Omaha Girl in New York.
That Miss Eugene Whitmore is not devoting all of her time to frivolities during her stay in New York is evidenced by a little news item in one of the New York papers which speaks of Miss Whitmore, with Miss Kittie Steinway, Miss Cornelia Wooley and a number of other well known New York girls, as assisting Mme. Marcella Sembrich to sell tags for the benefit of the women and children of the devastated Poland. Mme. Sembrich is president of the American Polish Relief society.

Miss Whitmore spent this week at Briarcliff, where she went to school, and has gone with friends to New Haven today for the big Yale-Princeton game. A week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Philip Sousa at their New York home is one of the pleasures in store for Miss Whitmore before her return home.

Luncheon for Men.
Mr. Myron Learned gave a luncheon Monday at the Omaha club for Mr. John Batchelder of Boston, who was the guest of Mr. A. C. Smith last week. The guests were all men, several of whom, including the host and guest of honor, had just returned from a hunting trip together. Those present were Mr. Victor Caldwell, Mr. Crofoot, Mr. Ward Burgess, Mr. Earl Gannett, Mr. Fred Montgomery, Mr. Arthur C. Smith and Mr. Charles Kountze.

Reception at Benson.
About 200 invitations have been sent out for a farewell reception at the Methodist church, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haffke, who have lived in Benson for a number of years. Both were prominent in church and social work.

Mr. Haffke has been city attorney of Benson, and is now superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school.
Mr. and Mrs. Haffke leave soon for Hope, Ark., where they will live on a 2,000 acre ranch with Mr. and Mrs. William Haffke, Mr. F. J. Barr, Mrs. Julia

The Brambach Grand Baby

The smallest grand piano made in an upright's space and price

WOULDNT you be keenly interested if a friend said "I know where you can buy the most wonderful little grand piano in the world! It is the Brambach Baby Grand. It will actually fit in that corner where your old upright stands—think of that! The price? No more than you were going to pay for a new upright."

A Perfect Grand Piano
Four feet, eight inches long—
Four feet, six inches wide

Skeptical folk come to see the Brambach and are immediately convinced that in its small and compact dimensions are concentrated every quality and superiority of a large grand piano.

If you love a grand piano but are planning to buy an upright because it is less bulky and expensive—acquaint yourself with the Brambach at this store. It costs only $485. Its beautiful mahogany case will add distinction to your home. Its tone will compliment your musical taste.
