NO MERCY IF TAKEN

Obregon, Who Is at American Nogales, Says Chieftain Will Be Treated as Outlaw.

AMNESTY NOT OFFERED HIM

NOGALES, Ariz., Nov. 13.—General Francisco Villa, chief opponent of the Carranza government in Mexico arrived in Nogales, Sonora, opposite here tonight at the head of 2,000 troops a few hours after the arrival here of General Alvaro Obregon, Carranza's military commander.

General Obregon said that his presence here at the same time Villa was visiting Mexican Nogales, was nothing more than a coincidence.

The Carranza leader, in an interview late today announced that he came here to influence the Indians now in General Obregon's Yaqui army who formerly were under command of Obregon, to switch to the Carranza faction.

See Sonora Taken Soon. He predicted that forces of the de facto government would be in complete possession of the state of Sonora within forty days and explained that he was awaiting reinforcements and further defections from Villa's army before making a decisive move to annihilate the rebel forces.

Reports that General Villa had been offered amnesty were emphatically denied by General Obregon, who declared that Villa would be treated as an outlaw if captured.

General Obregon said he would remain in Nogales but a few days.

General Villa announced that his visit to Nogales, Sonora, was in conference with Carlos Randall, acting governor of that portion of Sonora controlled by Villa. He said he might make Nogales his headquarters for future operations.

Americans in the Mexican town have not been molested and gambling houses across the border were flourishing tonight.

Border Chalked Out. NACO, Ariz., Nov. 12.—The boundary line between Mexico and the United States was chalked and marked at fifty yards intervals by American flags here today. This action was taken after a Villa soldier, escaping from Naco, Sonora, had been pursued by Villa cavalry across the boundary. Colonel W. C. Brown of the Tenth cavalry, United States border patrol arrived at the Mexican border to protest just as General Jose Rodriguez of the Villa forces, signalled to the firing squad that faced the prisoner.

It was explained that the man executed was wanted in connection with a shooting affray and that his pursuers were ignorant of the boundary line.

Avoid All Meat if Kidneys and Bladder Bother

Uric acid in meat excites Kidneys and irritates the Bladder.

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder weakness or Kidney Backache.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder, and thereby ordinary cases which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.
